This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. 72	THOMAS BEWICK'S COMPLETE WORKS:
	THE MEMORIAL EDITION of the Works of THOMAS BEWICK, in FIVE VOLUMES, royal 8vo. cloth, uncut, 1885-87	Subscription price	5	5	0
	The set consists of 5 volumes, royal 8vo.—
	Vols. I, II, History of British Birds; Land Birds and Water Birds, with the woodcuts of the Supplements incorporated, 2 vols.
	Vol. III, History of Quadrupeds, 1 vol.
	Vol. IV, Æsop's Fables, 1 vol.
	Vol. V, Memoir of Thomas Bewick, written by himself, with numerous woodcuts prepared for a projected History of British Fishes, 1 vol.
	As the original editions have become very scarce and very dear this new MEMORIAL EDITION—the first one in a collective form—gives, at a comparatively moderate cost, to the present generation a delightful opportunity of enjoying the artistic truth and vigour of Bewick's famous cuts in all their original beauty. The original blocks were purchased by Mr. Ward's sons and successors, who have now completed the work. Paper expressly prepared for the reception of woodcuts was used; and all the modern improvements of typography have been enlisted in order to secure brilliant and effective impressions.
	The last volume is prefaced and annotated by Mr. AUSTIN DOBSON, in whose hands Bewick's papers and correspondence, together with the original MS. of the "Memoir," were placed by the late Miss Isabella Bewick's Executors. The "Memoir," which was edited by Miss Jane Bewick in 1862, is now printed more completely.

Bibles, and parts of it:

87 English. BIBLE. Matthew. The Byble, whych is all the holy Scripture; In whych are contayned the Olde and Newe Testament, truelye and purely translated into Englishe. By Thomas Matthewe. 1537. And now Imprinted in the Yeare of oure Lorde .M.D.XLIX . . . Imprinted at London by Thomas Raynalde, and William Hyll dwelling in Paules Churcheyeard, sm. folio, black letter; wanting two leaves of the calendar, and having the letterpress portion of the title, and the second last leaf, in facsimile, and the last mended; otherwise a fine, large, and perfect copy, in old calf Wylliam Hyll, and Thomas Raynaldes, 1549 — 20 0 0

EXCESSIVELY RARE. There is none of the early editions more difficult to find approximately perfect than the Raynaldes and Hill Bible of 1549. Although the letterpress portion of the first title, as well as the second last leaf of the table, is in facsimile; yet everything else is here, including all but two of the preliminary leaves, the New Testament title, and the colophon on the last leaf. There are probably not half a dozen copies extant in which those leaves are not missing. The general condition of the book is also exceptionally good.

88 BIBLE, now lately with greate industry and diligence recognized (after MATHEW'S Bible by Edm. Becke), with Tyndale's Notes and Prologues, folio, black letter, numerous cuts; very fine copy in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Rivière, EXTREMELY RARE

Jhon Daye and William Seres, 1549 — 30 0 0

Mr. Adam Clarke's copy of this edition was sold for £31. 10*s*. Gardner's copy fetched, in 1854, £40. Priced, Thorpe, 1847, £52. 10*s*.

This is the "Bug Bible" as some persons like facetiously to style it, the phrase "bugges by night" being used in Psalm 91, verse 5 (instead of "terror by night" as in the authorised version), but the fact is that no single edition of the English Bible was peculiar in that respect. The phrase re-appears over and over again from the time of Tyndale and Coverdale onwards.

89 BIBLE. THE BYBLE IN ENGLISHE, that is, the olde and new Testament, after the translacion appointed to be read in the Churches, folio, black letter, fine copy, brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford

Imprinted at London in Fletestrete, at the signe of the Sunne, over agaynst the conduyte, by Edwarde Whitchurche, 1549 — 55 0 0

This is a remarkably clean copy, picked from several others, with a few letters of marginal notes in facsimile. Fine and perfect copy of this rare edition of the Bible. Mr. Lea Wilson, in his invaluable Catalogue of the English Bibles, mentions this very curious fact, "The volume has been evidently printed at two different presses. The whole of the first part and down to fol. lxxxvii of the second, and the Apocrypha, are in a type differing entirely from the rest of the volume, particularly the running titles and initial letters of all the chapters. In the parts above mentioned, the names of the Almighty, Lorde, and God, are printed in Roman capitals; in the latter parts they are not distinguished in the text."

90 Latin. BIBLIA SACRA, cum Franc. Vatabli et aliorum annotationibus, 2 vols. folio, calf, gilt leaves Parisiis, 1729-45 — 2 2 0

An edition of considerable critical merit.

This work is the first of an illustrated History of Egypt, which presents a complete record of what is now known, both of dated monuments and of events, from the prehistoric age down to the modern times. For the earlier periods every trace of the various kings will be noticed, and all historical questions will be fully discussed.

The volumes will cover the following periods:—I. Prehistoric to Hyksos times. By Prof. Flinders Petrie. II. XVIIIth to XXth Dynasties. III. XXIst to XXXth Dynasties. IV. The Ptolemaic Rule. V. The Roman Rule. VI. The Muhammedan Rule.

The volumes will be issued separately. The first is ready, the Muhammedan volume will be early next year, and others at intervals of half a year.

300 BROWN (James) The Forrester. Edited by John Nisbet. Sixth edition, 2 vols. 8vo. cloth 1894 2 2 0

"The Compendious character of 'The Forrester" therefore fits it to become the companion of the country gentleman as well as of the timber dealer. Mr. Nisbet is to be congratulated on the amount of minute pains which he has expended on every point treated in these two handsome volumes. A good Index and numerous illustrations render them still more valuable.

"The value of 'The Forrester" as a practical manual of growing and disposing of timber is extreme.

"Sir Walter Scott's plantations were the delight of his leisure. Any book which, like 'The Forrester,' largely contributes to extending this rustic taste, and there by increasing the happiness of country-dwellers, is much to be commended. To sit under the trees which a man himself has planted is to realize one side of Paradise:

"Aureus hanc vitam in terris Saturnus agebat."

329 GEOLOGICAL CONGRESS AT ZURICH (The International) 1894

"Without doubt the most important feature of the Congress was the new international geological map, which has been under course of preparation in Berlin since the Congress meeting of 1881, and is now exhibited for the first time. A Report on its progress was read by Dr. Hauchecorne, of Berlin. The topographical groundwork has been prepared by Kilpert, to scale 1 : 1,500,000; the system of geological colouring followed has been most successful, and the Congress has certainly every reason to be satisfied with the result of the co-operation of the various surveys and societies to produce an international map. The whole map will contain forty-nine sheets; only six are now ready for issue, including the North-west part of Europe, Northern Germany, with parts of France, Belgium, Poland, etc. The next part, to be issued within a year, will contain ten sheets, and will include the British Isles, France, Spain and Portugal, Italy, and Switzerland. Some difficulty has arisen in regard to the older palæozoic rocks of various districts, and also as to the method of showing the Quaternary beds. It is now settled that solid rocks, where their distribution is known, will be shown by thin bands of colour over the general colour for Quaternary beds.

"The subscription for the entire map is £4, but this can be paid in instalments as the various parts are published. The proportion for the first part will be 10*s*; and after December, 1894, the subscription price will be raised."—Nature, September 20th, 1894.

Hearne's Works on LARGE PAPER are of the highest degree of rarity, as of most of them no more than fifty copies (and in some cases less) were printed. English Historians are under great obligations to this learned and painstaking Antiquary for the numerous Chronicles rescued by him from oblivion.

The small plate of Coins in the margin of page 103 of Book III is repeated on page 101. Also the plate on page 64 of the same Book is repeated on a separate leaf opposite page 68, with an oval plate pasted on the back containing the coats of arms referred to on page 69. I have not seen these duplicate plates or the oval plate, none of which is mentioned by Lowndes, in any other copy.

"This is a faithful reprint (and fortunately not an expurgated one) of the celebrated manuscript which formed the foundation of Bishop Percy's famous Reliques of Ancient English Poetry, but the value of which work is lessened by numerous alterations and supposed improvements by that eminent scholar in many of the originals. But beyond this, the manuscript contains much valuable matter nowhere else to be found."

"This precious manuscript contains 196 pieces (some fragments), in nearly 40,000 lines, and is in a hand of James I's reign. The list of its contents shows how many unprinted Ballads and Romances it contains—for what Percy printed of the manuscript must be considered unprinted for our purpose."—Editor's Preface.

536 Wales. WILKINS (Chas.) History of the Iron and Steel Industry in Wales, 1 vol. 8vo. 1895 0 12 6

"Glamorganshire, as it is the largest county in Wales, is far and away the most important, and it stands to reason it should be the one county which ought to have its history well written. Several writers have attempted to give us the story of Glamorganshire in parts—just as it suited their objects and their views—but the only writer who has attempted to narrate the real development of the county is Mr. Charles Wilkins, of Merthyr, the man who gave us an admirable account of the rise and progress of his own town. Some time after Mr. Wilkins told us the story of the rise and progress of the great coal industry of Wales, in a volume which was remarkably well received by all classes, not only in South, but also in North, Wales. So well received, indeed, had those two volumes been, that Mr. Wilkins felt justified in bringing out a companion volume on the steel industry of the Principality, with notices of the leading men associated and a sketch of the social history of the time. Mr. Wilkins's new volume will have interest to readers far beyond those immediately connected with the mining and iron industries of North and South Wales. As he tells us in his prospectus of the work, his intention is 'to make it the social and industrial annals of the most important districts of Wales, and a work of reference which should be in every home in the Principality.'"—Western Mail, September 29th, 1894.

The Dawn of Civilization. (EGYPT AND CHALDÆA.)

By Professor MASPERO. Edited by the Rev. Professor SAYCE. Translated by M. L. McCLURE. With Map and over 470 illustrations, impl. 8vo. cloth boards, 20*s* 1894

This is one of the most important books ever undertaken by the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge—and may be regarded as the book of the Season. It is a translation of the magnum opus of Professor Maspero, "Les Origines." This volume, which will appear simultaneously in Paris, London, and New York, is an attempt to put together in a lucid and interesting manner all that the monuments have revealed to us concerning the earliest civilization of Egypt and Chaldæa.

The results of archæological discovery in Egypt and Chaldæa, accumulated during the last thirty years or so, are of such a vast and comprehensive character that none but a master mind could marshal them in true historical perspective. Professor Maspero is, perhaps, the only man in Europe fitted by his laborious researches and great scholarship to undertake such a task, and the result of his efforts will soon be before the world in "The Dawn of Civilization." It will be a large volume of more than 800 pages, and will contain over 470 illustrations, all expressly engraved for the book. The period dealt with covers the history of Egypt from the earliest date to the fourteenth dynasty, and that of Chaldæa during its first Empire. The aspect of the valleys of the Nile and the Euphrates, their climate, their productions, religion, manners and customs, the organization of their respective States, their traditions, and all that is known of their kings and dynasties down to the twenty-fourth century before our era, will be dealt with in the volume. The points of contact with Bible History, if not chronological, are illustrative. The pictures of Egyptian life prepare one for entering more intelligently into the historical portions of the Pentateuch, while the Chaldæan account of the Deluge, and the whole religious system of the early Semites, have striking resemblances to much that we find in Holy Scripture. The work is translated by M. L. McClure, with assistance of other members of the Committee of the Egypt Exploration Fund, and edited by Professor Sayce, who adds a Preface. The book is brought up to the present year, and takes note of the most recent discoveries.

The Ancient Nations of Mesopotamia, recently referred to, are as follows:—

"This land is no other than the famous and once beautiful valley of Mesopotamia, through which the great Euphrates and arrow-swift Tigris flow to empty themselves into the Persian Gulf. Almost lost sight of for awhile, interest in it was reawakened some seventy years ago by the investigations commenced by Mr. Rich, and followed up with such wonderful results by Botta, Place, Layard, George Smith and others. Their discoveries have revealed to us in unexpected fulness the details of a complex and advanced civilization almost, if not quite, as ancient as the Egyptian, and far more profoundly interesting, for the ancient nations of Mesopotamia are the intellectual forefathers of the modern world.

"The learning of the Chaldees was the heritage of the Jews and Greeks, from these the torch was handed on to the Romans, and Jew and Greek and Roman inspired, and still inspire, for good and evil, the civilization of the nineteenth century. There is much more of the Chaldæan in every one of us than we are given to imagine.

"The people who we find in possession at the dawn of history were Semites, the parent stock from which the Jews subsequently branched off; and one has but to glance at their faces and forms, as portrayed in their statues and pictures, to recognize the strong family likeness, while the emphasis with which muscular development is expressed in parts of the human figure suggests that the remarkable assertion, 'The pride of a young man is in his legs,' was a Semitic opinion long before the time of Solomon."—Nature, September 20th, 1894.

Map of Corea, with the natural features marked in tints, and all the names in Roman and Chinese Characters, on a large sheet 37½ × 25 inches in size, 5*s* Shanghai, September, 1894

On the margins there are smaller maps, in compartments, of Yuensen, Fusan, Chemulpo, Seoul and its environs, besides a chart of reference to facilitate the study to Europeans.

The scale of the large map is not given, but it is about 15 miles to the inch.

Ptolemy : THOS. G. RYLANDS, the Geography of Ptolemy elucidated,

roy. 4to., 23 maps, cloth, 15*s* Printed for the Author, 1893

In "The Geography of Ptolemy elucidated," Mr. T. G. Rylands has solved, with infinite labour, great skill, and fertility of suggestion, a problem of extreme difficulty. The errors of observation however which distort Scotland, have no parallel here. The Original Greek map of Egypt adopted by the Latin translator not only depicts a part of the world where the low latitudes are more nearly a plane surface, but each place in the Nile valley had been visited by Cl. Ptolemy himself. (Paper by Mr. F. Cope Whitehouse, in the Proceedings of the Society of Biblical Archæology, November, 1893.)

Mr. Rylands' long and careful bibliographical and mathematical study of Ptolemy, and his laborious corrections and verifications, have also resulted in an important addition to Ptolemaic literature. THE BOOK OF WISDOM AND LIES.

THERE was once a mighty monarch all whose great deeds no one can imagine. By his goodness and kindness he gathered up such a flood of mercifulness in his heart that the waters of the ocean were not one thousandth part as great. Violence and cruelty he wafted away from his heart by means of the breeze of the fear of God; by his generosity he overshadowed all, more than the rain-bringing clouds; in his gifts, scattered to all men, he outdid the rain of heaven. His warlike exploits and the terror thereof spread over the face of the whole earth, so that they were more feared than the thunderbolt. His mildness and affability endeared him to his folk; they grew to love those qualities of his so much that they thought them sweeter than is a mother's milk to her child. This great and exalted king was called Phonez. He had a vizier, who by his wisdom reached to heaven, by his understanding he measured the

The Book of Wisdom and Lies.

A GEORGIAN STORY-BOOK of the XVIIIth Century by Sulkhan-Saba Orbeliani, translated, with notes, by Oliver Wardrop. Sold by Bernard Quaritch, 15 Piccadilly, W. Bound in white limp vellum, uncut, £2. 2*s* Printed by William Morris at the Kelmscott Press, and finished the 29th day of September, 1894

"It can scarcely be necessary to say that in point of type, printing, paper, binding, and decoration THE BOOK OF WISDOM AND LIES, a Georgian Story-book of the Eighteenth Century, by Sulkhan-Saba Orbeliani, translated, with notes, by Oliver Wardrop (Quaritch), is a beautiful work of art. This much is implied in the fact that the book is printed by Mr. William Morris at the Kelmscott Press. The type is slightly archaic, but very clean and beautiful. The notes, titles, and marginal references are brilliantly rubricated. The initial letters and incidental decorations are masterpieces of Mr. Morris's design. The paper is hand-made, and the binding is limp vellum fastened with silken strings and turned over at the edges after the Italian fashion. Even less attractive material than Mr. Wardrop provides would be delightful to read in so dainty a volume. But the book is full of intrinsic interest, and its interest is well set forth in the introduction, in which Mr. Wardrop gives a brief but adequate account of Orbeliani and his work."—Times, November 9th, 1894.

"The beautiful folio, entitled 'HALF-TIMBERED HOUSES AND CARVED OAK FURNITURE of the 16th and 17th Centuries,' by William Bliss Sanders, with 30 Illustrations from the Original Sketches of the Author (Bernard Quaritch), is the fulfilment of a promise made ten years ago by the Author in the Preface to his much appreciated work 'Examples of Carved Oak Woodwork of the 16th and 17th Centuries.' The drawings are very attractive in themselves and very skilfully executed, and they are accompanied by explanatory letterpress in which Mr. Sanders displays at once his zeal, his taste, and his knowledge of the handicrafts of his country."—Times, November 2nd, 1894.

SNORRI STURLASON'S HEIMSKRINGLA, vol. 2, or the Stories of the Kings of Norway, done into English out of the Icleandic by WILLIAM MORRIS and EIREKR MAGNUSSON, post 8vo. hf. bd. 7s 6d 1894

The Heimskringla will be complete in 4 vols. The third and fourth are ready for press.

Reader, have you ever pored days and nights over the pages of SNORRO? probably not, for he wrote in a language which few of the present day understand, and few would be tempted to read him tamed down by Latin dragomans. A brave old book is that of Snorro, containing the histories and adventures of old northern kings and champions, who seemed to have been quite different men, if we may judge from the feats which they performed, from those of these days; one of the best of his histories is that which describes the life of Harald Haardraade, who, after manifold adventures by land and sea, now a pirate, now a mercenary of the Greek emperor, became king of Norway, and eventually perished at the battle of Stanford Bridge, whilst engaged in a gallant onslaught upon England. Now, I have often thought that the old Kemp, whose mouldering skull in the golgotha of Hythe my brother and myself could scarcely lift, must have resembled in one respect at least this Harald, whom Snorro describes as a great and wise ruler and a determined leader, dangerous in battle, of fair presence, and measuring in height just five ells,* neither more nor less."—Geo. Borrow's "Lavengro," Vol. I, 1851, p. 25.

"The Stories of the Kings of Norway, called the Round World (Heimskringla), by Snorri Sturluson: done into English out of the Icelandic by William Morris and Eiríter Magnússon; vol. I, with a large map of Norway (Bernard Quaritch). These sagas or biographies of the Norwegian kings and heroes down to 1177, were based by Snorri on the 'Tellings-up of Forefathers, the olden story-lays which men have had for their joyance, and the songs of the Skald-Spillers.' No mythology is more quaint, more heroic, or fuller of moral significance, than the Scandinavian. It is nearly half a century since Laing first published his translation of Snorri, although a new edition, revised by Rasmus B. Anderson, has appeared much more recently. The Saga Library, now being edited by Mr. Morris, a task for which he is peculiarly fitted, cannot fail to revive and extend interest in Skaldic poetry. The effort may have had its origin in the increasing claim on the world's attention of modern Norse literature, and may even result in the uprising of a master-singer who will interpret Snorri as Tennyson did Malory."—Sidney Morning Herald.

"The editors of the 'Saga Library' have done wisely to select the 'Heimskringla' for early translation in the series of which the present volume is the third. It might, perhaps, with even greater propriety have formed the initial work of the whole, for, although it is the history of the kings of Norway, it supplies, in reality, the broad background that fills in nearly the whole scene of the Sagas, wherever their action may be. Even those of them which are specifically Icelandic have, almost without exception, direct points of contact with Norway, and are frequently far more intelligible in the light of the additional detail furnished by the Sagas of the kings and earls under whom the Icelanders constantly served as men-at-arms and sung as scalds. The intimacy of this contact and its continuity are sufficiently indicated when we remember that the 'Heimskringla' itself was written by an Icelander, who collected his material mainly from sources orally transmitted in both Iceland and Norway three centuries after the settlement of the island by Norsemen."—The Nation, June 21st, 1894.

"Seen in Three Days." Sung and Seen Series. Written, drawn, and tinted by EDWIN J. ELLIS, 4to. cloth, 25*s* 1893

Under the heading of "MYSTICISM WITH PEN AND PENCIL," the Westminster Gazette of September 7th, 1893, says:—"There are those who love Walt Whitman down to his minutest mannerisms, but detest an imitator; and there are those whose worship of Blake carries with it an utter intolerance of every other mystic. But Mr. E. J. Ellis is among the few who profess to have found the key to Blake's system; and if the great visionary's work is to be regarded in that light, and not at all as a body of wayward poetical imagery, it is inevitable that disciples should try to carry that work on, as Mr. Ellis does in this strange volume. To a mystic of sympathetic soul, 'Seen in Three Days' will doubtless be pregnant of meaning: there are many meanings which its pictured pages suggest even to the complete uninitiate; indeed, such an one is tempted to say that there is hardly anything in the heavens or earth or waters under the earth which he can certainly affirm that they do not mean. The smooth, sometime melodious, versification flows on from page to page, about dreams and souls and presences divine; and the mystic pictures accompany them in keeping with the key-note vision, Blakesque enough in its conception, of twin figures stepping down a ladder of outstretched wings—the one, Dumb-show, bandaged as to his mouth; the other Blind-words, bandaged as to his eyes. But the average reader soon begins to feel bandaged all over. Yet the figures in the pictures are clearly embodied enough. The author has given one odds by subjecting himself to the use of pen and pencil both. However aerial his speculations, he has had to clothe them in what his master called the human form divine, and the merest tyro at mysticism can take pleasure in the fine and expressive drawing of many of the figures. No one, indeed, can make the human body look as if it were built to fly without wings, as Blake made it look. But Mr. Ellis's winged beings are not without a kind of vraisemblance of their own. We confess we should have much preferred the text in plain print. To dribble it along in rather untidy manuscript is to handicap the long-suffering reader unnecessarily."

Shakespeare's Midsommer Night's Dreame.

An illustrated new edition of Shakespeare's "Midsommer Night's Dreame." By J. MOYR SMITH, 1 vol. royal 4to. with 55 vignettes and 15 large etchings on copper 1892

——— State 2, a copy with plates on Japan paper, £5. 5*s*, now offered at £2. 2*s* Only twelve copies left.

——— State 3, a copy with plates on antique paper, £2. 12*s* 6*d*, now offered at £1. 1*s*

The text, printed in Sepia on fine paper, is from the First Folio, 1623.

The Introduction, besides other matter, contains descriptions of the methods adopted for setting the Play on the Stage, by Mr. Phelps, at Sadler's Wells; by Mr. Calvert, at Manchester; and by Mr. Benson, at the Globe Theatre, London.

Mr. Frederick Fenton, Chief of the Scenic Department, Crystal Palace, formerly associated with Mr. Phelps, gives particulars of arrangements at Sadler's Wells. Mr. Hugh Moss, of the Royal English Opera House and the Savoy Theatre, who directed the Stage arrangements at the Globe Theatre, gives information as to the production of the Play by Mr. Benson.

Sporting Dogs: CUPPLES (George) SCOTCH DEER-HOUNDS and their Masters, with a Biographical Sketch of the Author by J. Hutchison Stirling, LL.D., sm. 4to. pp. xviii and 336, portrait and 3 plates of celebrated dogs, cloth, 30*s* 1894

Only 150 copies were printed, and the book is now entirely out of print.

This is a very valuable monograph dealing not only with the descent of the Scotch Deer Hound, but also with the Natural History of the Domestic Dog, with which the author has incidentally interwoven various "ethnological theories relating to the migration of the races." It is replete with sporting anecdotes of Deer Stalking and Deer Driving in various parts of the world, and forms a necessary complement to Scrope's and Crealock's Works on Deer Stalking.

Two Valuable Works on Textiles:

There are, undoubtedly, some who will be glad to be informed that the following works can be obtained at a comparatively low cost:

EASTERN CARPETS. By V. J. Robinson. Second series, with descriptive notices by Sir George Birdwood. Printed in colours by W. Griggs, after water-colour drawings by E. Julia Robinson. Royal folio, ornamental cloth; twelve superb chromo plates on eleven sheets, with text. 1893. Price, $16. (£3.3*s*)

The work consists of representations of the very finest specimens of silk, moultan, Spanish, Afghan, Sicilian, Shuster, Goa and Laristan carpets. Its production is the result of the success attending the publication of the now extremely rare first series, in 1882, which was undertaken at the suggestion of Sir George Birdwood as a means of furnishing a record of some of the choicest productions of the eastern looms. This series is in no way inferior to its predecessor in point of finish, richness of colouring, and in the beauty of the original designs. The first series of Robinson's Eastern Carpets is excessively rare; a copy is only now obtainable for $50.

TEXTILE ORNAMENTS. By FISCHBACH. For manufacturers and schools of design. Atlas 4to., on thick paper, 160 plates, printed in colours, comprising nearly 1000 patterns of such a size that they may at once be copied for technical purposes. Subscription price, $55.00; in portfolio, $26.50. 1882. This edition is published in the French language (£5.)

—— The same work, folio, 160 coloured plates, with a brief descriptive text in English, half bound red morocco. Can be had at $35.00. (£6. 15*s*)

—— The same, folio, full bound in red morocco. Can be had at $42.00. (£8.8*s*)

Only a limited number of this superb work were produced, and circulated privately among the schools of design in Germany and Switzerland. This work is a perfect mine of original designs for manufactures of every kind; every one of the designs is beautiful, and all the patterns are masterpieces of their kind.

Stuart Family:

GILBERT (J. T.) Narratives of the detention, liberation and marriage of MARIA CLEMENTINA STUART (wife of James III), styled Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, small 4to. portrait and facsimiles, hf. bd. 25*s*
Dublin, 1794

Only 150 copies printed.

Illustrates English History from 1719 to 1728.

NARRATIVES OF THE DETENTION, LIBERATION AND MARRIAGE OF MARIA CLEMENTINA STUART, STYLED QUEEN OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND. With contemporary letters and documents now for the first time published. Illustrated with portrait of Maria Clementina, and facsimiles. Edited by John T. Gilbert, LL.D., F.S.A., M.R.I.A., late Secretary of the Public Record Office of Ireland; Author of a "History of the City of Dublin;" Editor of "Facsimiles of National MSS. of Ireland," published by command of Her Majesty; etc.

Of services which natives of Ireland performed on the Continent in the interests of the exiled Stuarts, not the least noteworthy was that which forms the subject of the narratives here printed.

From the marriage, consequent on the success of the enterprise for the liberation of Maria Clementina, grand-daughter of John Sobieski, the renowned king of Poland, sprang two claimants to the crown of Great Britain and Ireland—Prince Charles Edward Stuart and Henry Benedict Stuart, Cardinal of York.

"Mr. John T. Gilbert has added yet another volume to the long series of important publications which from time to time have appeared under his editorship, and which have not only thrown new light upon the history of Ireland, but actually have supplied the materials for re-writing it. It has often been a pleasure to us to describe the works of this rare Irish scholar, and in all of them the same qualities are discoverable. Patient research, profound knowledge of ancient records, and scientific skill in collecting the driftwood of history, have all been displayed, and looking now back upon the arduous task of the labourer in the long-neglected field of Ireland's historic literature, his countrymen both willingly and gratefully acknowledge that he has rendered to them an inestimable service.

"The interest which the present volume excites will incline all readers of history to look forward to the coming book, which will round off a noble series. Mr. Gilbert has done much splendid work, but no part of it is more fascinating than that of which we now briefly speak."—Irish Times, November 8th, 1894.

Watt's (George) Dictionary of the Economic Products of India.

In six volumes (vol. VI in four parts), 1889-1893. Published under the authority of the Government of India, Department of Revenue and Agriculture, hf. calf, £3. 3*s*
Calcutta, 1889-93

"The completion of this important work adds enormously to the facilities previously existing for acquiring a knowledge of the vegetable, mineral, and animal products of our Indian empire. The object of the dictionary is to give a complete account of all Indian products that have been in any way utilised by man, however small or trivial the use of them may have been. As a large majority of the products are of vegetable origin, the appointment of a botanist as editor and principal author was essential, and the Government of India may be fairly congratulated on the result."—Nature, November 1st, 1894.

Wingfield Memorials: Monuments of the Ancient Saxon Family of Wingfield, compiled by Mervyn Edward, seventh Viscount POWERSCOURT, from the Archives in the British Museum, College of Arms, and Record Office, square folio, 88 pp., with Illustrations, Portraits, Heirlooms, Seals, Tombs, Charters, etc. (subscription price, £10. 10*s*), cloth, £7. 10*s*
Privately printed, 1894

The above Work, having been compiled during the last fourteen years, and printed as an extra large quarto, 14 × 17, is now complete.

It is illustrated with upwards of Eighty Plates, of Monuments, Deeds, Portraits, and Views, connected with the Wingfield FAMILY HISTORY, as well as public events. These were produced from the originals by the Autotype Company.

The Lineage and Pedigrees have been authenticated by the College of Arms.

There are Fifty Copies available, for which early application is necessary.

OLD WEDGWOOD

THE ENGLISH RELIEF ART WORK OF THE XVIIIth CENTURY,

Made by JOSIAH WEDGWOOD, at Etruria in Staffordshire, 1760-1795.

BY

F. RATHBONE.

The Illustrations are being designed by M. GEORGES MICHEL GRIVELL, who has received awards and medals from the Academie Nationale du Commerce et de l'Industrie, and other Societies, for his Art-designs. The Illustrations will be drawn from the best known examples in Public and Private collections.

Messrs. PARROT & Co., the famous Artistic Lithographers in Paris, are illustrating in facsimile the Choicest Pieces of Old Wedgwood in a new style of colour printing, reproducing the originals with absolute fidelity.

Mr. F. RATHBONE, of South Kensington, London, the well-known expert, is writing the explanatory text.

I am the sole agent for the sale of this grand work, which will appear in eight parts, royal folio, with 60 superb Chromo-plates, in the colours of the originals. The price for the complete book is £3. 3*s*, payable on delivery.

The fine decorative Art-work known as "Old Wedgwood," although the one English Ceramic Art of the last century in which we are without rival, is but little known even to the Art-world—probably because some of the finest examples are enshrined in private collections. The words "Wedgwood Ware," in this connection, often used to describe all Wedgwood, are misleading, and apply only to articles made for domestic and table use, usually glazed and decorated, but rarely with ornaments in itself.

Existing books upon the subject treat the two kinds of Wedgwood as one, and, when illustrated, rely either upon wood-engraving or photography, not always giving even the correct form—never rendering the colour. For example, some tints of the old celadon-green and lilac are esteemed the most charming shades of colour ever produced in Ceramics. "Wedgwood blue" is a standard colour in decoration and textile fabrics; but there are not less than five shades of that colour found in examples of the old period. When we consider the combination of two and three colours, often found upon some medallions and vases, it will be seen that to do justice to these fine works the use of colour is imperative.

Oriental Art, Furniture, Sculpture, Tapestry, Missals, Book-binding and other subjects have been well illustrated in colour, but not Wedgwood. As regards illustrated books it may be conceded "they order this matter better in France." The artists selected for this work are of the first rank and have made the drawings for some of the most important books published during the last ten years.

It is thought a permanent record of this English Art will be welcomed. The author, who has been familiar with the subject for nearly the number of years Wedgwood occupied in perfecting his work, hopes to make this a standard work of reference. He proposes to describe the progress of the art from the inventor's first essays to what is known as "the best period." The Illustrations to be drawn from all available sources—to give his readers the benefit of his experience and knowledge of the subject—to make it a memorial of the worthy and respected English inventor, whose epitaph justly describes him as one "Who converted a rude and inconsiderable manufactory into an elegant art, and an important part of National Commerce."

The Purchaser of the Large Paper issue binds himself to take the entire Series.

The Large Paper issue consists of 125 numbered copies, printed by hand-press, on Whatman Paper at Whittingham's Chiswick Press.

It is proposed to publish under the above title a series of translations of the works of the early literature of the North, produced by the Icelanders, in their present form, mostly in the 13th and first part of the 14th centuries.

These works stand quite alone amongst the writings of the Middle Ages, and form a school of literature which has very special claims on the attention of the students of history and the lovers of imaginative writing. These claims may be briefly stated, thus:—That it is by these means alone that any continuous record of events in the early history of Scandinavia has been preserved.

The following is a list of the translations which it is intended to publish:—

The Poetic Edda, 1 vol.
The Prose Edda, 1 vol.
The Volsunga Saga, 1 vol.
Heimskringla or Chronicles of the Kings of Norway, 4 vols.
The first and second volumes are ready.
The Orkney Saga, 1 vol.
The Sagas of Eric the Red and Thorfinn Karlsefne (being the tale of the discovery of America in the 10th century), 1 vol.

Gunnlaug's Saga.
Frithiof's Saga.
Saga of Viglund the Fair. } 1 vol.
Story of Grettir the Strong, 1 vol.
Egil's Saga, 1 vol.
Njal's Saga, 1 vol.
Saga of the Laxdalers, 1 vol.
And several others.

"What is likely to prove the most important 'series' of the approaching publishing season is 'The Saga Library,' on which Mr. Wm. Morris is engaged. With the assistance of Mr. Eirikr Magnusson, Mr. Morris is about to bring out a series of translations of early Northern literature. Those acquainted with what Mr. Morris has already done in this department are fully alive, not only to the historical and literary importance of the Sagas, but to the charm with which the poet has invested them in their English garb. The 'Story of Grettir the Strong,' 'Viglund the Fair,' and other Sagas previously published will be included in the Saga Library, after undergoing revision. The first volume, however, will be entirely new. It is to include 'Hen Thorir's Saga,' the 'Saga of Howard the Halt,' and the 'Saga of Banded Men.' That is already in the press, and the 'Eyrbyggia Saga,' which will make a volume by itself, is nearly ready for printing. It will probably be followed by 'Heimskringla; or, Chronicles of the Kings of Norway,' in three volumes."

"The Saga Library is to be published by Mr. Bernard Quaritch. It will be in post octavo volumes, bound in Roxburghe style, and the edition will be limited to 1000 copies. A large paper issue, in royal octavo on Whatman paper, will consist of 125 numbered copies."—Glasgow Evening Times, September 27th, 1890.

"To pass to another Series—one can do little else these days—style, and style so conceived, is the merit of the Icelandic Sagas put in the forefront of the manifesto of Mr. William Morris and Mr. Magnusson's new Saga Library to be published by Mr. Quaritch. 'Everything' in these Sagas of the Middle Ages, 'is told with the least possible expense of words; and every word has a definite meaning, and no so-called synonym can supply its place.' That is the last word on style; and so genius joins hands across the centuries. It is one of the many claims of Mr. Morris upon our gratitude that he has done so much to open our eyes to the extent and value of this Icelandic literature. Its interest for us northerners is past estimating. For such service many a foolish fling at 'Dons' and Capital, and other estimable institutions, may be forgiven."—St. James's Gazette, September 27th, 1890.

Productions of the

KELMSCOTT PRESS:

The Golden Legend,

Translated by WILLIAM CAXTON. 3 vols. large 4to., printed with the type specially cut from Mr. Morris's patterns, with ornamental letters and borders designed by William Morris, and 2 full-page Woodcuts from designs by E. Burne-Jones, Esq., A.R.A., bds., £5. 5s 1892

Nearly out of print, only a few copies remain for sale.

A New Edition of the book as originally printed by Caxton about 1484, with a Glossary of such words as are unknown to general readers, and some Bibliographical Memoranda, edited by FRED. S. ELLIS and WILLIAM MORRIS.

"Students of English mediæval literature will be gratified to learn, says the Athenæum, that an exact reprint of 'The Golden Legend,' as originally set forth by William Caxton, is in preparation, under the joint editorship of Mr. William Morris and Mr. F. S. Ellis. The editors have agreed to give their labours gratuitously in consideration of Mr. Quaritch bearing all expenses of production. As the impression will be a limited one, subscribers would do well to send their names to the publisher forthwith."

Times, September 12th, 1890.

"Mr. Bernard Quaritch has issued this week the magnificent reprint of Caxton's translation of the Golden Legend, in three quarto volumes. The type has been specially cut from patterns by Mr. William Morris, who has also designed the ornamental letters and borders. There are also two full-page woodcut illustrations designed by Mr. Burne-Jones. A glossary and bibliographical memoranda are contributed by Mr. F. S. Ellis and Mr. Morris."

St. James's Gazette, October 8th 1892.

"Pre-eminent among reprints and new editions is Mr. Bernard Quaritch's truly magnificent reproduction of 'The Golden Legend,' as translated by William Caxton from the Legenda Aurea of Jacobus de Voragine. Ocular evidence alone can convey a just idea of the elegance of these three large quarto volumes, which, we are afraid, would have excited the envy of Master Caxton himself. We can but testify to the judgment and taste of the joint editors Mr. William Morris and Mr. F. S. Ellis, who, we understand, gave their services to Mr. Quaritch gratuitously; to the beauty of the ornamental letters and borders and the general typography, both decoration and type being after Mr. Morris's designs and patterns; and to the excellence of the two full-page woodcuts contributed by Mr. Burne-Jones." Times, October 6th, 1892.

The Recuyell of the Histories of Troye.

Translated by WILLIAM CAXTON.

A new Edition of the First Book printed in English. 2 vols. large 4to. Black Letter, in black and red. 300 copies printed, all issued bound in vellum, £7. 7s. 1893.

A Copy, PRINTED ON VELLUM, 3 vols. 4to., only five thus produced, may still be had for £50.

THE book is ornamented very richly with woodcut ornaments entirely designed by William Morris. No labour or expense has been spared on them, and they are of great variety. The semi-Gothic type designed by Mr. Morris (with special regard to legibility) appears in this book for the first time.

In 1471 Caxton gave up commerce and attached himself to the Court of Margaret, Duchess of Burgundy, the sister of Edward IV. At the request of the Duchess he translated the "Recueil des Histories de Troyes," written by Raoul Lefevre, and employed Colard Mansion, of Bruges, to produce it.

As to the matter of the book, it makes a thoroughly amusing story, instinct with mediæval thought and manners. For though written at the end of the Middle Ages and dealing with classical mythology, it has in it no token of the coming "Renaissance," but is purely mediæval. It is the last issue of that story of Troy which through the whole of the Middle Ages had such a hold on men's imaginations; the story built up from a rumour of the Cyclic Poets, of the heroic city of Troy defended by Priam with his gallant sons, led by Hector the preux Chevalier, beset by the violent and brutal Greeks, who were looked on as the necessary machinery for bringing about the undeniable tragedy of the fall of the city. Surely this is well worth reading, if only as a piece of undiluted Mediævalism.

"WILLIAM MORRIS

"Designs and produces the most beautiful book ever published."

"Mr. William Morris, poet, artist, craftsman, printer, showed to a few friends on Tuesday last an advance copy of his reprint of Caxton's 'Recueil of the Historyes of Troye.' On looking through it, Dr. Furnivall said enthusiastically, 'It's the most beautiful book I ever saw; it's the most beautiful book ever printed!' Mr. F. S. Ellis, through whose hands every book treasure in England for the last forty years has passed, cordially agreed in this opinion, and so did Mr. Emery Walker, the art editor of the English Illustrated Magazine, and Mr. Theodore Watts, the friends of poets and artists, and poet himself.

"This delightful 'Recueil' volume is in quarto, in a brand-new pica type designed by Mr. William Morris, with some of the beautiful borders used by him in his handsome 'Golden Legend,' with admirably designed capitals and 'weepers' or side ornaments, all of Mr. Morris's design and drawing, and with a very fine, bold title. The volume is, indeed, a credit to English craftsmanship, and assuredly stands at the head of all specimens of typography hitherto produced.

"For Mr. William Morris's grand folio 'Chaucer,' Mr. Burne-Jones is making fifty large drawings on wood, and the text of which Mr. F. S. Ellis is preparing from the parallel text issued by the Chaucer Society. Caxton's 'Historye of Reynard the Foxe' is nearly ready; and when the grand 'Chaucer' is done, it will be a magnificent book.

"Notwithstanding the high prices at which the productions of Mr. Morris's Kelmscott Press are published, buyers are not likely to suffer from purchasing them. A new era has dawned in English printing."—The Star, November 21st, 1892.

THE

Historye of Reynard the Fore.

Translated from the Dutch by WILLIAM CAXTON.

Reprinted from the edition of 1481. 300 to be printed. Ten copies on vellum, by Mr. WILLIAM MORRIS at the Kelmscott Press. 1 vol. 4to., uniform with the "Recuyell."

This translation of Caxton's is one of his very best of his works as to style: and being translated from a kindred tongue is delightful as mere language. In its rude joviality, and simple and direct delineation of character it is a thoroughly good representative of the famous ancient Beast Epic.

PRICE - - £4. 4s.

In preparation, to be ready by the end of next year:

Chaucer: Poetical Works,

Illustrated by 72 elaborate Designs by SIR EDWARD BURNE-JONES, and Borders by WILLIAM MORRIS.

A critical edition of the text printed at the Kelmscott Press of Mr. WILLIAM MORRIS, under the care of Mr. FRED S. ELLIS, Editor of the Lexical Concordance to Shelley's Poetical Works.

A Specimen may be seen at 15 Piccadilly.

The subscription price is fixed at twenty pounds.

"Lovers of Chaucer on both sides of the Atlantic will rejoice to hear that the artist has made very great progress with a series of designs, fifty or sixty in all, which are to be cut in wood under his own superintendence, and intended to illustrate the 'Canterbury Tales' and the other poems of Chaucer. These designs promise to be charmingly graceful and beautiful in execution. Indeed, we are confident that since, precisely a hundred years ago, Flaxman, then at Rome, designed for the first Countess Spencer the famous 'Illustrations to the Tragedies of Æschylus,' poet and artist have never been better fitted to each other. The text, to which these designs are adapted will be collated with the best manuscripts, and carefully edited by Mr. W. Morris and Mr. F. S. Ellis, the typography will be worthy of the occasion, and the volume a stately quarto."—The Athenæum, October 22nd, 1892.

Apart from the interest of the book as a noble edition of one of the greatest English classics, it will attract admiration as a repertory of designs by Mr. Burne-Jones. To illustrate Chaucer has been with him a more congenial task than the accomplishment of many a famous painting, and we shall see in this collection how the genius of a great artist will deal with a labour of love.

"In 1844, Agassiz concluded the publication of his gigantic work on the Fossil Fishes, which appeared at Neuchâtel in five quarto volumes, with 311 folio plates. Eighty of the greatest museums of Europe had furnished the material for it, and the number of described species amounted to 1700 in about 20,000 examples. The 'Recherches sur les Poissons Fossiles' is undoubtedly Agassiz's most important work, and forms, with Cuvier's and Valenciennes' 'Histoire Naturelle des Poissons' and Johann Müller's treatises, the foundation of our present knowledge of fishes, while it does not confine itself to the region of ichthyolites, but extends over the entire wide field of the anatomy and classification of fishes, essentially modifying the latter. Agassiz considered, and with justice, that the separation of the ganoids from the other fishes into the rank of a special order, as the greatest step towards progress for which science was indebted to him; and on the basis of the comparison of the fossil fishes of all formations with living forms, he enunciated several generally valid laws, which have had an important bearing on the development theory of the whole organic world."—Nature, April 24th, 1879.

To Antiquaries and lovers of the Fine Arts, this book is indispensable; it connects the works of Winckelman and Cicognara, and forms with them a most interesting series.

"This fine work was the first in which the idea of exhibiting the Progress of Art, by a series of its noblest monuments, was perfectly carried out. By a series of accurate Engravings from celebrated Monuments, we trace the transitions of Art from the classic period to our own times. Sculpture, Painting, and the Art of Illumination; and the Art of Engraving on Wood, on Gems and on Medals are similarly represented.

"It is a work that has long been sought and prized by all who could afford the high price at which only it was to be procured. No Library, Architect, Painter, Sculptor, or any one connected with the Fine Arts, should be without such a work."

Americana: Four of the Rarest Early Narratives of American Discovery:—

The First Letter of Columbus (printed in Spanish at Barcelona in 1493); reduced facsimile with translation, small 4to. 1*s* 8*d* 1893

The unique original is now in the Lenox Library of New York.

The Latin Columbus Letter (printed at Rome in 1493), reproduced in facsimile, with a preface, small 4to. 1*s* 3*d* 1893

Vespucci's First Four Voyages (printed under the title of "Lettera" at Florence in 1505), reproduced in facsimile from one of the extant five copies of the Italian original, with a translation, with two illustrations, small 4to. 3*s* 1893

Hariot's Narrative of the First Plantation of Virginia (printed in 1588 and 1590), reprinted, with facsimiles of the engravings made by De Bry from John White's designs, small 4to. 1893

——the above 4 works, together, 8*s* 6*d*

These cheap editions have been produced at the suggestion of Mr. Curtis, the head of the American Government Department connected with the Chicago Exhibition. He anticipates an enormous demand for them.

"This is an invaluable book to the student and the scholar. It shows what Virginia was in the early settlement of the country; the character of the Indians is portrayed by engravings, and their savage nature is made manifest by many engravings of a very instructive nature."

"These four pamphlets will make a library volume of rare interest, and are of great moment to the men of literary pursuits, the student searching after knowledge, and the literary man comparing notes."—The Baltimore Herald, April, 1893.

Stockholm, 1892

No other copy is known, either in or out of Spain, of this valuable map, which was drawn on vellum by the hand of Santa Cruz in 1542, he being then the Cosmografora Mayor of the Royal Department of Charts at Seville. It is entitled "Nova verior et integra totius orbis descriptio," and bears the imperial arms of Charles V to whom it is dedicated. It represents the world as two hemispheres, with the poles as centres, and is arranged in gores as though intended for the model of a globe. The American portion is undoubtedly that which constitutes the chief interest of the work, and its importance in that respect is heightened by the immense number of geographical names inscribed upon it. Although until recently quite unknown to modern scholars, this map is evidently one referred to in the "Diferencia de Libros" of Vanegas (printed in 1540), who described it on account of the new method of projection on which it was designed. The difference of date between 1540 and 1542 merely implies that Vanegas had seen the draft plan two years before the work was finished in its existing ornate condition by Santa Cruz.

As one of the most valuable of the series of world-maps produced within half a century of the great discovery by Columbus, the work of Santa Cruz must be found indispensable for the use of students in this fine reproduction, the only form in which it is accessible.

BOURINOT'S Historical and Descriptive Account of the Island of CAPE BRETON, by J. G. BOURINOT, C.M.G., LL.D., D.C.L., President of the Royal Society of Canada, only a limited edition printed on fine paper in 4to. 177 pp., tastefully bound in half cloth, 10*s* Ottawa, 1891

Interesting to every student of old American history. The subject is but faintly indicated by the title, as the book deals with the geographical, ethnological, and linguistic conditions of Eastern North America, and gives facsimiles of rare maps. The story of the discovery and foundation of New France, and the course of the long struggle by which England became mistress of the Canadian dominion, as told with great literary power in this book, which combines the fidelity of a chronicle with the charm of a romance.

AMERICA: Harrisse's Discovery of North AMERICA; a Critical, Documentary, and Historic Investigation, with an Essay on the Early Cartography of the New World, including Descriptions of Two Hundred and Fifty Maps or Globes, existing or lost, constructed before the year 1536; to which are added a Chronology of One Hundred Voyages Westward, Projected, Attempted, or Accomplished between 1431 and 1504; Biographical Accounts of the Three Hundred Pilots who first Crossed the Atlantic; and a Copious List of the Original Names of American Regions, Caciqueships, Mountains, Islands, Capes, Gulfs, Rivers, Towns, and Harbours, by HENRY HARRISSE, complete in one stout volume, 4to. 800 pages, with 23 plates and many illustrations in the text, hf. bd. morocco, gilt top, uncut, one of the 40 copies printed on DUTCH PAPER, price to Subscribers, £7. 4*s* 1892

The New Laws of the Indies for the Good Treatment and Preservation of the INDIANS promulgated by the EMPEROR Charles the Fifth, 1542-1543, a facsimile reprint of the original Spanish Edition, together with a literal translation into the English language, to which is prefixed an Historical Introduction by the late Henry Stevens, of Vermont, and Fred. W. Lucas, £10. 10*s* London, Chiswick Press, 1893

The work is illustrated with numerous ornamental blocks of Indians, together with portraits of Columbus, Charles V, and Las Casas, re-engraved or adapted from sources as nearly contemporary as possible. The entire impression consists of a large number of which have been already bespoken. The few remaining copies are offered only for private subscription at £26. 5*s* each for the vellum copies, and £10. 10*s* each for the paper copies. The paper copies will be issued uncut in a tasteful temporary binding, but not such as to prevent subscribers re-binding in any more expensive form they may subsequently desire. The vellum copies will be issued unbound in an ornamental portfolio or cardboard case.

13 copies on the finest writing vellum, and 75 copies on the finest handmade paper,

A work of great scientific value, based chiefly upon maps which were not printed in the fifteenth century. It is more restricted in its scope than Nordenskiöld's work, and does not quite fulfil the promise of its title.

America: CORDEIRO (Luciano) De la part prise par les Portugais dans la découverte de l'Amerique, 8vo. 86 pp. sd. 2*s* 6*d* Lisbonne, 1876

This is a letter which was addressed to the Congress of Americanists at Nancy in 1875. It is a temperate and well-written essay, bristling with facts and citations, and showing more clearly than any previous work had done, how large was the influence of Portuguese seamanship in the initiation and development of American discovery, especially on the Northern continent. It is, indeed, a valuable contribution to the history of the subject.

SMITH'S GENERAL HISTORY OF VIRGINIA, small folio, Facsimiles of the 4 maps and the portrait of the Duchess of Richmond, each £1. 1*s* (1624)

It is very seldom indeed that a copy of Smith's Virginia contains all the maps and portraits. The two portraits indeed are so rare that bibliographers disagree whether they were issued with the book or not. The compiler of the Catalogue of Mr. Huth's Library says of his copy, that "it evidently never possessed the portraits of the Duchess of Richmond and Matoaka, which are inserted in some copies, but were not originally issued with the book."

"An Arabic-English vocabulary is of very little use to an Englishman wishing to learn some colloquial Arabic. He requires an English-Arabic vocabulary in which he can look for words and sentences arranged in alphabetical order.

"It is the author's object to give a vocabulary of Arabic of the vulgar tongue as it is spoken in Yemen and Southern Arabia and many other parts,—one by studying which a man will be able to converse with the natives of the lower part of the Red Sea—Gulf of Aden—the whole of the South Coast of Arabia, including Hadramant—to the Persian Gulf—Zanzibar, etc., etc."—Extract from private letter received from the Author, February 10th, 1892."

ARABIC GRAMMAR, new edition: FARIS Ash-Shidyâq's PRACTICAL GRAMMAR OF THE ARABIC LANGUAGE, with Interlineal Reading Lessons, Dialogues and Vocabulary. Fourth Edition revised from the 2nd Ed., by the Rev. H. A. Williams, 12mo. pp. viii and 234, cl. 7*s* 6*d* 1889

The best and cheapest method of acquiring the Language spoken in Syria, Egypt, Arabia, and by the Arabs in all parts of the World.

"This ingenious little book deserves the favour with which it has been received; for the Author has made a bold attempt to simplify that very complex subject, Arabic Grammar. The book is strong in Dialogues, to which forty-four pages are given. This is the part of the book which has found favour with the public; and the Syrian author is here quite at home. The Dialogues are decidedly good, consisting simply of colloquial sentences on various subjects, to be learnt by heart, and used as needed. Fâris Ash-Shidyâq ends his book with a vocabulary containing about 3000 very common, and therefore very useful, words. We can certainly say of Fâris that his book is good, as far as it goes."—Allen's Indian Mail.

BADGER'S (G. P.) ENGLISH-ARABIC LEXICON, in which the equivalents for English words and sentences are rendered into LITERARY and COLLOQUIAL Arabic, imp. 4to. xii, 1248 pp. double columns (published at £9. 9*s*), cloth, £2. 1881

This is the counterpart to Lane's great Arabic-English Lexicon. Absolutely, and longo intervallo, the best work of its kind. No one else has attempted so grand an undertaking, and the achievement has not been inferior to the attempt. The gradations and changes of meaning in Arabic expression, and the local varieties of usage, have been marked with extraordinary nicety and completeness; and all the scientific technology of modern English has been embodied in the alphabet. The book is a thesaurus rather than a lexicon, and stands in the same rank with the wonderful New English Dictionary and Littré's magnificent French work.

MACARIUS, Patriarch of Antioch, TRAVELS in Anatolia, Moldavia, Romelia, Wallachia, the Cossack Country, Muscovy, and the Black Sea, written by his attendant Archdeacon, Paul of Aleppo, in Arabic, translated into English by F. C. Belfour, 9 parts in 2 vols. 4to. cloth, £1. 10*s*
Oriental Translation Fund, 1829-36

Macarius was the Greek Patriarch of Antioch, and travelled through all the provinces of Turkey, and through a great part of the Russian dominions. His narrative is very valuable, as giving a faithful account of the manners and customs of the Turkish, Tatar, Slavonic and Greek Races; and the political and statistical history of Moldavia and Wallachia can nowhere be studied so completely as in these records. They are indeed, according to the title, "a Treasury of entertaining Narratives," and full of Geographical, Historical, Social and Political information.

Strack's Brick Architecture of Italy during the MIDDLE AGES and the RENAISSANCE, large folio, 50 double plates, with numerous woodcuts in the Text (German), bds. £5. Berlin, 1889

This is the only extensive work on the famous Brick Architecture of Italy, of which the late Mr. Street has given to the English public only a slight sketch in a thin 8vo. volume. Professor Henry Strack has travelled all over Italy, and has made original designs of the plans, sections, elevations, and ornaments of the noble structures, once the abode of a proud aristocracy

No Work has yet appeared giving in colour an illustrated account of the specimens of Armorial China which still remain in the possession of many of the Nobility and Gentry of this Country. It was suggested that a work containing coloured Facsimiles of some of the finest examples would be of interest to many. Several of these were placed at Mr. Griggs' disposal by the Earl of Jersey, Lord Scarsdale, Lady Charlotte Schreiber, Miss Ffarington, G. Leveson Gower, Esq., F.S.A., A. W. Franks, Esq., M.A., F.S.A., and J. J. Howard, Esq., LL.D., F.S.A.

"This is the only book dealing exhaustively on works of art which have been sold by auction for the past 200 years, and it will remain the best work of reference on the commercial value of pictures."

The ARUNDEL SOCIETY:

A Society for promoting the Knowledge of Art by copying and publishing Important Works of Ancient Masters. The publications consist chiefly of CHROMOLITHOGRAPHIC FACSIMILES of PAINTINGS IN FRESCO, ALTAR-PIECES, and other paintings of CHRISTIAN SUBJECTS, by the OLD ITALIAN and GERMAN MASTERS, also of Engravings and Literary Works:

A COMPLETE SET of these publications as issued to the original subscribers, from the beginning in 1849 to 1889; and to the subscribers to the SECOND SERIES from the beginning in 1867 to 1889, AND ALSO THE OCCASIONAL OR EXTRA PUBLICATIONS [which were brought out for separate sale and are similar in character to, but differing in subject from, those issued to subscribers] up to 1889 inclusive;—comprising in all 199 CHROMOLITHOGRAPHS, 101 engravings, and 17 vols. of text; the plates enclosed in two strong portfolios, £175. 1849-89

Most of the best plates are out of print, especially those of the OCCASIONAL or EXTRA series, as the impression of these was limited to 500 copies. Complete sets have therefore become extremely difficult to form.

A Descriptive Notice of the Drawings and Publications of the Arundel Society from 1849 to 1878 inclusive, illustrated by photographs of all the publications, and forming two folio volumes, in cloth, is presented with the above set.

Some books of photographs have been published under the patronage of the Society in connection with the South Kensington Museum which have been frequently mistaken for regular publications of the Arundel Society. It must be understood that these are not included. The same remark applies to the fictile specimens of Ivory-Carvings, as they are equally independent of the subscription series.

ARUNDEL SOCIETY. A complete set of the publications issued to the ORIGINAL and also the SECOND subscribers, from the beginning to 1885 inclusive;—115 CHROMOLITHOGRAPHS, 76 engravings, and 15 vols.; in a mahogany box, £63. 1849-85

The following is a list of those publications which are sold separately, the price being affixed to each. It will serve also as a specimen of the contents of the sets. The dimensions, where given, are in inches, and do not include the mounts or margins.

Nearly ready, Part I of a grand work on

Asian Carpets,

To be issued in 4 Portfolios, COMPRISING 100 LARGE DESIGNS IN GOLD AND COLOURS of the most renowned Carpets of the World.

Price to Subscribers, £3 per part, each containing 25 Plates; the descriptive text will be issued with the last part.

THESE ASIAN CARPET DESIGNS, now in preparation, will be an exhaustive work, in which an endeavour is being made to cover the whole known field of early carpet manufacture. Full particulars will be announced in an early number of the Journal of Indian Art, by which time it is hoped that the owners of carpets remarkable for design and colour will aid by allowing the reproduction of some of their best examples in this work. His Highness The Maharaja of Jeypore, with his well-known liberality, gave his sanction to allow his collection of old Persian and other carpets to be photographed; 39 examples from this collection have been received. The whole of the carpets and rugs (nearly 100) now in the Indian Section, and South Kensington Museums, have also been photographed. Owners of fine examples are also most liberally allowing selections from their collections. An extension of the generous individual help already promised will render this work both exhaustive and complete. Photographs of upwards of 150 examples have already been taken, but in order to include in the work every variety of design, possessors of carpets are respectfully asked to allow those in their possession also to be reproduced, so as to make this book the STANDARD WORK ON ASIAN CARPETS.

W. GRIGGS.

Bewick (Thomas) Works:

THE MEMORIAL EDITION of the Works of THOMAS BEWICK, in FIVE VOLUMES, royal 8vo. cloth, uncut, may still be had for £5. 5*s* 1885-87

The set consists of 5 volumes, royal 8vo.:—

Vols. I. II. History of British Birds; Land Birds and Water Birds, with the woodcuts of the Supplements incorporated 2 vols.

Vol. III. History of Quadrupeds - - - - - 1 vol.

Vol. IV. Æsop's Fables - - - - - - 1 vol.

Vol. V. Memoir of Thomas Bewick, written by himself, with numerous woodcuts prepared for a projected History of British Fishes - - - - - - - 1 vol.

The appearance of this edition, first announced in 1882, was unavoidedly delayed by the deaths, successively, of Mr. ROBERT WARD, the printer, and Miss ISABELLA BEWICK, Bewick's only surviving daughter. The original blocks were purchased by Mr. Ward's sons and successors, who have now completed the work. Paper expressly prepared for the reception of woodcuts was used; and all the modern improvements of typography have been enlisted in order to secure brilliant and effective impressions.

The last volume is prefaced and annotated by Mr. AUSTIN DOBSON, in whose hands Bewick's papers and correspondence, together with the original MS. of the "Memoir," were placed by the late Miss Isabella Bewick's Executors. The "Memoir," which was edited by Miss Jane Bewick in 1862, is now printed more completely.

The name of Bewick is, and has been, a household-word in English Homes since the beginning of the present century. Next to the Bible and the Common Prayer, no books have been handled with greater veneration than those illustrated with woodcuts by Bewick. His Birds, Quadrupeds, and Fables have been affectionately studied and admired by four generations of English men and women.

As the original editions have become very scarce and very dear this new MEMORIAL EDITION—the first one in a collective form—gives, at a comparatively moderate cost, to the present generation a delightful opportunity of enjoying the artistic truth and vigour of Bewick's famous cuts in all their original beauty.

ELM GROVE HOUSE, EXETER,
September 12*th*, 1885.

Whilst I am writing, let me congratulate you upon the success of the Memorial Edition of Bewick's Works. The cuts have "worked" splendidly (having come out far sharper than they did in the 1847 edition) and the general appearance of the volume to hand is strikingly handsome. I believe that, in time to come, your edition will be sought after preferably to all others, excepting, of course, the large paper of the first. Believe me, very truly yours,

To BERNARD QUARITCH, Esq. ALFRED WALLIS.

32 SAVAGE (Major Thomas) An ACCOUNT of THE LATE ACTION OF THE NEW-ENGLANDERS, UNDER the COMMAND of SIR WILLIAM PHIPS, AGAINST the FRENCH at CANADA, SENT IN A LETTER FROM MAJOR THOMAS SAVAGE, of BOSTON, NEW ENGLAND (WHO WAS PRESENT IN THE ACTION), TO HIS BROTHER, MR. PEREZ SAVAGE, in LONDON, sm. 4to. old boards London, 1691 35 0 0

This tract consists of 8 pages. At the end is a facsimile of an "Indented Bill for 10*s*" with which the soldiers were paid, but which we are told "will not pass in Trade between Man and Man, nor can these poor Soldiers and Seamen get anything for them to above half their value, they being only used to pay rates with." This expedition cost the City of Boston, "Mass." £50,000, "for payment whereof the General Court hath laid Grievous Taxes upon the Inhabitants."

The title has the last line of the publisher's address and small portions of the marginal notes shorn off, otherwise it is a fine healthy copy of this exceedingly rare tract so important both to Canadian and New England History.

36 VIRGINIA. A TRVE DECLARATION OF THE ESTATE OF THE COLONIE IN VIRGINIA, With a confutation of such scandalous reports as have tended to the disgrace of so worthy an enterprise: Published by aduise and direction of the Councell of Virginia, sm. 4to. red morocco, by Bedford William Barret, 1610 52 10 0

EXCESSIVELY RARE. This narrative was issued at a time when the fortunes of the little colony seemed to be sinking just as Raleigh's settlement had done. It gives us the first account of the disastrous expedition of Sir George Summers, Sir Thomas Gates and Captain Newport in 1609, and their narrow escape by falling in with the Bermudas or Summer Islands. "These islands of the Bermudas have ever been accounted as an inchaunted pile of rocks, and a desert inhabitation for Divels."

The writer, speaking of the Red Men, says (on p. 9) that "We by way of marchandizing and trade, doe buy of them the pearles of earth, and sell to them the pearles of heaven," a mode of traffic which he considered most praiseworthy, but which bears a suspicious resemblance to the celebrated Homeric transaction between Glaucus and Diomedes.

A poor copy sold for £48 at Sotheby's on December 14th, 1894.

52	A CONCISE DICTIONARY of the Assyrian Language (Assyrian-English-German). By W. MUSS-ARNOLT. To be completed in about 8 parts, part I now ready 1894	0	5	0

Dr. Muss-Arnolt has chiefly confined himself to the registration of "all the important words occurring in the texts, historical and others, that are read by all beginners."

Although "Delitzsch's Wörterbuch" and Muss-Arnolt's Dictionary cover much the same ground, there is plenty of room for both. They differ from one another in plan. Delitzsch's Wörterbuch represents the work and conclusions of a single scholar, whereas Muss-Arnolt's Dictionary is primarily historical.

Under each heading the views and translations of other scholars are given, with copious references to their works.

Dr. Muss-Arnolt has produced a useful, a laborious, and an accurate work, and has achieved the object at which he aimed.—The Academy, December 8th, 1894.

96 WATT (Dr.) Dictionary of the Economic Products of India, 6 vols. in 9, large 8vo. half calf 1889-93 3 3 0

As I warmly encouraged the inception, and have taken a keen interest in the progress of the Dictionary, I feel bound to express my opinion that it is one of the most important aids which has yet been given to the material advancement of India.

As I am continually testing its contents, I can only express my surprise at the degree of accuracy which Dr. Watt has attained.

Dr. Watt has, in fact, and it is one of the great obligations we owe to him, gutted and boiled down the colossal and inaccessible official literature of India. For the first time, an Indian official has at hand all that is practically to be said about any local product with which he has to deal.—W. T. Thiselton Dyer.

174	THE CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP and the Invincible Armada, 1588, a Spanish Legend, in 29 Cancions, with rhymed introduction, 12mo. cloth 1889	0	1	6

"A literary curiosity . . . will be read by many with no inconsiderable interest." —Observer.

"A unique production. It is in the style of Sir Walter Scott's lays. The scene is laid in Spain, and the metre appears to be an imitation of the peculiar provincial poems of that country . . . there are not a few passages in it that breathe a true poetic spirit." —Truth.

"Colonel Colomb's vigorous verses have made us acquainted with England two hundred years ago. In the volume before us he has shown himself an equally capable guide to the Spain of the Spanish Armada . . . the interest is kept up without flagging, and for our part it is a long time since we have read a legend in verse with greater interest."—Evening Mail.

"Admirably suited to a drama or still better to an opera."—Morning Post.

Le Moliériste, No. 63, June, 1884, says:—"L'adapteur a suivi scène, à scène le chef d'œuvre de Molière; il a pris aussi peu de libertés que possible avec le texte."

Egypt Exploration Fund, 1894 0 3 6
A new improved edition is nearly ready.
"It will be found a convenient and even necessary companion to the many histories of Egypt, which have hitherto lacked some such geographical aid. The map of Ancient Egypt, or rather of the Nile Valley, from Khartûm to Alexandria, is given in a series of well-drawn sections, in which all well-known ancient sites are clearly indicated, with their Egyptian, Greek and modern names; whilst opposite each section is printed a list of the nomes included in it, with their capitals and their special divinities."—The Athenæum, August 19th, 1894.
"An Atlas of Ancient Egypt.—The maps are numerous and unreservedly excellent. They include maps of ancient and modern Egypt and the Soudan, as well as one to illustrate M. Naville's discoveries in the land of Goshen.
"What gives especial value to the Atlas is the letterpress which accompanies it. This has been written by one of the best and most accurate of English Egyptologists, and contains in a small space all that is most necessary to know about the geography and history of Ancient Egypt."—The Academy, July 28th, 1894.

THE "ANI" PAPYRUS AT THE BRITISH MUSEUM.—"The Trustees of the British Museum have given directions that this remarkable recension of the 'Book of the Dead' be reproduced in facsimile, with the illustrations in the colours of the original, and the work has been executed by Mr. Griggs. This hieroglyphic papyrus was written for a royal scribe, Ani, about the commencement of the 19th dynasty—circa 1400 years B.C. It is complete, the first and last vignettes being intact. The series of vignettes is a mine of archæological information ; their artistic excellence is equally great. The papyrus contains a chapter of the 'Book of the Dead,' the 175th, not found complete elsewhere. Also one of the illustrations, a group of lamenting women in violent action of grief, is unknown in any hitherto published copy of the book."

209 THE TEXT of the

with INTERLINEAR TRANSLITERATION and TRANSLATION, an ENGLISH version, and INTRODUCTION is now passing through the Press, and will be issued early in 1895. The price will be moderate.

This work gives a splendid general view of the Scenery and Antiquities of Upper Egypt, and will be most interesting to those who, having visited Egypt, wish for a scientific descriptive account of its chief attractions. It combines on a reduced scale the full views of David Roberts' Egypt with the scholarship of Champollion and Rosellini's works.

238 MASPERO, THE DAWN OF CIVILIZATION. (Egypt and Chaldæa.) By Professor MASPERO. Edited by the Rev. Professor SAYCE. Translated by M. L. MCCLURE, roy. 8vo. with map and over 470 illustrations, cloth boards 1894 1 0 0

This, it may be safely said, is the most important work which has appeared in this country on the Early History of Egypt and Chaldæa. The results of recent Archæological research in the Valleys of the Nile and Euphrates have been marshalled in historical perspective in this magnum opus of one of the greatest authorities of our time. It covers the history of Egypt down to the XIVth dynasty, and that of Chaldæa during the first empire; and, although the points of connection with Bible History are not chronological, they are essentially illustrative of the Sacred narrative. Professor Sayce adds a Preface.

The above work will take its place as a general history of early Oriental Civilization on the banks of the Nile, Tigris and Euphrates, and in the countries which lie between.—Nature, December 6th, 1894.

The contents of the Paris edition are the same as those of the Basel one.

Nordenskiöld says, "In a geographical point of view this map far surpasses that of the Basel edition, as well in its greater richness of names and topographical details, as in due attention being here paid to the latest geographical discoveries."

"Whether as essayist, actor, statesman, dramatist, scholar, or novelist, his successes were brilliant. His stories are invariably fascinating, the earliest and latest excelling in brilliant analysis of contemporary manners—those intermediate (his best) powerfully dealing with historical and social questions. His writings may cease to be read—that fate has overtaken greater authors than himself—but his name will always be remembered in the annals of English literature."

——— the 29 vols. in 21, containing 1326 plates, and 30 vignettes, very choice original impressions, in an extraordinarily fine state, bound in half red morocco extra, by BEDFORD Rome, 1748—Paris, 1837 250 0 0

The present may truly be pronounced, in all respects, a magnificent set of these grand and interesting works, and an ornament to the finest library; the large plates are nearly all bound of the full size, the impressions of the plates are most brilliant, and of uniform excellence throughout the work; the rich burr, which so soon disappears from the etched plate, is here in all its mellowness and perfection, and the extraordinary effect of some of the plates cannot be conceived but upon comparison with a copy in the ordinary state.

It is a thoroughly complete collection of these superb engraved works on Rome and its possessions in Italy.

All the early volumes are, in this copy, of the genuine original Roman edition, with the letterpress belonging to each.

Not only, however, does it comprise the entire Roman issue, but in order to make this set thoroughly representative, the later publications of the Piranesi family, produced after their removal to Paris with their stock of coppers, and existing only in the Paris edition, have been added;—the Roman and the additional Parisian volumes thus united form an absolutely complete set, such as has not appeared in the market for many years.

	It is somewhat strange that Straparola, who in his own day was one of the most popular of the Italian novelists, should have been so long neglected. In the first twenty years of its existence the "Notti" was sixteen times reprinted, a figure which the "Decamerone" reached only after a lapse of fifty years. Of the excellent French translation by Louveau and Larivey, the first part of which appeared in 1560, nine editions were issued before the end of the century. The distinguishing feature of Straparola is the great variety of subjects treated in the fables. He is well known to every folk-lorist, seeing that he is regarded as the principal distributor of Oriental legends to the later fabulists and story-tellers of Northern and Western Europe.

NEW AND ENLARGED EDITION OF

"A Dictionary of Artists" who have exhibited works in the principal London Exhibitions from 1760 to 1893. Compiled by ALGERNON GRAVES, author of "A Catalogue of the Works of Sir Edwin Landseer, R.A.," and "Works of Samuel Cousins, R.A."

The gratifying success which attended the publication of this work in 1884, and the fact that it has now become a standard work on art, has induced the compiler to continue it in the second edition on the same lines to the year 1893; also to make many improvements and additions to the earlier portion of the work; and he trusts that this edition—the last he will be able to find time to compile—will be found to be of still greater value to all connected with the fine arts.

The Hoe Library.

One volume, royal 8vo. £2. 2*s* New York, 1895

In preparation: "The Library of Robert Hoe, Esq. A Contribution to the History of Bibliophilism in America." The library of Mr. Hoe has a world-wide reputation. Its fifteen thousand volumes and over have been collected with care and discrimination during the last thirty years, and include many rare and precious books. In almost all departments of literature this collection is unusually rich, but its glorious array of illuminated manuscripts, books of hours, and rare early imprints places it at the head of private libraries in America. The author, we are informed, after an introduction showing the general features of this library, has treated the subject in eight chapters, viz.: The manuscripts, incunabula, printed books of hours, Aldines, Elzeviers, books of France, English books and artistic bindings, each being made instructive and interesting by notes, anecdotes, and quotations relating to the work described, its author, publisher, binder, or former possessor. The whole is an excellent bibliographical guide to the collector in search of that which is best and most desirable from among the literary and artistic products of those epochs of civilization identified with the making of beautiful books. The statement that the author is Mr. Bierstadt, of the Astor Library, is sufficient assurance of the quality of the work and of its accuracy. It will form one volume, octavo, of about two hundred pages of text and over one hundred illustrations, forty or more of which are by the artotype process. The edition is printed from type, on Van Gelder paper, at the De Vinne Press, and limited to 500 copies, at $10 each, for which orders will now be received by BERNARD QUARITCH.

To be Published by Subscription.

Photographs of the Ancient Monuments,

Temples, and Sculptures of India.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA IN COUNCIL has granted me permission to use the very large collection of photographic negatives of Ancient Buildings, Sculptures, &c., from all parts of India, now in the possession of the India Office. These illustrate very fully the history and development of the various styles of Indian Architecture from the earliest times, in Buddhist, Brahmanical and Jaina Caves to Dravidian, Chalukyan, Indo-Aryan, and Saracenic temples, mosques, and other buildings. They constitute an indispensable series of illustrations of the art, history and mythology of India, and would be of the very highest importance and interest, if accessible to Orientalists, Artists and others, in University and Art Libraries, Oriental Institutes, &c.

These Indian archæological photographs are regarded by experts who have seen them to be so important for the study of Oriental Art and History that it has been urged upon me to undertake their publication in photo-collotype. A selection of 500 is in preparation in portfolio form, Imperial 4to. (average size of picture, 8 in. by 10 in.), with brief letterpress description, £30.

The portfolios will be issued in three divisions of about 167 plates, price £10 each, at intervals of 12 months.

The plates to be printed will be selected by Dr. JAS. BURGESS, C.I.E., late Director General of the Archæological Survey of India, and will be issued in the best style of photo-collotype.

Vol. I translated by ROBERT CHALMERS. [Nearly ready.

Vol. III translated by H. T. FRANCIS and R. A. NEIL. [In preparation.

To be completed in seven or eight volumes.

The University Press at Cambridge has undertaken to publish a complete translation of the Pali Jātaka or "Buddha Birth-stories," which are supposed to be the oldest collection of folk-lore stories in existence. The first volume is now in the press, and has been prepared by Mr. R. Chalmers, late of Oriel College, Oxford, a former pupil of Prof. Rhys Davids. It will contain the forty stories given in Prof. Rhys Davids' discontinued translation, but will also give the translation of the remainder of the first volume of Prof. Fausboll's edition of the Pali text.

The second volume is translated by Mr. W. H. D. Rouse, late fellow of Christ's College, and the third by Mr. R. A. Neil, fellow and assistant-tutor of Pembroke College, University Lecturer in Sanskrit, and Mr. H. T. Francis, Under-Librarian of the University Library at Cambridge and late fellow of Gonville and Caius College. The whole translation will appear under the editorship of Prof. Cowell of Cambridge. The Korean Repository.

To be issued in monthly parts of 1*s* each.

In 1892 a magazine was published in Seoul, called The Korean Repository. It was a step in the right direction, for it supplied, at least in part, the demand for something reliable in regard to Korea, a land that suffers more than its proper share of misrepresentation. It is to be regretted that its publication was suspended, for it now appears, from the wide demand made for back numbers, that it was fitted to do an important work.

It is now proposed to resume in January, 1895, the publication of that magazine. The conflict between Japan and China has brought Korea very prominently before the world and it is discovered that here is a nation of 15,000,000 people distinct in language, traditions and physique from their neighbours east and west; a people whose customs and manners are strikingly unique, whose mythology and folk-lore teem with matter interesting to the ethnologist, whose language affords the philologist a key to some of the most vexed questions in regard to the dispersion of the Turanian peoples.

Maspero's Dawn of Civilization:

CHALDÆA AND EGYPT, royal 8vo. many plates, cloth, 20*s* 1894

"The Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge must be congratulated on its public spirited enterprise in producing the sumptuous English edition, to be issued simultaneously with the French original, of Professor Maspero's magnum opus on THE DAWN OF CIVILIZATION, Egypt and Chaldæa, translated by M. L. Maclure and edited by Professor A. H. Sayce. The volume is beautifully printed and illustrated with over 470 illustrations and plans. In dealing with Egypt, its history, its antiquities, and its topography, Professor Maspero speaks with unrivalled authority. 'Alike as a philologist, a historian, and an archæologist,' says Professor Sayce, 'he occupies a foremost place in the annals of modern knowledge and research. He possesses that quick apprehension and fertility of resource without which the decipherment of ancient texts is impossible, and he also possesses a sympathy with the past and a power of realizing it which are indispensable if we would picture it aright.' He is not equally pre-eminent in the field of Chaldæan archæology; but, to quote Professor Sayce again, 'he has thoroughly studied the latest and best authorities on the subject, and has weighed their statements with the judgment which comes from an exhaustive acquaintance with a similar department of knowledge.' Hence all who desire to make themselves acquainted with the latest results of research in these important and novel fields of inquiry will find in Professor Maspero an instructor not less attractive than authoritative. The period dealt with covers the history of Egypt from the earliest date to the fourteenth dynasty, and that of Chaldæa during its first Empire. The aspect of the valleys of the Nile and the Euphrates, their climate, their productions, religion, manners, and customs, the organization of their respective States, their traditions, and all that is known of their kings and dynasties, are dealt with by a master hand. We need hardly point out how closely all these subjects are associated with that sacred history whose elucidation and illustration it is one of the chief functions of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge to advance."—Times, November 17th, 1894.

North Highland Arts :

THE BOOK OF THE CLUB OF TRUE HIGHLANDERS (Leabhar Comnun nam fior Ghael),

A Record of Dress, Arms, Customs, Arts, and Science of the Highlanders, compiled from printed and MS. Records and Traditions, and illustrated with Etchings of Highland Relics, and the Keltic Vestiges of Great Britain and Ireland, by C. N. M'Intyre North, Architect, Chief of the Club of True Highlanders, London, 70 beautifully executed large full-page plates, containing many figures and subjects, 2 vols. folio, fancy cloth, 28*s* (subscription price, £5. 5*s*) Privately printed for the Club

Designed to supplement the valuable contributions to the history of the Highlands and Highland manners which have been made by Logan, the historian, Menzies, Imlah, M'Donald, and others, by carefully collecting the various references which, until lately, were scattered about in numerous and in many cases rare and costly volumes. To weed out and detect the various mistakes, misstatements, and errors that have gradually been accepted without question from so-called authorities, and to preserve the exact form and presentment of Arms, Armour, Musical Instruments, Dress, Agricultural Implements, and other relics, by careful measured details, taken in the majority of cases from the Originals, and drawn to a uniform scale; and by careful facsimile copies and photo-lithographs of ancient Drawings, and of such portions of MSS., as tend to throw light on the ancient manners and customs of the "Clan nan Gaidheal."

Sanders's Half-timbered Houses and Carved

OAK, large folio, 30 plates, with text, bds. 36*s* 1894

"Mr. Bliss Sanders has followed up his book of examples of carved oakwork of the 16th and 17th centuries, published some years ago, by a sumptuously printed quarto volume devoted to 'Half Timbered Houses and Carved Oak Furniture of the 16th and 17th Centuries' (Quaritch). The work is illustrated with thirty drawings, photo-lithographed from the original sketches of the author, and including many fine examples of structures still extant. Several of the plates have the merit of being drawn on a scale which will enable a workman to see for himself exactly how our artistic forefathers constructed their work and afterwards decorated the parts. The book is indeed eminently practical, and is likely to exercise some influence in furthering that revival in domestic architecture which is so remarkable a feature of these latter days."—Daily News, December 5th, 1894.

Biruni. Atharu 'L-Bakyia : The Chronology of Ancient

Nations, an English version of the Arabic text, with notes by Dr. C. Edward Sachau, imp. 8vo. pp. xvi and 464 (pub. at £2. 2*s*), cloth, 7*s* 6*d* 1879

A book of extraordinary erudition compiled in A.D. 1000. To every student of history, and to all who seek to trace the remains of ancient religions, it is indispensable. The acquaintance of al-Biruni with the calendars and ecclesiastical antiquities of non-Muhammadan nations is surprisingly great, and the details of information which he gives concerning the people and religion of old Persia are of considerable importance, being in fact, in several respects, the only source of knowledge now remaining. He criticises the cabbalistic methods of the Jews, and of the Christians who made use of similar means on their own side, with acuteness and force.

The Chronicle of the Battles of Crecy and Poictiers, in Old French and English:

The Black Prince. THE LIFE AND FEATS OF ARMS of EDWARD THE BLACK PRINCE, by CHANDOS HERALD.—A metrical Chronicle in Old French, with an English translation and notes by FRANCISQUE-MICHEL, 4to. xx. 392 pp. facsimile of a page of the MS. in Worcester College, Oxford (published at £2. 10*s*), Roxburghe, reduced to 5*s* 6*d* 1883

Blavatsky (H. P.) Isis Unveiled: A Master Key to the Mysteries of Ancient and Modern Science and Theology. Nearly 1400 pp. cloth, 2 stout vols. 8vo. 36*s* 1887

The work is divided into two volumes: one devoted to Science, one to Religion.

To the scholar and the specialist, to the philologist, and the archæologist, this work will be a most valuable acquisition, aiding them in their labours and giving to them the only clue to the labyrinth of confusion in which they are involved. To the general reader it will be especially attractive because of its fascinating style and pleasing arrangement, presenting a constant variety of racy anecdote, pithy thought, sound scholarship, and vivid description. Mme. BLAVATSKY possesses the happy gift of versatility in an eminent degree, and her style is varied to suit her theme with a graceful ease refreshing to the reader, who is led without weariness from page to page. The author has accomplished her task with ability, and has conferred upon all a precious boon, whose benefit the scientist as well as the religionist, the specialist as well as the general reader, will not be slow to recognize.

"In regard to the Oriental societies, I am under deep obligations to H. P. Blavatsky, the learned author of 'Isis Unveiled,' published last year by Mr. Quaritch, of London, a work that should be in all Masonic libraries. This erudite lady is secretary of the Eastern Society of Theosophists, consisting of thrice three degrees."—The Rosicrucian and Masonic Record, July, 1879.

Block-Books:

SPECULUM Humanæ Salvationis: le plus ancien Monument de la Xylographie et de la Typographie réunies, reproduit en facsimiles avec introduction historique et bibliographique, par J. P. Berjeau, impl. 4to. including facsimiles of the 116 woodcuts, cloth, £3. 3*s* 1861

Title and Introduction, 72 pp. The Speculum in modern type, 33 pp. The Speculum, in facsimile, 63 leaves printed on one side, and including 116 distinct designs, on Dutch-made paper of precisely the same texture and tint as the original. Only 155 copies were printed, and the book is now out of print.

ARS MORIENDI: FACSIMILE EDITION OF THE BLOCK BOOK THE ARS MORIENDI (editio princeps, circa 1450), a reproduction of the copy in the British Museum, edited by W. H. Rylands; with an introduction by G. BULLEN, Keeper of the Printed Books in the British Museum, 4to., 24 artistically reproduced facsimiles, eleven of them exquisite full-page designs, of the original Block Book, by F. C. Price (pub. at £1. 11*s* 6*d*), cloth, 10*s* Holbein Society, 1881

Among the treasures acquired by the British Museum at the Weigel Sale, at Leipsic, in 1872, by far the most important was this celebrated copy of the "Ars Moriendi," a Block Book executed in the best style of art prevalent at the time of its production, perfect as to the number of its leaves, and in a marvellous state of preservation.

For this remarkable production the trustees paid the sum of £1072. 10*s*, exclusive of commission, being the highest price ever paid by them for any single xylographic or printed work.

The Brocas Family: BURROWS (Montagu) THE FAMILY OF BROCAS OF BEAUREPAIRE AND ROCHE COURT, hereditary Masters of the Royal Buckhounds; with some ACCOUNT OF THE ENGLISH RULE IN AQUITAINE, roy. 8vo. pp. xii and 496, and 26 illustrations from seals, tombs, ruins, etc. (published at £2. 2*s*), hf. bd. uncut, 7*s* 6*d* 1886

Only 500 copies printed.

The ancient Gascon family of Brocas still survives in Hampshire and in France. The earlier part of its story is so closely interwoven with the annals of Edward III, the wars of the Black Prince, and the times of Richard II, that it forms a valuable supplement to the literature of English history in the fourteenth century, and will be found highly interesting by many readers; even down to the time of Charles II, the Brocases were personages of some distinction, and their names will be found associated with events of importance. The chief antiquarian interest of this volume lies, however, in its picture of Aquitaine, under the Plantagenet sovereigns of England—a subject which is usually studied only in the glimpses afforded by chronicles dealing with general history.

The Works of William Blake: Poetic, Symbolic, and Critical. Edited, with Lithographs of the Illustrated "Prophetic Books" and a Memoir, by EDWIN JOHN ELLIS, Author of "Fate in Arcadia," etc., and WILLIAM BUTLER YEATS, Author of the "Wanderings of Oisin," "The Countess Kathleen," etc., complete in 3 vols. large 8vo. with Portraits and 290 Facsimiles of Blake's privately-printed and coloured Works, £3. 3s 1893

——— The same, Large Paper, 3 vols. 4to. half bound morocco, gilt top, £4. 14s 6d 1893

 The Edition consists of 500 copies 8vo. and 150 copies in 4to. on Large Paper.

"As we shall have to indicate dissent in some respects from the opinions, and to criticize the methods, of Mr. Ellis and Mr. Yeats, let us begin by saying that their book on Blake is the greatest benefit yet bestowed on those students of a genius as wonderful as it was eccentric, who have neither the money to spend on costly originals, and not much less costly facsimiles, nor the time to spend in public libraries and museums . . . We repeat that the editors have done remarkably good work. And as the edition is limited, we very strongly advise anyone who has three or four pounds to spare, and feels some interest in Blake, to secure a copy of it. He will obtain for his money divers quite new things, and a fuller and more orderly presentation of things not new. The chief of the first class are, first, the singular satirical rhapsody of 'The Island of the Moon,' one of the earliest, and, secondly, the hitherto unpublished prophetic book of 'Vala,' in part one of the last, of Blake's works . . . We have here the prophetic books, uncoloured and sometimes reduced in scale, but produced by lithography in a manner which we must pronounce very satisfactory."—Saturday Review, February 4th, 1893.

"'On the day of his death,' quotes Gilchrist, the biographer of William Blake, 'he composed and uttered songs to his Maker, so sweetly to the ear of his Catherine that, when she stood to hear him, he, looking upon her most affectionately, said: "My beloved! they are not mine. No! they are not mine!"' It is interesting to find, in the splendid 'Works of William Blake,' by E. J. Ellis and W. B. Yeats (just published by Mr. Bernard Quaritch), that Blake often extemporized music to his songs in the freedom of social life: 'We would give much now for a single note of these melodies. It is said that musicians were present who actually took down the airs, but valuable as the merest scraps of such records would be to-day, they must be considered as hopelessly lost. One result remains at least. The reader of Blake's mystic poems is able to believe that, when he finds music spoken of, it is not alluded to for mere literary effect. Blake was really what too many poets are called by mere courtesy and conventionality—a bard. He himself claimed the title. The talent never left him. It was his last source of happiness on his death bed.' Time must tell whether the records of Blake's extemporized music are 'hopelessly lost.' There is no need to despair. What would one give for a few phrases of song from the wonderful man who wrote, in a barren age of English poetry, 'The Songs of Innocence and Experience'?"—JOSEPH BENNETT, in an article "Music of the Day."—Daily Telegraph, February 4th, 1893.

"William Blake, artist and mystic, neglected and misunderstood in his life, and never fully interpreted since his death, seems now at last likely to obtain his proper measure of appreciation and interpretation. As we shall take another opportunity of examining at length the very elaborate and beautiful work, in three volumes, entitled 'The Works of William Blake, Poetic, Symbolic, and Critical. Edited, with Lithographs of the Illustrated "Prophetic Books" and a Memoir, by Edward John Ellis and William Butler Yeats' (Bernard Quaritch), we may content ourselves for the present with recording its appearance and saying that, in the opinion of its editors, 'it is now within the competence of anyone to prove for himself not only that Blake never wrote a page without a distinct meaning, but to perceive the place of every symbolic utterance as an ordered portion of a great mythic system. This not only removes from the path of every reader of poetry a difficulty that threatened to remain for ever; it replaces it by a new pleasure. What was supposed to be the confusion of a disordered mind is seen to be an instrument of thought which no mind can employ without feeling delight and obtaining strength.' This is a large claim, and, for the present, we must be content to record it without attempting to criticize it."—Times, January 19th, 1893.

"We have just seen the proof-sheets of what will be one of the most remarkable books published during 1893. It is the mystic writings of William Blake, poet and artist. The volumes (there are three) are edited by Messrs. E. Ellis and W. B. Yeats, the young Irish poet. These gentlemen have discovered a long and hitherto unknown poem, called 'Vala,' among some of Blake's papers in the possession of Mr. John Linnell. The small paper edition will be published at three guineas and limited to 500 copies. The large paper edition will consist of 150 copies. The book contains the text of Blake's mystical poems, with copious notes, and an exposition of Blake's system. It is very richly illustrated with Blake's own illustrations, many of which have not seen the light before, and with facsimiles of some of his manuscript. The editors claim to have added to the world's wealth a mystic writer as great as Jacob Böhme and greater than Swedenborg. * * *

"Jacob Böhme was introduced to English readers by William Law, author of the famous Serious Call.' Both his writings and Böhme's had a great influence over John Wesley's life and religious opinions. This new mystic work is expected during the present week. It will be published by one of our most enterprising publishers, Mr. Bernard Quaritch. It will be for the upper ten intellectually, but caviare to the general. None the less, there is sure to be a great demand for it, as the edition is so small, and first editions of curious books are at present in great request."—The Methodist Times, January 5th, 1893.

II.—Original Works,

Engraved and coloured by Blake.

BLAKE (William) SONGS OF INNOCENCE AND OF EXPERIENCE, engraved, coloured, and gilt by the Author, green morocco super extra, gilt edges, by C. Lewis, extremely rare, from the Beckford Library, Hamilton Palace, £170 (1789-94)

COLLATION: Pages 1-54, title included. This copy has the complete series of both works: the Songs of Innocence and the Songs of Experience; they contain the best known things that were composed by the Genius who wrote and drew with such marvellous fancy and power. The text and illustrations are engraved together, and it is curious to observe how this strange workman combined technical skill and calligraphic excellence, with a weird play of imagination, a subtle and exquisite sensibility, and a childlike simplicity of expression, mysterious and sublime in its charm,—that have never been excelled or even rivalled.

BLAKE. MARRIAGE OF HEAVEN AND HELL, 4to. 27 unnumbered leaves, with exquisite designs, coloured by Blake, hf. bd. uncut, £63 n. d. (1800)

Mr. Swinburne calls this "the greatest of all his books; a work indeed which we rank as about the greatest produced by the eighteenth century in the line of high poetry and spiritual speculation."

BLAKE (William) THE BOOK OF THEL, 8 leaves, 1789—VISIONS OF THE DAUGHTER OF ALBION, 11 leaves, 1793—2 vols. in 1, sm. folio, text and illustrations entirely engraved and beautifully coloured by the hand of the Artist himself, large and fine copies, olive morocco extra, gilt edges, by Hering, £85 1789-93

Two of the rarest and oveliest of Blake's extraordinary compositions, and also amongst the most important of his titles to a high place in imaginative poetry. This volume fetched, 1881, at Christie's, £85, and was priced by the dealer who bought it £105.

"The designs to the Visions of the Daughters of Albion are magnificent in energy and portentiousness.—The title-page is of great beauty; the words are written over rainbow and cloud, from the centre of which emerges an old man in fire, other figures floating round." "The Book of Thel is a strange mystical allegory, full of tender beauty and enigmatical meaning.—It is equal in delightfulness to Blake's lyrical poetry; and being the most tender and simple of the class to which it belongs, may prove the most generally acceptable."—Gilchrist's Life of Blake.

The Visions deals, as Mr. Gilchrist says, with "formidable moral questions"—that is, the existence of love and lust, the relations of man and woman, and the hollow mockeries of social decorum.

IV.—Printed Works.

BLAKE. Poetical Sketches, by W. B., 8vo. iv. and 70 pp. sd. 15s London, 1783

Griggs' facsimile reprint of 50 numbered copies.

"Poetical volume of the utmost rarity, composed between the ages of 11-20, and privately printed by the help of friends. Gilchrist says, 'so rare, that after some years' vain attempt I am forced to abandon the idea of myself owning the book. I have had to use a copy borrowed from one of Blake's surviving friends, there is (of course), none where, at any rate, there should be one—in the British Museum."—Life of Blake, p. 23.

"To many of us a still more interesting acquisition is WILLIAM BLAKE'S first work, the 'Poetical Sketches,' published in 1783. 'The whole impression,' says his biographer, 'was presented to Blake to sell to friends or publish, as he should think best. Unfortunately it never got published, and for all purposes except that of preservation might as well have continued in MS.' Hitherto it has eluded all search; now, at last, a copy of the 'Poetical Sketches' has found its way into the national collection."—Times, July 22nd, 1891.

Lambeth, Printed by W. Blake, 1795 (facsimile, 1892)

Only 50 copies re-printed from the only known copy.

"There are passages of much force and beauty, but they emerge from surrounding obscurity like the lightning out of a cloud :—

'And ere a man hath power to say—Behold!
The jaws of darkness do devour it up.'

"The first half of the poem is occupied with the dire warfare between Urizen and his rebellious son, Fuxon."

"Ahania's lamentation . . . fills the concluding portion of the poem."—Gilchrist, vol. I, pp. 131-2.

BLAKE'S SONGS OF INNOCENCE AND EXPERIENCE, 2 parts in 1 vol. 4to. 54 pp. coloured by hand under the direction of Mr. Edwin J. Ellis, after the famous Hamilton Palace copy; with an Introduction by Mr. Ellis, uniform in size with Muir's series, price to subscribers £6. 6s 1893

Mr. William Muir's Facsimiles of the Works of Wm. Blake.

Only 50 copies of each Book have been produced.

Mr. MUIR does not print with type. He works by methods as like those of Blake himself as the need of faithfully following Blake's own results will permit. Almost all the labour is hand work, and the result has all that charm which belongs to hand work alone.

THE SONGS OF INNOCENCE, 1789, small 8vo. with margin to quarto size, all chastely coloured from the very early copy, given by Blake to Flaxman, vellum, £6. 6s

"Tinted with admirable tact and taste by hand. Contains the names of the copyists employed. This is a well-deserved tribute to their care and skill."—Athenæum.

THE SONGS OF EXPERIENCE, 1794, uniform with the above, all richly coloured from a choice copy in the British Museum, vellum, £6. 6s

"The 'Songs of Experience' is as nearly as possible right as a facsimile; the rendering of Blake's own colour, with touches of gold here and there, as in 'The Fly,' is just and pure. 'The Sick Rose' is only inferior (we might almost say not inferior) to the original. The same may be said for 'The Little Girl Found,' 'The Tyger,' 'A Little Boy Lost,' 'A Little Girl Lost,' and 'The School Boy,' which begins with—

'I love to rise on a summer morn,
When the birds sing on every tree
The distant huntsman winds his horn,
And the sky-lark sings with me,
O! what sweet company!'"

—Athenæum, August 28th, 1886.

The Songs of Innocence and of Experience form perhaps the most beautiful book that has ever been produced in England.

THE BOOK OF THEL, £2. 12s

"This is even finer and more delicate in colouring and touch than 'The Visions of the Daughters of Albion.' Of course every copy thus produced may—indeed must—differ from the others. Nothing could well be better than that before us."—Athenæum, August 23rd, 1884.

THE VISIONS OF THE DAUGHTERS OF ALBION, uniform with the above, £3. 3s

"We can hardly expect to see finer transcripts of the plates in any published form. Only a draughtsman of very choice skill could furnish a better copy of the whole work than that before us. The reproduction of the outlines is simply perfect; the colours are repeated with vigour and delicacy, and lack only some of the purity of Blake's own handiwork. The process of colouring such copies by hand is the only one which promises fortunate results."—Athenæum, August 16th, 1884.

THE MARRIAGE OF HEAVEN AND HELL, 4to. coloured, from the Beckford copy, uniform with the above, £3. 3s 1885

"We have received the reprint in facsimile of Blake's 'Marriage of Heaven and Hell.' Mr. Quaritch generously lent to Mr. Muir to copy his beautiful original bought at the Hamilton sale. The facsimiles are admirable. No other copies can rival that before us, of which a very limited number of examples have been prepared. An appendix contains facsimiles of a manuscript index in Blake's own hand, giving, for the guidance, doubtless, of his wife, the paging of the 'Songs,' and a design called 'A Divine Image,' both of them additions of great interest."—Athenæum, August 28th, 1886.

MILTON, octavo, with margin to quarto size, £10. 10s; or blue morocco, £11. 11s

(This book contains some of Blake's finest plates. Its reproduction has required two years' very tedious work.)

"Has been made from the very choice example in the British Museum, and, having compared the copy sent to us with its original, we are glad to bear witness to its remarkable excellence and rare fidelity. Among the choicest and most faithful pages are the famous and noble concluding design 'To go forth to the great harvest of the Nations,' and the group of sleepers on plate 38, over whom the eagle hovers. Both happily reproduce that peculiar colouration which is an element of Blake's poetic design. The beautiful little figures in the margins of the pages retain all or nearly all the spirit of Blake."—Athenæum, June 26th, 1886.

THERE IS NO NATURAL RELIGION, preface and 21 tinted plates, 18mo. with margin to quarto size, uniform with the above, £1. 1s 1886

"A very curious and important tract—this reproduction comprises the sub-division, 'All Religions are One.' It has been reproduced with equal success."—Athenæum, June 26th, 1886.

THE ACT OF CREATION, single plate, folio, beautifully drawn and richly coloured, £1. 1s

This book, "like thunders of autumn, when the cloud blazes over the harvests—dimly discloses an account of Creation as it presented itself to the imagination of Wm. Blake."

Though Blake calls it the "first" book, he composed no second.

THE SONG OF LOS, 1795, folio, very heavily and richly coloured in Blake's most characteristic style, and with his peculiar vehicles, from the British Museum Copy, £5. 5s

"The exact extent of hand-work in Blake's poems and poetic books is still a problem. The marvellous designs in the fine copy of 'The Song of Los' in the British Museum greatly exercised the criticism of D. G. Rossetti; they could not, he admitted, be absolutely the work of Blake's hand; yet he was unable to detect the auxiliary process employed by the artist. When Mr. Muir undertakes 'The Song of Los,' we trust that he and his able fellow-labourers will consult the British Museum example."—Saturday Review, August 29th, 1885.

This book completes the series.

BLOCK BOOKS:

I have just bought the few remaining copies of a superb BIBLIOGRAPHICAL WORK by T. O. WEIGEL, the late eminent collector, of Leipzig, viz.:—

THE HISTORY OF BLOCK-PRINTING,

AND THE

EARLY HISTORY OF ENGRAVING BEFORE DÜRER,

2 VOLS. FOLIO,

With 145 Facsimiles of Block-Prints and Engravings, and many Woodcuts in the text.

Most of the Block-Books of this Collection are now in the British Museum.

THE GERMAN TITLE IS:—

COLLECTIO WEIGELIANA: die Anfänge der Drukerkunst in Bild und Shrift; an deren frühesten Erzeugnissen in der WEIGEL'schen Sammlung erläutert von T. O. WEIGEL und Dr. Ad. ZESTERMANN. 2 vols. folio, with 145 facsimiles, and many woodcuts in the text Leipzig, 1866

Published at £12. 12s; now offered for £5. 5s.

Only 325 copies were printed (now nearly all sold) of this most important publication, the necessary companion to "SOTHEBY'S Principia Typographica, 3 vols. folio, 1858," but executed with infinitely more critical sagacity and learning.

Every distinguished Collector of Books and Prints, and every Public Library not yet possessing it, must have this book, as the standard work of information and reference on the subject of the History of Printing before the art of printing with movable types was invented by GUTENBERG at Mentz.

Bodleian Facsimiles of Incunabula: edited by E. W. B. Nicholson, Esq., Bodley's Librarian, Oxford. 1892-93

1. Caxton or Wynken de Worde, Ars Moriendi that is to saye the craft for to deye for the helthe of mannes sowle, 1*s* 6*d*

This treatise, consisting of 16 pp. small quarto, is No. 97 in the second edition of Mr. Blades's "Biography and Typography of William Caxton," where it is fully described. It has no printer's name, date, or place, but is in Caxton's No. 6 type, with four lines of heading at the beginning, and some head-lines at the end, in the No. 1 type of Wynken de Worde, Caxton's workman and successor, and is conjecturally assigned by Mr. Blades to the year 1491.

It "appears to be a translation from the Latin, and doubtless by Caxton himself," who was the author of others of the translations which he printed. But it does not agree with any of the three different printed Latin treatises bearing the title of Ars moriendi which are in the Bodleian.

The copy is perfect, and no other copy or fragment of one appears to be known.

The treatise was reprinted by Mr. Blades in 1869, but only to the number of fifty-four copies, and not in facsimile.

2. Ordine Della Solennissima processione fatta dal sommo pontifice nell' alma citta di Roma, per la felicissima noua della destruttione della setta Vgonotana con la inscrittione posta sopra la porta della Chiesa di S. Luigi in vn panno di seta pauonazza a letere d'oro maiuscole. In Roma, per gli Heredi d'Antonio Blado Impressori Camerali, 1*s* 1572

The Massacre of S. Bartholomew's Day took place before sunrise on August 24th, 1572, and the Thanksgiving which this rare tract describes was held on September 8th. The fact that the account here contained was printed at Rome itself, by the "Impressori Camerali," and within at most a few months—perhaps within a few days—of the Thanksgiving, confers on it an exceptional historical value.

The pamphlet consists of 4 pp. small quarto. The body of the account is in Italian, the lengthy inscription in Latin, and the prayers said in the church of San Lodovico in Latin also.

Brunet describes it as "Pièce fort rare." Both he and Graesse only mention the copy sold (for £3) at the Butler sale, and this is the Bodleian copy.

The pamphlet was reprinted, from the Bodleian copy, in 1877, by C. P. Stewart in his "Vatican influence under Pius V and Gregory XIII"—but not in facsimile.

3. COLUMBUS'S LETTER, one of the 1493 editions, the same described in Harrisse Bibl. Amer. pp. 22-3. One of 4 known copies (of which 2 are in Bodley), 8 pp. 4to. two of them with woodcuts, price 1*s*.

Only four copies are known. This edition, like the pictorial one (printed at Basel), was undoubtedly a reprint of the first Roman, or thirty-four line edition, and must have followed it within a month or two. In the meanwhile Planck had produced his second or corrected edition (thirty-three lines to the page).

4. Caxton's Advertisement. One of 2 known copies, price 6*d*.

The British Museum does not possess an original of either of the above.

"Mr. E. W. B. Nicholson, Bodley's Librarian, has always shown a most laudable anxiety to make the literary treasures of the Bodleian useful to the largest possible number of people. He has commenced the issue of photographic facsimiles of some of the rarities, and two numbers have been published at a cheap price by Mr. Bernard Quaritch. The first is the Ars Moriendi, that curious and unique English treatise on the 'Craft for to deye for the helthe of mannes sowle' which was printed about 1491, and of which one copy only has survived. The other is the Ordine of the Papal procession at Rome in 1572 to celebrate the infamous Massacre of Saint Bartholomew, or, as the Italian writer of the tract puts it, for 'the happy news of the destruction of the Huguenot sect.' Mr. Nicholson has put a brief preface to each issue, but does not enter upon any elaborate examination, the intention of the series being to put materials in the hands of students and to leave them to work out their own conclusions."—Manchester Guardian, December 22nd, 1891.

Botany :

This is the best work on Indian Forest Trees, their preservation and their cultivation. It gives a careful scientific account of all the Evergreen Forests, Swamp Forests, Tropical Forests, Hill Forests, Deciduous or Leaf-shedding Forests, Open Forests, Dry Forests, Mixed Forests, Dune Forests, Bamboo Jungles and Savannahs, deserted Toungyas or Poonzohs.

——— the same, Vols. II, III, and IV, at £5. each

The Author printed the first three volumes for presentation to his friends; the work being interrupted by his death, it was completed from the materials left by him, by Sir Joseph Dalton Hooker, a fourth volume containing plates 412-600 being published.

LEIGHTON'S (Rev. W. A.) Lichen Flora of Great Britain, Ireland, and the Channel Islands, 8vo. third edition, xviii and 548 pp. (sold by the Author for 16*s*), cloth, 7*s* 6*d* Shrewsbury, printed for the Author, 1879

One of the best Botanical Monographs ever produced, now offered at a much reduced price.

WATSON'S TOPOGRAPHICAL BOTANY: being local and personal Records towards showing the Distribution of British Plants traced through the 112 Counties and Vice-Counties of England, Wales and Scotland, second edition, corrected and enlarged with a Memoir of the Author, by J. G. BAKER, Esq., F.R.S., etc., and an entirely new coloured map showing the distribution of British Plants, thick 8vo. xlvii and 612 pp. cloth, 12*s* 1883

The first edition, privately printed at Thames Ditton in 1873, having become very rare, this one has been edited from the Author's interleaved copy, which he kept constantly at hand, and entered all records of the occurrence of plants in additional vice-counties that came to his notice.

"Those interested in British botany will feel thankful to the publisher for undertaking its publication.

"It would be difficult to find a work which has been looked forward to with more anxiety than this new edition of 'Topographical Botany;' difficult, too, to find a book which more thoroughly fulfils the anticipations formed of it. That these anticipations were high it is unnecessary to assert. In the whole range of British botanists it would have been impossible to find two so well fitted for the task of editing the work as those whose names are attached to the short preface with which it opens. United to Mr. Watson by strong ties of personal friendship, Mr. Baker and the Rev. W. W. Newbould are otherwise singularly well adapted to carry on his work, possessing, as they do respectively, the faculty of generalization and the critical mind which were combined in Mr. Watson with such happy results.

"The evidences of care and steady work may be traced on every page. The segregates have received much attention—Ranunculus aquatilis, for instance, represented by only 3 in the 1st edition, has here 10 placed under it. Prof. Babington contributes the distribution of the fruticose Rubi; the Roses remain much as before. Detailed distribution of the Callitriches is given, 6 species being enumerated. The Hieracia have received much attention, no fewer than 20 segregates being added. Galinsoga parviflora is inserted as naturalized in Surrey and Middlesex.

"To all who are interested in County Floras, or in the general subject of plant distribution in Britain, 'Topographical Botany' is indispensable."—Journal of Botany, September, 1883.

Cartularium Saxonicum: a Collection of Charters relating to Anglo-Saxon History, by Walter de Gray BIRCH, F.S.A., of the British Museum, 32 parts, forming Vols. I, II and III, crown 4to. (published at £4.), sewed, a bargain, £2.; or cloth, £2. 10*s* 1883-93

As far as the work has advanced, it comprises upwards of 1500 documents in Latin and Saxon, from A.D. 430 to 968, with an analysis of the contents of each Charter in English.

In addition to the Charters published in the Codex Diplomaticus of the late Mr. J. M. Kemble, the Diplomatarium Anglicum of the late Mr. B. Thorpe, the Councils of the late Rev. A. W. Haddan and Rev. W. Stubbs, M.A., Lord Bishop of Oxford, the Facsimiles of Ancient Charters in the British Museum, edited by Mr. E. A. Bond, late Principal Librarian, and the Facsimiles of the Ordnance Survey, a considerable number of texts are included that have never been printed before, from MSS. in the British Museum, and other libraries, and the correct reading has been restored to many texts hitherto printed inaccurately.

[CAMOENS] os Lusiadas (THE LUSIADS):

English by RICHARD FRANCIS BURTON (edited by his wife, Isabel Burton), 2 vols. 12mo. pp. xxi and 471, cloth, gilt edges, uncut, 25*s* Bernard Quaritch, 1880

——— Vols. 3-4. Life and Commentary, 2 vols. 12mo. cloth (published at 16*s*), 6*s* 1881

——— Vols. 5-6. The Rhythmas, or Lyricks of Luis de Camoens; Sonnets, Canzons, Odes and Sextines, literally English by RICHARD F. BURTON, and imprinted for the Translator at London in October, 1884, 2 vols. 12mo. cloth (published at 16*s*), 6*s* 1884

Vols. I-II comprise the LUSIADS, in the best English version extant; Vols. III and IV the COMMENTARY, which contains the History of the first settlement of the Portuguese in India, and Captain Burton's Travels in the footsteps of Camoens.

Like Shakespeare, Homer, Milton, Virgil, Dante, and Cervantes, Camoens has his votaries throughout the world. One of the master-minds which have stamped literature with the seal of imperishable genius, his cultus is not confined to the land that gave him birth nor to the geographical limits of the Portuguese Language. In many countries translators have endeavoured to reproduce the poetry of the Lusiads; and in our tongue there exist numerous versions more or less faithful and ambitious. In 1655, Sir Richard Fanshaw began the series, continued in Mickle, Musgrave, Adamson, Quillinan, Hewitt, Duff, and Aubertins and now worthily closed by one superior to them all. Captain Burton's work is of peculiar value for several reasons. He was attracted to Camoens by a powerful sympathy, arising from a certain similarity in the lives of the two men and in their modes of thought; and for twenty years of travel and exploration he made the Lusiads his constant companion, drinking in, as it were, the life and spirit of his master, with whom he completely identified himself. His great mastery of the English language has enabled him to overcome the difficulties of exact and verbal reproduction, without losing the sweetness and perfume of the poetry. In fact, only an enthusiastic worshipper, endowed with extraordinary gifts, could have sustained the toil of such a feat, borne unflaggingly and successfully to the end. A few archaisms appear in the translation which, so far from seeming out of place, rather heighten the force and effect of the English poem. It is a work which amply justifies Lady Burton's energetic admiration, and must add a new and glorious wreath to the many honours that already crown the reputation of Captain Sir Richard Burton.

Camoens, the Lusiads of, the Portuguese text, and an English translation in verse, by J. J. Aubertin, 2 vols. 8vo. portrait (pub. at 12*s*), cloth, 5*s* 1884

The translator has here presented to English Literature a faithful and poetical interpretation of the old Portuguese Epic.

Caricatures: H. B. "In the death of the elder Mr. Doyle—father to the graceful and facile artist whose 'Pips his Diary,' and 'Brown, Jones, and Robinson,' have won him such well-deserved fame—British humorous art has sustained a very great loss. Mr. Doyle was the celebrated H. B., a political caricaturist whose works, from 1829 to 1850, aroused a degree of interest in England which more than once approached the proportions of a furore."—Daily Telegraph.

Important Archæological Work on Spain.

Carderera y Solano, Iconografia Espanola, coleccion de Retratos, Estatuas, Mausoléos, y demas Monumentos inéditos, de Reyes, Reinas, grandes Capitanes, escritores, y otros personages celebre ; de la nacion, desde el siglo XI hasta el XVII, copiados de los originales ; con texto biografico y descriptivo en Español y Frances, 2 vols. royal folio, 92 fine plates of Portraits, Sculptures, Bas-Reliefs, taken from original Paintings and Sculptural Monuments, nine of which are beautifully illuminated in gold and colours, hf. mor. gilt tops, uncut, £6. 10*s* Madrid, 1855-64

——— the same, Grand Papier Vélin, hf. morocco, gilt tops, uncut, £12. 1855-64

One of the most magnificent books on the Art-Monuments of Spain, and probably superior to any other in the accuracy and learning of its author. The series of illustrations was selected from works of art which were excellent by reason of their historical character or the beauty of their execution. Only 275 copies were printed, of which about 150 were absorbed by subscribers amongst the aristocracy of Spain. The book may therefore be regarded as virtually unpublished, and as likely before long, in consequence of its intrinsic worth and the short supply of copies, to become a costly rarity.

"His great work, the 'Iconografía Española,' published in 1853 and 1864, contains seventy-four 'portraits, statues, and mausoleums,' dating 'from the eleventh to the seventeenth centuries.' Not only the original drawings, but the text in Spanish and French, were his own work. Amongst the gems of this collection may be named the bas-reliefs of Charles V and his Empress, attributed by Cean Bermudez to Pompeo Leoni, and now in the Museum at Madrid; portraits of Philip II when young, and in his old age; the unhappy Don Carlos, Don Juan de Austria, Philip's wives, and the famous 'one-eyed' Princess of Eboli. That of Hernan Cortés is exquisitely finished. He executed several copies of portraits after Goya, which have never been published, notably that of the famous Andalusian beauty 'La Duquesa de Alva.' The mantilla, maja jacket, short black lace dress, silk stockings, and high-heeled shoes indicate the provincial costume of the 'duchess of the period' to perfection. That of Maria Luisa, the less beautiful and austere wife of Charles III, indicates Goya's character. He seems never to have flattered his sitters, even when nature had been gracious to them. Maria Luisa de Borbon, Duchess of San Fernando, figures in an empire dress, with a head-gear of feathers; and albeit nature had forgotten to favour her, the wayward artist painted her as she lived, plain and dowdy."—Athenæum, April 10th, 1880.

CERVANTES' DON QUIXOTE,

H. E. WATTS' Translation of CERVANTES' DON QUIXOTE, in 5 volumes, sm. 4to. Subscription price, £4. 1887-89

This is considered by all competent critics to be the best of all the English translations of the great Spanish romance. The life of Cervantes by Mr. Watts, which forms the first volume, is a masterpiece, based throughout upon sound historical research. The Index which terminates the work, is most exhaustive, and is the only complete Index ever added to any English edition of Don Quixote.

THE GREAT

CATHEDRALS OF THE WORLD:

BEING A COLLECTION OF

One Hundred and Thirty Full-Page Plates

EXECUTED IN PHOTOGRAVURE.

WITH EXPLANATORY AND DESCRIPTIVE TEXT BY

REV. FRED H. ALLEN.

2 vols. folio, cloth. Published at £6. 6*s*, reduced to £2. 2*s*.

IN issuing this work, the publishers are placing before the public, for the first time, a thorough, complete, and absolutely reliable history and description of the grandest Christian temples and greatest achievements of architecture and art in the world.

No similar publication has ever appeared either here or in Europe, as heretofore the works on this subject have been designed expressly for architects, and filled with dry, detailed descriptions, couched in technical terms, unintelligible to the ordinary reader.

The present work is intended for the public. It appeals to the connoisseur, the student, and the general reader, being at the same time a sumptuous art collection, a work of reference, and an educator,—an ornament to the gallery or drawing-room, and a necessity to the library or study. The following is the plan of publication:—

The collection is complete in twenty-six sections (12 × 17 inches in size), each containing five magnificent, full-page photogravures, and twelve pages of text.

The photogravures illustrate the exteriors and interiors of the cathedrals, together with all the marvels of art—tombs, monuments, altars, shrines, pictures, statues, etc.—that they contain.

These photogravures are not made from drawings or sketches, but from negatives made expressly for this work, during the summer of 1886, by the leading photographers of Europe; and, while highly artistic, show the buildings exactly as they exist to-day.

The text is from the pen of the Rev. Fred H. Allen, who spent many months in Europe obtaining material for the same; all historical statements, dates, etc., being given on the authority of the official records contained in the Chapter Houses of the Cathedrals. This text is purely historical and descriptive, and does not contain one line of sectarian matter to offend either Catholic or Protestant.

The Cathedrals chosen for representation are the finest in the world, many of them well known,—but some remote from the beaten paths of European travel, and hence rarely seen.

"Since the year 1802, when the second edition of Pinkerton's 'Medallic History of England to the Revolution' was published, no general work has appeared on English Medals.

"The want of a more careful and complete treatise on this important subject has long been felt, and in some measure to meet this want is the object of the present publication. It contains descriptions of all medals at present known that illustrate the history of Great Britain and Ireland to the end of the reign of George II, whether struck in this country or abroad, whether relating to public events or private persons, and whether contemporary or executed at a later date. It is, in fact, an attempt to provide the English student, though in a less ambitious form, with materials for the history of his own country similar to those furnished for the Low Countries by the works of Van Mieris, Van Loon, and their continuators.

"Each medal is described in detail, the legends being translated, literally, so far as the errors of the engravers, the arbitrary constructions, and the difficult allusions contained in some of them, would admit. The metal or metals are stated in which each medal occurs, and its size is given in inches and tenths. References are made to works in which the medals are illustrated, and collections are cited in which the rarer examples are to be found. Such historical observations as seemed necessary have been added."—Preface.

PROFESSOR JEBB on the Progress of Hellenic Studies, said at the recent Annual Meeting of the Hellenic Society:

"Another volume, shortly to be published by the British Museum, will contain other texts from new papyri—including seven poems by the iambograph Herodas; part of a hitherto unknown oration, perhaps by Hypereides; a grammatical treatise ascribed to Tryphon; and collations of papyrus manuscripts of Isocrates De Pace, parts of the Iliad, &c. When we remember that fragments of Phædo and Euripides are to be added to the newly-found texts, it is apparent that the range of literature over which new light may be looked for from new papyri is a wide one; and it does not seem too sanguine to hope that Egypt may have more such gifts in store for us. At any rate, the experience of this year agreeably reminds us that a generation, in which some head masters are doubting whether Greek is really popular enough to deserve a continuance of their support, can still feel a ripple of excitement at the discovery of a new Greek classic—such a ripple as a similar occurrence might have sent through the Italy of Petrarch."—Times, June 25th, 1891.

CODEX ALEXANDRINUS, Facsimile of the; Old and New Testament, in Greek, 4 vols. folio, complete in absolute facsimile, produced by order of the Trustees of the British Museum, printed in photo-lithography, back and front, in portfolios 1883

Vol. II (Hosea to Maccabees), £9.; Vol. III (Psalms to Ecclesiasticus), £5.; Vol. IV (New Testament) (sells £7.) £5.

"With the modern processes of photography at their command, the trustees of the British Museum have reproduced, by the best possible method, this invaluable Codex. The volume of the New Testament was issued in 1879; and, since then, have appeared in succession the three volumes into which the Old Testament is divided. The entire manuscript consists of upwards of 1500 pages.

"The title of this ancient Greek manuscript of the Bible, which is by common consent ascribed to the fifth century, is derived from the fact that it belonged to the Patriarchal Chamber of Alexandria as far back as the beginning of the 14th century, as appears from a note in Arabic of that period inscribed on the first page of Genesis. Another note, also in Arabic of the same time, records the tradition that the manuscript was written by the hand of the martyr Thecla—a tradition, however, which need not be seriously considered. Whether the Codex was preserved at Alexandria earlier than the 14th century there is nothing to show; but the evidence of some of the writing points to an Egyptian origin, and we may assume that no city of Egypt would be more likely than Alexandria to be its birthplace. When Cyril Lucar, Patriarch of Alexandria, was promoted to Constantinople, in 1621, he took the manuscript with him, and presented it, through our Ambassador, Sir Thomas Roe, as a gift to King Charles I, in 1627. From that date it remained in the Royal Library, until 1757, when it was transferred with the rest of the Royal manuscripts to the newly-founded British Museum.

"The autotype edition which is now completed is an excellent one, faithfully reproducing the manuscript, page for page, in full size. At a comparatively moderate cost this true likeness of the Codex Alexandrinus will find its way to the different libraries of Europe and America and be welcomed as the best possible representative of the original."—The Times, August 21st, 1884.

The Codex Vaticanus and the Codex Sinaiticus were reproduced by Typography a process liable to error.

ANDERSON, JAPANESE AND CHINESE PAINTINGS, roy. 8vo. 24*s* 1886

"A very admirable book."—Saturday Review, September 11th, 1886.

"The trustees of the British Museum have issued a descriptive and historical catalogue of Japanese and Chinese paintings in the national collection. The collection, although comprising representative specimens of all the various schools, must be regarded as Mr. Anderson tells us, only as a nucleus, to which it is hoped large additions will hereafter be made. The written documents of the eighth and ninth century, which comprise the oldest known records of the Japanese, make no allusion to the existence of any phase of pictorial art before the fifth century, A.D., although very ancient dates are assigned to some other branches of art. The author of this learned catalogue thinks that the connection between India and Japan in Buddhist art is beyond doubt, but there equal certainty that it was established entirely through the intermediation of China and Korea; 'for although Indian priests have from time to time settled in Japan, one as early as A.D. 737, there is no evidence of the arrival of any artist from that country, nor are there any specimens of Indian art preserved in Japan that are likely to have made any impression upon the possessors of such gems as the Horiuji mural painting and the sculptures of the Two Deva Kings at Kobukuji.'"—Evening News, August 14th, 1886.

——— also a LARGE PAPER issue of 150 copies, the illustrations on special paper, bd. £2. 2*s* 1895

This book is not written so much for the experienced ornithologist, who should be familiar with most of its contents, as for those two large classes—the sportsmen and those who love to study birds in their haunts. The first will find in these pages short life histories of the birds they are accustomed to shoot along the coasts or on the prairies, and by the lakes and rivers of our continent, a well as the means by which each species procured can be readily identified; while the second class, as they wander along the beaches, or banks of stream, or even in some instances over the prairies carpeted with flowers, may learn to know and recognize the fairy-like creatures that are introduced to them in this book, as they witness them flitting on light and graceful wing over the landscape.

In no sense can anything that has been written be regarded as a scientific treatise; on the contrary, all scientific terms and phraseology have been, as far as possible, carefully avoided, while the descriptions of the birds and the accounts of their habits have been written to the best of the author's ability in language "understanded of the people."

LONDON, February, 1895.

The printing and posting of my Rough Lists is a considerable expense to me. I therefore appeal to the recipients to favour me occasionally with an order, otherwise the sending of these Catalogues must be suspended.—B. Q.

B. Q. is an Agent for the sale of the Publications of the British Museum, of The Society of Antiquaries, of The India Office, of the Surtees, and many other Societies, English and Foreign.

LONDON, 15 Piccadilly, 1895.

IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

I AM desirous of becoming recognized as their London Agent by all men outside of England who want books. The need of such an agent is frequently felt abroad by the heads of literary institutions, librarians, and book-lovers generally. They shrink from giving trouble to a bookseller in matters which require more attention and effort than the mere furnishing of some specific article in his stock; and they must often wish that it were possible to have the services of a man of ability and experience at their constant command. Such services I freely offer to any one who chooses to employ them; no fee is required to obtain them; and not a fraction will be added to the cost of the supplies. The friendly confidence which is necessarily extended to one's agent at a distance will undoubtedly in time bring an ample return for my labours; but so far as the present is concerned, I ask for nothing but the pleasure of attending to the wants of those who are as yet without an agent in London. Whether the books to be procured through my intervention be rare or common, single items or groups, the gems of literature and art, or the popular books of the day,—I shall be happy to work in every way for book-lovers of every degree. Commissions of any kind may be entrusted to me; I will venture to guarantee satisfaction in every case, even in the delicate matter of getting books appropriately bound. It may likewise be well to state that my offer of agency extends to the selling of foreign books here, as well as to the supply of English books hence.

BERNARD QUARITCH.

Bevedor. Xârib, and Cosa. Xei prove that, in the Castilian of 1500, the letter X had the sound of English Sh.

Ombre. Rajil proves that the letter J in Castilian had the sound of English J.

Of the Arabic letters, Pedro de Alcala says there were only four of which the sounds did not exist in Castilian. Those four were the kha, the tha, the thal, and the ain; the first of them being the modern Spanish J, the second, the modern Spanish Z. Thus the two most characteristic sounds in the modern Spanish language were unknown to educated Castilians in the early part of the sixteenth century; and two other sounds (as much used by Spaniards formerly as by Italians now) have utterly passed away, or survive only in Catalan speech.

Memoranda of the early seventeenth century show that this copy belonged to Don Francisco Seton, from whom it passed to David F. Seton. A dedication to James Ferrer gentilhuomo Escozzese probably counts for nothing. It may have been only the scribbling of Francis Seton.

78 ——— the same, a very large and fine copy in gilt vellum 1591 6 6 0

With the autograph of William Penn on the first blank page, and his engraved bookplate, 1703, pasted within the cover.

The Chevalier Delibéré of Olivier de la Marche was translated by Charles V, in secret, into Spanish prose. He handed his work over to Acuña, with the request that the latter would improve it into Castilian verse and say nothing about the labour of the monarch. The poem became a great success, partly because of the woodcuts in the first and succeeding editions. It was rare in 1591, and Muretus took care that the Plantin edition should be an ouvrage de luxe, finely printed on stout paper, with handsome copperplate illustrations.

Small folio, gothic letter, fine copy in red calf extra, gilt edges, from the Salvá library Sevilla, 1491 40 0 0

This great book, in its admirable and nervous prose written between 1256 and 1265, is in itself the sufficient reason which accounts for the triumph of the Castilian language over all its rivals in the peninsula. It was not only, as Ticknor calls it, "far the most important legislative monument of its age"; it was also the first modern Code of Laws in a vernacular tongue, and has remained a living power to the present time in every land in which Spanish is spoken. It is said that a different edition was printed two months earlier in the same city. Brunet speaks of such an edition, but assigns it to the four printers who produced this one; Gallardo also mentions it, but assigns it to the press of Ungut and Lançalao Polono in Sevilla. Neither bibliographer specifies the copy he has seen, and Gallardo makes no mention at all of the December edition. Both those writers, and Salvá too, had no other knowledge of the matter probably than they could derive from Mendez. In the midst of this obscurity, only one fact is clear: the extraordinary rarity of the edition (or editions) of 1491, in which year the book was printed for the first time.

morocco, richly gilt-tooled to an elegant Grolier design, gilt edges, by Marius-Michel and Chambolle-Duru, with the Seillière arms on sides; in a neat case (Zaragoza, 1508) 200 0 0

UNIQUE. The first edition of the famous Amadis was utterly unknown till this single extant copy was discovered at Ferrara in 1872, and sold by Tross to Baron Seillière for 10,000 fr. I have been told that a second (but imperfect) copy exists, but I am unable to discover where.

The authorship of the romance—which is undoubtedly an imitation of the Lancelot—and the date of its composition, have not been satisfactorily ascertained. The details, so far as known, may be tabulated here:—

A.D. 1350. The romance of Amadis was known in Castile, as proved by the fact that on or about

1360, Pero Ferrus (born about 1325-30) in a poem printed in Baena (Cancionero) addresses Pero Lopez de Ayala, recommending him to follow the example of Amadis, whose deeds of chivalry are contained in three books. (When Garcirodriguez de Montalvo was preparing his edition of the four books, about 1490-1500, there were only known, he states, three books; and the fourth was a new discovery—i.e. his own composition.) To confirm and establish the fact suggested by Ferrus, it is shown that, about 1367-70, Pero Lopez de Ayala mentions the Amadis and the Lancelot in his poem el Rimado de Palacio as having been a fruitless study of his youth. That implies that the Amadis was popular about 1350.

1403 is the date of the death of Vasco de Lobeira, a Portuguese knight (knighted in 1385), to whom by all Portuguese writers and by most others the authorship of the Amadis is ascribed, notwithstanding the circumstances that no Portuguese text has ever been seen, and that Lobeira was born about 1360—too late for him to have been the author of the Amadis in three books, known in Castile about 1360. The earliest assertion of Lobeira's authorship was made about 1454, when Gomez Eannes de Azurara, the faithful chronicler of Portugal, mentioned it as a fact discreditable to Lobeira that he coined the Amadis romance from his imagination in the reign (1367-83) of King Fernan. This is irrefragable proof that a Portuguese Amadis was in existence in 1450.

1490. Alfonso of Portugal ("el señor infante Don Alfonso de Portugal") married Doña Isabel Infanta of Castile, and died the same year. Great rejoicings took place at Seville and Evora; one of the most conspicuous persons at Evora being Doña Briolania Anrriquez (whose name is suggestive in this connexion). The prince was almost certainly the Alfonso referred to in the next paragraph; although people usually suppose that Alfonso, a natural son of John I of Portugal, was the man (about 1390).

1494. Garci-Rodriguez de Montalvo was at work about this time on his Castilian Amadis. In book I, cap. 40, he narrates how Amadis preserved his chastity against the importunate love of Briolana; and then states that pity for the lady's disappointment had caused the Infante Alfonso of Portugal to order a modification in the story at this part so as to gratify Briolana without detriment to the conscientious scruples of the hero. "But I," he pursues, "tell the history truly: Briolana gave up her desire, and had no child by Amadis."—The Alfonso mentioned cannot have been the Affonso of 1390, because, if the Portuguese book of that period were still in existence in 1490-94, Montalvo would have known nothing about the little love case in question. A matter like that, referred to in 1494, could only have been a personal reminiscence on the part of Garci-Rodriguez de Montalvo, and shows that he may have encountered in 1490 the Affonso who was married and died in that year.

1502. Isabel la Catolica died. Garci-Rodriguez had finished his work before or by this date.

CONCLUSION: The Amadis in three books, current in the peninsula, in 1350, was probably in verse, whether its language was Castilian or Limosin. Vasco de Lobeira reduced it to Portuguese prose about 1400, and (although we have no trace of such a thing) we may conjecture that someone else worked it into Castilian prose quite as soon. All such texts are lost now, but they all probably existed in 1490, and Garci-Rodriguez de Montalvo made use of them to re-write the three books in the language of his own period. He then added the fourth from materials adapted and improved by himself. He states in the preface that he corrected the vitiated text of the three books, that he discovered and translated the fourth book and the fifth book (the Sergas de Esplandian). As the Sergas was not printed till 1510, it is evident that Montalvo was still at work upon it in 1508 and unable to add it to the first edition of Amadis.

As he calls himself Garcia Rodriguez de Montalvo in this volume (of 1508) we must assume that Garci-Ordoñez, as all the later editions have it, is not his proper designation. (See also Esplandian below.)

"The first twelve cantos were published in 1586, and received by the men of letters of that age with an extraordinary applause which has continued to be echoed and re-echoed down to our own times."—See Ticknor, vol. 2, pp. 482, ed. 1863. No continuation was ever printed.

After a few years of sudden fame, the author died in 1595 admired and regretted by his friend Cervantes, and by Lope de Vega, who entered into rivalry with him on the subject of the Angelica. Of this celebrated poem (in ottava Rima), suggested by Ariosto's Orlando, the least that can be said is that it is written in most musical and harmonious verse.

A rival edition, without the Latin Concordance; with similar licences, etc., but all of them dated a few days later than those of the 4to. book. Thirty-eight of the couplets near the end are omitted; but there is a dedication by Barros himself, and a prologue by Matco Aleman, which are not in the other.

There is an extraordinary statement in the Spanish Ticknor that the Proverbs of Barros had little of original Spanish work in them, being principally translated from Latin and Greek. This must have arisen from the circumstance that Ximenez Paton took the trouble to find Latin parallels from ancient writers, in an unworthy depreciation of Barros. The latter poet died in 1604.

Small folio, gothic letter; old calf, the binding mended Ferrara, 1553 45 0 0

EXCESSIVELY RARE. It is the edition of the Bible in Spanish (or Judeo-Spanish) commonly known as the "Jew's Bible" or the "Ferrara Bible," and contains just so much of the sacred text as is contained in all Hebrew editions. It commences with the title, which is printed within a curious woodcut border, and has on its reverse the dedicatory epistle of Jer. de Vargas and Duarte Pinel to the Duke of Ferrara. It is succeeded by "Al Letor" 2 pp.; Table 6 ll.; text 400 numb. ll. Then follows "TABLA DE LAS HAPHTAROTH DE TODO EL AÑO." 2 ll. (WANTING IN NEARLY ALL COPIES). The vol. concludes with the register and imprint 1 leaf. A few leaves at the beginning are slightly wormed; but the body of the book is in excellent condition.

In the preface "Al Letor," the writer (who was no doubt Jeronimo Vargas) says: "I caused the Bible to be translated into our Spanish, as the other nations cannot blame their sons in regard to this blessing, since Italy, France, Flanders, Germany, and England are not without the Bible, and even in Catalonia in our Spain, it was translated and printed in the Catalan tongue." He goes on to say that it had been found impossible, in making the translation exact and verbal, to employ a different mode of language from that which had been used by the old Spanish Jews. It is this statement, and the peculiar antique style of the translation which have led to a suspicion that the Ferrara Bible was really printed from early Hispano-Judaic MSS. and that the "varios letrados" performed nothing more than revision and correction.

The preface is signed C. R. (i.e. Cattiodoro Reyna, the Spanish Reformista) and the text is of course Calvinistic. This is the well-known "Bear Bible" so-called from the printer's woodcut device on the title. Some copies have three leaves of Anotaciones at the end, which are not in this copy.

The old owner's inscription runs thus:—"Quien al cielo escupe a la cara se buelve. Robt. Kemp. Julio 6026. Por mejoria mi casa dexaria." He was Robert Kemp of Gissing in Norfolk and died in 1549.

There is a slight variation in the first prologue by which we get the words Yo Juan de Capua, which were not in the edition of 1534. The woodcuts here are from blocks which had already been used in Germany.

The name of the Spanish translator is not known; his work is rendered from the Latin Directorium Humanæ Vitæ, which was the mediæval version by Joannes de Capua, that first made Europe acquainted with the book now known under so many names (Panchatantra, Hitopadesa, Kalila Dimna, Anwar Suhaili, Iyar Danish, Fables of Pilpay, Fables of Bidpai, Destructorium Vitiorum, and Buch der Weisheit).

It is an extract from the Filocopo.

FIRST ISSUE, with the original states of leaves, 126, 127, 202 and 203. The book properly consists of four preliminary leaves, and leaves numbered 1-204. The Tabla, with some extra preliminary matter, comprising altogether eight leaves more, was not printed till the preparation of the SECOND ISSUE; but those eight leaves are added to this copy to make it a really desirable one.

258 ——— the same, SECOND ISSUE, with the whole twelve preliminary leaves, and the reprints of folios 126, 127, 202, and 203; limp vellum wrapper, from the Lakelands library Valladlid, 1605 12 12 0

The headings and numeration of the four reprinted leaves are in a smaller type than the originals, corresponding in character with that of the eight leaves of Tabla, etc. The proof that these eight leaves did not form part of the First Issue is shown by the fact that the Table does not specify in its list of contents some of the pieces which were omitted from the reprinted leaves.

The changes that were made are as follows:—On folio 126, 127 (numbered in the First Issue 129, 127), one piece by Lope de Vega, and two by Gongora, were omitted; and in their place we find substituted in the Second Issue, two pieces by Juan Geronimo Serra and one by Juan de Valdes y Melendez. On leaves 202, 203, there were various corrections made in punctuation and spelling, and a piece by Quevedo was omitted as irreligious, one by Juan de Valdes being substituted. In the Second Issue the foliation of leaf 202 is misprinted 127.

This collection of Epinosa is an indispensable adjunct to the Cancionero General. Although intitled "Primera parte," no continuation was ever published.

Two hundred copies were printed on paper, and four on vellum.

Reprinted and edited by Luis de Usoz y Rio from the unique original (Valencia, 1519) in the British Museum. The forty-two preliminary pages are an interesting introduction, and pp. 207-246 are additions from ancient Spanish writers. The last seven pages are a Glossary.

The indecency of this work is very unlike the morbid obscenities of French literature. There is something of a healthier and more virile character in its coarseness.

Of the collection intitled "Cancionero de Obras de Burlas provocantes a Risa," Valencia, 1519, 4to. there is only one copy known, which is in the British Museum. It begins with one very long poem, and ends with another; the last being a brutal parody of the "Trescientas" of Juan de Mena. The shorter poems are by well-known names, such as Jorge Manrique and Diego San Pedro. The general tone of the work, which is attributed to ecclesiastical origin, is as coarse as possible.

The above edition of it, printed at London in 1841, has a curious and well-written preface, and a short, but learned, Glossary. From page 207 to the end page 246, are a few poems not found in the original Cancionero de Burlas; one by Garci Sanchez de Badajos, one by Rodrigo de Reynosa, etc.—Ticknor, 1849, Vol. I, p. 404.

THE ONLY COPY KNOWN. It was formerly in the Sapienza library at Rome, and has been since then in the ownership successively of Salamanca the banker and of Baron Seillière.

This was, according to Ticknor, the most popular of all the Romances of Chivalry in Spain, notwithstanding its foreign origin. The translator, Nicholas de Piemonte, names himself in the Prologo, which is printed on the reverse of the title. The original romance from which he derived his Hystoria is the one which usually passes in French under the name of Fierabras.

A book of extreme rarity; printed perhaps at Amsterdam or Leyden. The author says himself that he had been a monk; an address to him, on the reverse of the seventh preliminary leaf, shows that he was now Dr. T. C., Canon of Hereford and Vicar of Blakmer (Blackmere) in England. These particulars agree with the known career of Fernan Texeda, who was in high esteem in England in James I's reign, and have led Wiffen and others to identify T. C. with Texeda, reading those letters as Texeda Canonicus. But the pun in the four verses engraved beneath an evergreen tree on the title would lead one to believe in Carrascon. ". . aunque parezco Carrasco soy mas pues soy Carrascon." The word "Thomas" is printed in the field, and "Carrascon" in the encircling border of the oval cartouche.

Small folio, folding map of the Holy Land, large engraved plans and views of Jerusalem and its sacred antiquities, and numerous smaller engravings on the text; fine copy in russia, gilt edges, a handsome book Paris, Antonio Mureto, 1666 4 4 0

The author was a Franciscan who resided in the Holy Land under the title of "Comissario General de Jerusalen." His book is rare and little known, although it is a work of large size and great beauty, with nearly 570 pp. of letterpress and a considerable number of finely engraved illustrations. There was no copy in the Salvá library.

VERY RARE. This curious book is supposed to have been the first production of the press at Toro, a town of small size but of some importance in Leon. Deschamps believed that it was printed at Turin, because, as he pointed out, the Spanish translator excuses faults of impression on the ground that "en estas partes se habla mal castellano z los emprimidores son mal platicos . ." Now if those parts were Turin, it would not be true that they spoke bad Castilian since they spoke none at all; and as for unskilled printers, they were much more likely to be found at Toro than at Turin. The fount of type is decidedly Spanish and comprises the ñ which was a letter unknown to typography outside of Spain.

UNICO EJEMPLAR CONOCIDO. This first edition of one of the most important works in dramatic literature is a precious book from every point of view. The Celestina was the first real play written in any of the modern languages; and it has never lost the fascination attaching to a composition in which intense dramatic power is blended with great literary skill, and comic scenes are mingled in Elizabethan style with the more pathetic movement of the tragic love-story. The coarseness that appears in the dialogue is frequently criticised by over-fastidious persons who forget that the English stage presented an exact parallel in the days of "Eliza and our James," a hundred years and more after the Celestina. It is simply marvellous that such a masterpiece should have come into existence at a time when the only models were the classical dramatists of antiquity and the dull mysteries of the middle ages. It has all the character of an Elizabethan tragedy, full of passionate love and intense horror, relieved by loose, fanciful, humorous and satirical dialogue. The personages are all well drawn and distinctly marked, and each one preserves his appropriate and individual type throughout the play. The language throughout is pure and nervous Castilian.

The absence of the first leaf has, perhaps, deprived us of the acrostic verses in which "Fernando de Rojas acabo la comedia de Calysto y Melybea e fue nascido en la puebla de Montalvan." He states in the address "El Auctor a un suo amigo" prefixed to the editions of 1501 and 1502, that the first act had been written by Juan de Mena or Rodrigo Cota, and left (in manuscript, no doubt) as an unfinished work. He had read it over and over again with great admiration, and had been tempted to write the continuation. His first labour was the best: the play hurries to an end with the death of Calisto, which takes place immediately after his retirement from the scene of illicit pleasure, and is followed by the resolve of Melibea, her confession and suicide, and the grief of her father. The fourteenth act is that of gratified love and the sudden catastrophe; the fifteenth contains the heroine's fate, and the sixteenth her parents' lamentation. In the second edition Rojas made changes not for the better, and protracted the end unnecessarily. Calisto goes home safe, soliloquises half remorsefully, and sleeps. New characters are introduced in the substituted fifteenth act, a scheme of vengeance upon Calisto is prepared by the daughter and friends of Celestina (who had been murdered by her associates in the intrigue); in the sixteenth, there are projects of a marriage for Melibea by her parents; in the seventeenth and eighteenth the vulgar plot is strengthened; in the nineteenth, Calisto is again in Melibea's garden, and the scene of love is repeated more voluptuously than before, as though the author had forgotten the events of the fourteenth act. Then Calisto hears his servants attacked by the bravos, rushes to the wall, falls from the rope-ladder, and is killed. Finally the twentieth and twenty-first acts contain the same matter as the fifteenth and sixteenth of the original edition.

The differences of a minor kind, here and there, between the first edition and those that followed, are so numerous that it ought to be reprinted.

CELESTINA, segunda edicion. Salamanca, 1500—no copy known.

Small 4to. gothic letter, with twenty-two woodcuts; the last leaf supplied in facsimile; fine copy in blue morocco lined with crimson morocco extra, gilt edges, by Trautz-Bauzonnet Sevilla, 1501 35 0 0

The last leaf, which is taken in facsimile from, perhaps, the only other known copy, contains the colophon as follows, above the printer's mark of S. Polonus (Stanislaus Polonus at Seville):

Descriue el tiempo en que la obra se imprimio.
El carro phebos despues de auer dado

A dios gracias.

On the back of the title is the address "El Auctor a vn suo amigo" which contains all that we know concerning the original first act and the continuation by Rojas.—On the second leaf, and the first page of the third, are the eleven stanzas "El autor escusandose de su yerro," etc., in which Rojas goes metrically over the same ground, but reveals his name and the particulars acrostically as cited above in the description of the first edition.—On the reverse of leaf 3 begins a prose preface which ends midway on the front of leaf 5. In that preface, Rojas states that the original author called his work a Comedy, while he himself preferred to name it a Tragedy, and that for a compromise he had styled it a Tragicomedy.—The text then ensues and proceeds on its twenty-one acts as far as the 81st leaf on which it ends; followed by the leaf of colophon. The book is in signatures A-T in fours, and U in six leaves.

Small 4to. gothic letter, 22 woodcuts; fine copy in green morocco extra, gilt edges, by Thompson of Paris Sevilla, 1502 31 10 0

The preliminary matter is the same as in the edition of 1501. The book is in signatures of a—h in eights. The last leaf contains nine (not ten) stanzas of verse, of which the first three are by Rojas and begin with the heading "Cōcluye el auctor aplicādo la obra al pposito por que la acabo." The other six (not seven) are by

"Alōso de paza [Alonso de Proaza] corrector de la impression al lector." In his fifth stanza he reveals the secret of the acrostics at the beginning, and in his sixth stanza he "descriue el tiempo," etc., that is, he gives the metrical colophon already quoted.

The play is in the regular twenty-one acts, as in the 1501 edition. That is, it has the interpolated five acts between acts 14 and 15 of the original. That addition was probably first made at Salamanca in 1500, and it is to be assumed that Alonso de Proaza was the corrector of the press in that city. He wrote seven stanzas for that edition (not six) as will be remarked in the description of the 1518 edition below; but one of them, "Penados Amantes," was omitted for some unknown reason in the Seville edition of 1502 and all that followed its text.

Small 4to. gothic letter, several woodcuts; four leaves wanting (f. 1, 3, 4, 5); sixteenth century calf binding, mended Toledo, 1502 — 7 10 0

This edition corresponds exactly in contents, number of leaves, and signatures with that of Seville.

Small 4to. gothic letter, 22 woodcuts; fine copy in the original Valencian calf binding, blind-tooled, with an inscription in gold on the lower cover "Tragicomeia . de . Calisto" Valencia, 1518 — 25 0 0

This edition (although it corresponds in all but one respect with the early ones which followed the Seville book of 1502) is valuable as reprinting and giving proof of the former existence of the lost Salamanca edition of 1500; thus showing that the latter contained the whole twenty-one acts, and was the first publication of Rojas's complete text. The particular referred to in the parenthesis in which it differs from the rest, is the circumstance that the verses of Alonso de Proaza are in seven stanzas, there being a sixth beginning "Penados amantes" between the regular fifth and the ordinary sixth (El carro phebeo).

321 CELESTINA. Title: TRAGICOMEDIA DE CALISTO Y MELIBEA: enla qual se cōtiene . . . Colophon on leaf 95: El carro de febo despues de hauer dado | mill ℣ quingentas veynte y tres bueltas . . . fue en Seuilla impresso acabado. Finis. 12mo. gothic letter, with 22 woodcuts; a pretty little edition in crimson morocco extra, with a crimson morocco lining and gilt edges, by Thibaron-Joly Sevilla, 1523 — 21 0 0

Salvá has started the theory that this rare edition was printed at Venice, and bases his notion on the types and the woodcuts, these latter being identical with those of the Venice edition of 1531. As for the types, however, it is a poor and misleading argument; while the woodcuts were probably supplied from an Italian source, as in many other instances.

The contents are the same as in the editions of 1502; but it is curious that the fifth stanza of Alonso de Proaza at the end, revealing the acrostical mode of discovering the authorship, is omitted, no doubt intentionally. Thus there are only five stanzas of his composition; as in this, and all the following editions, the "Penados amantes" stanza was left out.

The Seville edition of 1502 seems to have become the parent of all the editions that followed down to this time. The woodcuts in this edition are copies of those in the editions of 1531 and 1523.

The Seville text of 1502 reprinted, with the speeches made more distinct by carrying the names into the margins. It is preceded by Ulloa's dedication to Diego de Acuña. At the end of the book there is an Introdvitione del Signor Alphonso di Vlloa, nella qvale s'insegna pronvnciare la lingva Española, which is followed by a Vocabulary, and occupies twenty-three leaves beyond the regular contents of the book. The Vocabulary is new, but the instructions are the same as those given by Delgudo in the 1534 edition.

All the above editions, except the first, are in twenty-one acts. None of them contains the absurd interpolation of the Auto de Traso which in some three or four editions (between 1526 and 1538) was inserted as the nineteenth, and consequently swelled the total to twenty-two acts.

One of the rarest books in all literature. Only one other copy appears to be extant. It can easily be understood that this first edition, printed in Rome, would not long escape the ban of the authorities, notwithstanding the rank of the translator.

This translation was made from the editions of 1501 or 1502, containing the twenty-one acts. It faithfully reproduces the dialogue in the seduction-scenes, and is dedicated to a lady by the translator, Alfonso Ordoñez.

The Aprobacion is dated Valencia, 18 July 1605, and signed by F. Luis Pellicer.
This is the first of the two editions printed at Valencia in 1605, according to Salvá's indications.
Two editions appeared at Madrid and two at Lisbon in 1605, at least one of each of them being anterior to July. The Valencian edition is therefore either the third, fourth, or fifth publication of the Primera Parte of Don Quixote.

Twelve preliminary leaves, including title; 277 numbered, and 3 unnumbered leaves.
The parent edition of all succeeding issues. It was the first edition produced under the supervision of Cervantes himself, and contains his final correction of the text of the Primera Parte, of which it is the only authoritative original.

352 ——— [Primera Parte] El Ingenioso | Hidalgo | Don Qvixote | de la Mancha. | . . . En Milan Por el Heredero de Pedromartir Locarni | y Iuan Bautista Bidello. Año 1610 . . .

Sixteen preliminary leaves, including title; and 722 numbered pages.
A dedication (in Spanish) by the printers to the young "Conde Vitaliano Vizconde," is substituted for the original dedication of the author. In it the Castilian language is said to be "agora muy familiar a los Caualleros de esta Ciudad," and the printers excuse themselves for not publishing a Tuscan translation "por no le quitar su gracia, que mas se muestra en su natural lenguage, que en qualquiera trasladado."

354 ——— [Ambas Partes] Primera Parte | del | Ingenioso | Hidalgo Don | Qvixote de la | Mancha. | . . . En Brvcelas, Por Huberto Antonio . . año 1617.—Segvnda Parte | del | Ingenioso | Cavallero Don | Qvixote de la | Mancha. | . . . En Brvselas, Por Huberto Antonio . . 1616

The first part has 8 preliminary leaves, including the title; 583 numbered pages; and four leaves unnumbered. The second part has already been described.

An early Don Quixote in a beautiful old binding like this is very rarely seen.

A beautiful portrait of Balthasar Phelypeaux, Marquis de Chasteauneuf, engraved by Vermeulen after Mignard, is inserted at the beginning.

Four preliminary leaves; 282 numbered leaves; and 6 leaves unnumbered (of which the last one is blank).

VERY RARE ORIGINAL EDITION. It is agreed on all hands that the name on the title was not the author's real one. Whoever he was, he deserves praise as having produced an admirable book, and as having stung Cervantes to complete a Second Part of his own.

The first Don Quixote in English; the work of Thomas Shelton (whose name appears at foot of the dedication to Lord Walden). He there pretends to have translated the book "some fiue or six yeares agoe," in the space of forty days, "out of the Spanish tongue." The falsehood of that statement becomes evident even in the preliminary pages. In the last few lines of the seventh paragraph of the Prologo of Cervantes, we read the words "anotaciones y acotaciones, que yo os voto á tal de llenaros las margenes, y de gastar quatro pliegos en el fin del libro." Shelton has it, "I doe promise thee that I will both fill up the margent, and also spend foure or five sheetes of advantage at the end of the booke." The words I have underlined are not in the Spanish and have no meaning in English. They are evidently translated with foolish literalness from a French version which had davantage in the sense of "four or five sheets more." Unfortunately we know of no French or Italian version as early as the English, but that a MS. in one or the other language existed in 1606-7, is rendered nearly certain by the phrase just quoted.

This book is so rare that it is undescribed by Mr. H. E. Watts and all writers on Cervantes bibliography. It is quite a different edition and impression from that which appeared with the second Part in 1620. In Vol. I of 1620 there were thirteen preliminary leaves (including a printed title with the date of 1620; and an engraved title), pages numbered 1-572, and two leaves unnumbered. In the volume of 1612, there were twelve preliminary leaves (including a printed title dated 1612), pages numbered 1-594, and two unnumbered leaves. All the pages of the book were framed within black lines in the 1612 volume; in the 1620 volume, only the head-lines were so ruled.

In 1612 there existed no more of Don Quixote than the volume which we now call Part I, and that volume was divided into four parts. In the English head-lines of 1612 we have those parts indicated; while the word was turned into Lib. in the edition of 1620, after the continuation produced in 1615 had stamped the name of Parte Primera upon its predecessor.

393 CERVANTES, Don Quixote . . translated . . second issue, comprising both Parts. Engraved title: The | History of | Don Qvichote . . 2 vols. in 1, smallest 4to. having the printed title of Vol. I and two other of the preliminary leaves of that volume, as well as pp. 7-10 of the second volume, supplied in MS.; calf, gilt edges Edward Blount, 1620 7 10 0

Vol. I: thirteen preliminary leaves (including the three described above as supplied in MS.); pp. 1-572; and two leaves unnumbered. Vol. II: eight preliminary leaves including the title (which is letterpress) and the Table; pp. 1-504.

The dedication of Vol. II is signed by the bookseller Edward Blount, and there is no allusion to Shelton. There is, however, no apparent difference in the style of the volumes, which remain, in spite of all drawbacks, the most natural and spirited English version of Don Quixote. It is curious to observe how much Mr. Watts is indebted to Shelton for idiomatic turns of speech.

An amusing book, the author of which seems to have known Cervantes only in Shelton.

398 ——— The History and Adventures of the renowned Don Quixote: from the Spanish . . by T. Smollett, 2 vols. 16mo. with frontispieces; bds. uncut 1818 0 7 6

According to Mr. Watts, Smollett knew no Spanish and translated from the French. This is undoubtedly too severe.

399 ——— The Ingenious Gentleman Don Quixote de la Mancha . . a new edition: done into English, with notes, original and selected, and a new life of the author by Henry Edward Watts, 5 volumes, sm. 4to. bds. Subscription price Bernard Quaritch, 1887-89 4 0 0

This is regarded by the most competent critics as the best of all the English translations of the great Spanish romance. The life of Cervantes by Mr. Watts, which forms the first volume, is a masterpiece, based throughout upon sound historical research. The Index which terminates the work, is most exhaustive, and is the only complete Index ever added to any English edition of Don Quixote.

Small 4to. four preliminary leaves including the title, 257 numbered leaves, and one leaf of colophon, entirely printed upon thick coarse paper; fine copy in limp vellum Madrid, 1615 25 0 0

This is the first time that the existence of two issues of the original Comedias of Cervantes has been pointed out. The change of the paper constitutes in itself a notable variation; but, as far as the type-setting is concerned, the only difference is in the preliminary leaves. The four leaves in one and the two leaves in the other are different in their composition. The alterations on the title page have been noted above. In both copies the Aprouacion occupies eight lines at the top of the second leaf reverse. Below it, in the thin paper copy, there is nothing but a list of the titles of the pieces, with the catchword "Come-" In the thick paper copy, that list and catchword occupy the whole reverse of the fourth leaf; the greater part of leaf 2 reverse, and both pages of leaf 3 being filled with a Prologo al Lector; and the front of the fourth leaf containing a Dedicatoria al Conde de Lemos.

	Eight preliminary leaves, and 80 numbered leaves of text. There were two issues by the same printer in the same year. In one of them the preliminary page which faces the first page of the text has a sonnet El autor a su pluma; in the other (as in the copy here described) that page is blank except for a typographical ornament. The copies of the latter kind are obviously the earlier.

FIRST EDITION of the unabridged Chronicle of the Cid, and a BOOK OF SUCH EXTRAORDINARY RARITY that since Heber's imperfect copy was sold sixty years ago, only the copies above described have appeared in the European market. There was no copy in the wonderfully rich Salvá collection; and Huber, in his reprint of the Chronicles of the Cid, confessed that he had been unable to see either this edition or that of 1593.

At the end of the Chronicle, there follows (preceded by a full-page woodcut) the "Breue tratado dela genealogia dl Cid" which, with some small concluding paragraphs, occupies folios 103-116, and which Salvá imagined to have appeared for the first time in the edition of 1552. The prologue of the work informs us that it was published by Juan de Velorado, Abbot of San Pedro de Cardeña, at the desire of the young Infante Fernando (afterwards Emperor in succession to his brother Charles V), who had visited the Abbey and seen there the tomb of the hero and the ancient MS. of the Chronicle. The matter which concludes the Genealogia consists of an account of the Cid's tomb and of those of other great personages buried in the same monastery, and finally the royal privilege dated 1511, and the Pregon del dicho Preuilegio which is stated to have been proclaimed at the request of Fray Pedro de Velorado the mayordomo del dicho monesterio. He was evidently, therefore, a different person from the Abbot, and should not be confounded with him, as Salvá and others have done.

450 CID. Chronicle, second edition. Title page: Over a woodcut of a mounted knight, the words in red: Don Rodrigo de Viuar, and beneath it, in red and black: Cronica del famoso ꝛ inuencible cauallero Cid Ruy Diaz campeador. This contains precisely the same matter as the edition of 1512, except that the Previlegio and the Pregon at the end are omitted.

453 ——— another copy, sm. folio, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Hardy, from the Didot and Seillière libraries Burgos, 1593 10 10 0

The only addition in this edition is the account, on seven pages at the end, of the Translacion del cuerpo del Cid, an event which took place in 1541. It was simply the removal of the tomb to a newer part of the Monastery.

454 ——— Chronicle. Chronica del Cid, nueva edicion con una introduccion historico-literaria por Huber, royal 8vo. red morocco extra, gilt edges Stuttgart, 1853 1 0 0

The introduction contains large extracts from the Poema.

"It is overflowing with the very spirit of the times when it was written, and offers us so true a picture of their generous virtues, as well as their stern violence, that it may well be regarded as one of the best books in the world, if not the very best, for studying the real character and manners of the ages of chivalry."—Ticknor.

455 ——— Popular Chronicle. Title: (under a woodcut and within a woodcut border): CORONICA DEL MUY ESFORÇADO ꝛ INUENCIBLE CAUALLERO EL CID RUY DIAZ CAMPEADOR DE LAS ESPAÑAS. Reverse of title: Aqui comienca vn libro llamado Suma delas cosas marauillosas que hizo en su vida el buē cauallero y esforçado el Cid ruy diaz . . The only copy known. This popular Chronicle was first printed several years before the editio princeps of the large Chronicle, at least as early as 1498, but all the early editions are of excessive rarity. Between the edition of 1498 and the present one, there is record only of a single edition printed in 1509 which has disappeared.

This is also the popular Chronicle, and only differs from the edition of 1526 in being printed in Roman letter and in having some slight changes and omissions in the language.

Fifty-one numbered pp. including the title. The first thirteen leaves are marked with signature A to A 13, as though the book were printed as a single sheet. It is in 62 chapters, printed in double columns.—This is also the popular Chronicle, with some changes in spelling, and omitting the short introduction.

The famous poem is given in its entirety, so far as it exists, and occupies 94 pp. The title, introduction, notes, and glossary, promised by the editor, were never printed.

At the end is a tabla, or list of the 102 ballads contained in the book. There precedes it a statement that this edition contains several added since the previous publications, but the truth is that all the editions from the first known of 1612 downwards contain the same 102.

The narrative ends with A.D. 1252. Most of it (indeed, substantially, the whole) was written before 1280, and it appears nearly certain that Alfonso the Wise was himself the actual author of a great portion of the work. It is a precious storehouse out of which stories, legends, ballads, and chronicles were evolved during the two centuries succeeding its composition. Hardly any country but Spain can exhibit a vernacular historical work of so much importance in its literary history.

The first twenty-nine chapters were written by Don Rodrigo, Archbishop of Toledo, and end with the year 1244. The continuator's name does not appear. The whole work was edited and modernised in spelling by Diego Lopez de Cartagena, whose name ought to have appeared at the head of the prologue instead of that of the Archbishop which was substituted by a typographical blunder.

The Chronicles in it, which form an immediate continuation of the Chronica General of 1541, are attributed to Fernan Sanchez of Tovar, or of Valladolid. They were to be followed by the Chronicle of Don Fernando IV, as announced on the last page of the Sancho. It was printed in the same year and is sometimes found bound up with the others.

528* CRONICA de D. Alvaro de Luna la publica J. M. de Flores, 4to. sd. Madrid, 1784 0 7 6

The Chronicle was written about 1460 by one of the faithful followers of the Constable, and it is full of striking and pathetic narrative, the only fault of which, in Ticknor's eyes, was the stately march of the language. The heading of the chapter in which the execution is told runs thus—"Of the death of the best knight of his time in all Spain, the greatest uncrowned lord, the good Master of Santiago." The MS. of the work was carried to Milan by Alvaro de Luna, the namesake and great-grandson of the Constable, when he was sent to take command of the Spanish garrison in that city; and it was printed for him there.

Of the eleven unnumbered leaves, nine contain the Christianæ Religionis Summa, which Juan Diaz addressed to the Duke Otto Heinrich, and which was the cause of his murder, as proving him to be a Reformista.

Probably no more than three copies are to be found of this curious poetical volume Salvá alludes to it as being excessively rare and as having once been seen by him. Brunet makes no mention whatever of it.

An extremely rare book on the history and customs of the Turks by a man who had evidently been a soldier. In the dedication he calls himself "Vasco Diaz Tanco, alias Clavedan del Estanco." Oliva is the sister of King Pipin, and is repudiated for infidelity (through the tricks of a traitor, Tomillas, father of Ganelon). Her son Enrique is born in the monastery to which she retires, becomes a great warrior, and wins the imperial crown of Constantinople.—As this book was first printed in 1498, it belongs to the earliest Spanish productions of its kind and stands midway between Tirante and Amadis.

estraordinariamente raras que Nicolas Antonio creyó existia solo manuscrita esta obra."

This copy of the edition of 1516 is the only one in which the perfect sheet of six leaves is found at the end. The copy described in Gallardo had only four leaves and wanted the last twenty-two stanzas of the Tragedia besides the Romance and the Villancico mentioned above.

The Seillière copy, which I sold for £36, ended with folio 98, and was therefore without the last six leaves.

The Eclogas and Representaciones which are found in the latter part of this volume are pieces of dramatic interest with speaking characters; which began to be acted in public in 1492. Ticknor treats these compositions as "the foundation of the Spanish drama," because the Celestina cannot be placed earlier than 1499.

There is nothing rarer or more interesting in Spanish (as in English) literature than the poetical pieces which were printed in the sixteenth century in single leaves or sheets, most of which have perished. It is questionable whether a second copy of the above is now surviving. Salvá remarks that the Disparates and the Almoneda are to be found in the Cancionero de Enzina; not so the Villancico. It is nevertheless almost certainly by Juan del Enzina.

2 vols. sm. folio, gothic letter; with slight reparations of the paper margins of each title, and of a leaf or two at the end of the first volume; red morocco, gilt edges, by Mackenzie 1545-52 28 0 0

EXCESSIVELY RARE. The first edition of Vol. I is scarcely to be had at any price; and the two volumes are usually composed of the dates of 1550-52. The second volume was only printed once; the first volume several times. In the year 1545 alone there were three editions of Part I; the princeps being the one described above dated 8 July, Valladolid. The second and third were printed (without licence) at Zaragoza on the 12 September and the 16 September of the same year.

The author, whose name was never manifested in any of the editions, but who made it acrostically discoverable in the rhymed invocacion preceding the Letania de quinientos Proverbios near the end of the volume, was Luis de Escobar, a bed-ridden Franciscan friar of literary tastes. To him the Almirante de Castilla and his friends had forwarded four hundred questions, humorous, whimsical, serious, religious, or frivolous, upon any or every subject that happened to arise, including a number of popular old riddles. Escobar rewrote the questions in verse, and then replied to them in verse, thus constructing a book which at once commanded general favour. In 1552 he took up the matter again, and produced a continuation. The result of the acrostic mentioned above is "Fray Luys Descobar hyzo esta Letanya."

UNIQUE; from the Sapienza library at Rome. It contains the 3 books of the 1st part, and the collation is as follows: 1st book, title and prologue, 4 leaves, pp. 1-203; 2nd book, pp. 1-216, including title-page: 3rd book, pp. 1-218, including title-page. Brunet gives the following note concerning this volume: "Cette edition fort rare que cite Antonio, à l'article Didacus Ortunez et qui nous avait paru apocryphe, existe bien à Rome dans la bibliothèque de la Sapienza."

On the last page appears the following notice: "Aqvi sa acaba la primera parte del libro intitvlado Espeio de Principes y Cavalleros. La segvnda parte esta ya tradvcida la qval no tardara de salir a lvz."

This is the romance which became so great a favourite in England under the name of the Mirror of Knighthood. In France it was known as Le Chevalier du Soleil.

Notwithstanding the circumstance that two copies are here described, this first edition was so rare that Salvá had none in his rich collection. He describes it, however, as a book which he had formerly possessed.
There are eight preliminary leaves including the title; the text occupies leaves numbered 1-187, on the back of the last being the colophon . . Then follows a final leaf, of which the face is blank, and the reverse contains a statement of the law against importing or selling (in Castile) books in Spanish printed in Aragon, Valencia, Catalonia, and Navarre. This seems to show that Juan de la Cuesta had heard of the production in Barcelona of the following article.

EXTREMELY RARE; in fact, no other copy has been described. The book is in a large and fine type with ornamental initials, and was one of the first productions of the press established in the monastery of Monserrat in Catalonia in 1499 by Johan Luschner, the typographer of Barcelona. The leaves wanting are 1 and 8 of the preliminaries, and III-VI of the foliated leaves. The colophon is on the reverse of leaf CCLXVII.

FIRST AND ONLY EDITION; EXCESSIVELY RARE. The poet, who is otherwise known through his contributions to the Cancionero General, had been dead about fourteen years before this collection of his works was made. The only copy that has hitherto been recorded was that of Conde, and it may have been identical with this, which has come from the Salvá library. There was none in the Heber, Miro, Seillière, and Cosens collections; and the book is unmentioned both by Brunet and his continuator, and by Gallardo. Salvá emphatically stated—"Considero el presente libro como uno de los mas raros de mi biblioteca."
There are several pieces in the volume, in the Valencian language.

	This has been regarded as a rare volume almost since the very day of its publication. The documents it contains were taken from the archives of the Constable of Castile (Juan Fernandez de Velasco). They give a striking picture of the conferences for reconciliation between Juan II and his nobles, in which the Good Count of Haro gave his seguro for the safety of all the parties. It was printed in the last century among the Spanish Chronicles.

morocco, which is gilt with a superb Grolieresque pattern; enclosed in a cloth case Lisbona, 1545 100 0 0

This is one of the rarest of all the romances of chivalry. Besides this perfect copy, only one other (and that imperfect) has been recorded. The whereabouts of the imperfect copy is now unknown.

The author was not a Portuguese, as Brunet's continuator supposed from a misinterpretation of the preface. He simply happened to be in Lisbon in 1545. The story is feigned to have been translated from an English original at a time when he was resident, for purposes of business, "in this . . . noble and, for-most-famous-deeds-of-knights-errant-renowned-in-arms, celebrated isle of England." Of the language of the country he thought little, as he uses the phrase "barbara lengua como la Inglesa." The Florando may be assigned to the Palmerin cycle, simply as a supposed English chronicle; but the only connexion which the book itself suggests is with the romance Palladien d'Angleterre (Lyons, 1555), a work professedly derived from the Spanish, but usually supposed to be an original composition of Claude Colet. The first chapter-heading in Florando runs thus: "Capitulo primero de vna marauillosa auentura que al nacimiento del principe Paladiano aparecio. En la cibdad de Londres: entre los palacios del rey Milanor su padre." In the last chapter of the primera parte, Florando is born to Paladiano; and we may fairly conclude that this first part of Florando, dealing wholly with the hero's father, was the real original of Claude Colet's romance.

No other copy recorded. Both Salvá and Brunet seem to have been ignorant of the existence of a Burgos edition. The story itself was first printed in its Spanish form, and may therefore claim to be a Spanish book, but it is nearly certain that a Provencal poem on the subject preceded all the texts in Spanish, Italian, and French.

Excessively rare; so rare, indeed, that no other copy is recorded save one that was Heber's and one that had been Meerman's.

Fernan de Vasurto (or Basurto), supposed to be an Aragonese, is said to have been the author. Brunet gives a description of it which differs considerably from the above, and states that Vasurto's name appears in a Privilege on the back of the title. Here there is no privilege at all; the dedicatory prologue beginning immediately on the reverse of the title, and containing neither the author's name nor that of the person to whom it was addressed. From the text of the prologo, however, we learn that the work was dedicated to an unnamed nobleman descended from Juan Fernandez de Eredia.

A continuation is promised at the end of the book. It was never published.

A book of considerable rarity and of still greater literary interest. The question is still unsolved whether it was a thorough forgery in all respects, perpetrated by some one after the year 1600, or whether that some one had not really a MS. of the fifteenth century before him which he may have manipulated a little. The choice of old-faced type for his book was singular but not necessarily deceitful, the date is possibly a typographical error for MDCXLIX.

Not only the type, but the printer's mark mentioned above—the letter M surmounted by a Lorraine cross printed in white on a black ground—reveals the press from which the volume issued. This Castilian version is unknown to and undescribed by the bibliographers.

Small folio, gothic letter, double columns, title printed in red and black, with a woodcut on it; the six leaves of sheet O wanting; old calf, from the Sunderland library Sevilla, 1548 4 0 0

A very rare edition of this Romance, translated into Castilian by Alonzo Hernandez Aleman, from the Italian text which is supposed to have been compiled at the beginning of the fourteenth century out of a French original of still earlier date, not now existing. The Italian is believed to have been the first complete form of the story.

There was no copy of this book in the Salvá and Seillière libraries.

The author was Hieronymo de Huerta, physician to Philip II.

Small folio, gothic letter, the title printed in red within a woodcut border, a full-page woodcut on the back of the title, and another woodcut on the last page; very fine copy in crimson morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bozérian jeune [Zaragoza, Jorge Coci] 1529 10 0 0

First edition of a famous book; extremely rare. The name of Guevara appears nowhere in it, and there is no printer's colophon, but it is in Coci's beautiful type and his monogram appears in the woodcut ornamentation of the title. The style of the book is extravagantly praised in the prologue and the editorial colophon, and the future rarity of the book predicted. It consists of 84 leaves of which the last is blank; with signatures a-i in eights, k and l in sixes.

The original text was enormously changed and augmented by the author in later editions. They look wholly unlike this. The Vida and the Cartas constitute the two sections into which the text is divided here.

Con Preuilegio Imperial. 16mo. blue morocco extra, gilt edges, from the Heredia library 1554 FIRST KNOWN EDITION. With this is bound up the Segunda Parte as it is called—an anonymous continuation unfit to accompany the original work, but which Nucio evidently regarded as a genuine second part. It is without its title and begins on leaf A 2, folio 2. But the Lazarillo of Hurtado is complete, and is, if not the first edition, at least of the same year as the edition said to have been printed at Burgos. No one has ever seen that Burgos impression, nor the one alleged to have been printed in 1553.	10	0	0

	One of the most remarkable books in old Spanish literature. The author, who lived from 1282 to 1347, was a prince (nephew of Alfonso el Sabio) and a mighty warrior ; yet was he also a writer of books. This one alone, a collection of fables and tales from various sources, told in a simple and vigorous Castilian style, will preserve his fame as long as Spanish remains a spoken tongue.
	Argote de Molina prefixed a life of the Prince and a genealogy of his family, and added a discourse on old Spanish poetry at the end.

The portrait is perhaps additional. Salvá's copy wanted the two separate plates of triumphal arches, but he speaks of a separate plate of disembarkation which is not here. Brunet's continuator mentions 15 engravings; and Nagler, without specifying any number, alludes to a view of Lisbon. The book is very rare.

The English engraving by Elstracke of a portrait of King Philip is added as a frontispiece.

SUPPOSED TO BE UNIQUE. This is the copy which was formerly in the Sapienza library at Rome; afterwards in the possession of Salamanca the banker, and next in the collection of Baron Seillière.

Antonio Salazar or Juan de Molina wrote this romance between 1510 and 1520. It was first printed in 1521, with the name of Antonio Salazar as author (i.e. as professed translator from the Arabic original of Xarton). In the editions above described the translator's name is not mentioned. We have no right to assume that it was a pseudonym, although Don Pascual de Gayangos ascribes the book to Juan de Molina. It is a book in the style of the Amadis.

The Proverbios are a hundred sententious maxims rhymed in short eight lined metre. Here is the first:

Ama y seras amado.

827 ——— the same, a fine and large copy with the excessively rare engraved frontispiece; Spanish marbled calf extra, gilt edges, with Ternaux's initials on the sides 1605 10 10 0
This First Edition of a celebrated book is rare in any state; but the engraved frontispiece is so rare that even Salvá was unaware of its existence.
All the critics seem to agree in crediting Andres Perez with the authorship; but as the book bears the name Francisco de Ubeda on the title, and Francisco Lopez de Ubeda in the Privilege, Approbation, and dedication, we are not justified in placing the book under the name of Perez.

The Solar copy fetched 152 francs.
Near the end of part 3 of libro segundo, the earliest contemporary reference to Don Quixote is found in the following lines (rhymed by the truncation of final syllables):—

"Soy la Reyn de Picardi
Mas que la Rud conoci,
Mas famo que doña Oli
Que don Quixo y Lazari."

It is curious that these lines should be found in a book printed in the same year as the first edition of Don Quixcte, and written earlier than August 1604 (the date of the privilege).

But one other copy is known, which was in the Salamanca library. Salvá only knew the reprint of 1588, which he calls EXTRAORDINARILY RARE. The difference between the two issues is that there are 209 numbered leaves in the one of 1582, and 210 in that of 1588; and that the latter contained a privilege of the later date, while the former has only the privilege of Lisbon, 1581.

The first 65 leaves are headed "Cancionero," but the book, although a cancionero by its form and character, differs in contents (except in a few instances) from the "Cancionero General de Lopez de Ubeda" of 1586.

EXCESSIVELY RARE. Ticknor's copy, and the one in the British Museum (Grenville library) are the only two (besides this one) to which I can refer as having been specifically recorded by bibliographers. The present copy wanted the last four leaves when it was in Salvà's possession, but they were afterwards supplied by Jose Sancho Rayon to the Count of Benahaves (who bought the Salvá library). These four leaves appear to be in facsimile, but it has been asserted that they are genuine. The book consists of 23 leaves: A and B, eight leaves each; C, 7 leaves.

The work, which is thrown into the form of a dialogue between the Marques de Santillana, Alfonso de Cartagena, Juan de Mena, and the author himself, is described by Ticknor as one of the most important books in Castilian prose written in the fifteenth century. It is, in fact, a great Spanish classic, and, in this first edition, one of the rarest productions of the peninsular press in that century.

842 ——— VITA BEATA, Third Edition. Xylographic title (under a woodcut): Tratado : de vita : beata. On the reverse of title: Aqui comiença vn tractado . . . Colophon on obverse of leaf 24: Esta obra fue impressa en la muy noble : ꝛ mas leal cibdad d burgos . . por Juan de burgos emprentador. "RARISIMO LIBRO"—Salvá. There was no copy in the Miro library. Ticknor sets Maldonado as a balladist far above all the writers of his time, and Cervantes praised the Cancionero highly, not only in the Don Quixote, but also in two poems which are here included among the preliminary pieces of the book.

Gallardo gives four pages to his description of Maldonado's Cancionero, which was really one of the most important volumes of Spanish poetry produced in the second half of the sixteenth century.

The first work in this volume is an unpublished Nobiliario of the highest intrinsic value. It was compiled about 1580, by Aponte, who by his official rank, his antiquarian tastes, and his exact and immense knowledge, may be regarded as a Spanish parallel to our English Dugdale. The information contained in his work was recognized as equivalent to legal evidence.

The second work was written in the early part of the sixteenth century. The author was a vassal of the kindred houses of Andrade and Sotomayor. The third work is the complete history of the noble houses of Biscay, Guipuzcoa, and Asturias, which formed the final section (Books 21-25) of the author's great general work, written 1490-1500.

A very curious little treatise of unusual character. The author's name does not appear, but the above citation of the first few lines of the text may lead to his identification.

872 BLANCAS (Geronimo de) Libro del modo de proceder en las Cortes de Aragon, dirigido a los quatro braços.

4to. well written MS. on paper, probably in the handwriting of the Chronicler himself; in the original binding, with the old arms of Aragon on the sides Caragoça, 1585 1 10 0

Written by way of preparation for the Parliament which had been summoned by the King to assemble at Monzon. It was published in 1641 at the end of Blancas' work on the Coronaciones de los Reyes de Aragon.

The two opening pages are splendidly illuminated, the first of them containing a picture of the Virgin, and a decorative border with landscapes and angelic busts. The opposite page has a couple of knightly figures on its border. There are several elegantly illuminated initials in the text.

Small folio, beautifully written MS. on paper, 158 leaves; wormed; in the original stamped binding (injured) Roma, 1524 3 0 0
Eight leaves at the end contain a Bull by Pope Clement VII, also in Spanish, in which all the rights and privileges of the dispossessed order are confirmed and renewed to the same extent as they had enjoyed them before their muniments had perished at Rhodes. It is dated on the 4 of the Calends of January 1523 (i.e. 29 December 1523), and is signed "Por mandado de nro Sor el Papa Garcia de Salazar, B. de Balantibus, Jo. Alfonsi, L. de Sancto Joanne, A. de Castelle." These names and the language give a wholly Spanish character to the transaction.

These documents were regarded by Mr. Delafaye as useless, but they have a particular interest in giving us the rough draughts, and corrected draughts, of many important state-papers. As for the letters from agents abroad, some are original, but most of them are translations into French, made possibly to lay before the King.

The author speaks of Columbus as Pedro Colon and denies that he and his companions were the first persons who visited the New World; alleging that a coin of Augustus had been found in Tierra Firme and had been brought to Rome. He has also a curious essay on the ancient language of Spain, with a list of forty words given in Spanish and in Basque.

RARE. It is a well written story, evidently giving a true picture of the horrible but inevitable ending of the Moors in Spain. Probably the first edition of the Coronacion; in any case a fifteenth-century edition. The only other copy known is in the Grenville library, and it consists, like this, of 102 leaves; the fact being that each of the two is deficient of a leaf. EXTREMELY RARE; so rare in fact that no other copy than this, and the one known to Gallardo, besides the imperfect one which was formerly Heber's, will be found cited in the bibliographies.

The Trecientas and the Coronacion are the two masterpieces of Juan de Mena; the latter being the first dated edition of the poem, and the former the first glossed edition (absolutely the second edition) of the text. The two books ought to be found together, but they were not united in the copy described by Brunet (probably in the Bibliothèque Nationale).

This copy has been successively in the Miro and Heredia libraries. There was none in the Salvá and Seillière collections, and Salvá had evidently little expectation of ever meeting with a chance of buying it.

From the Seillière collection, but without the usual arms of the owner. Salvá possessed only the Coronacion part of this edition; and had never seen the Trezientas of 1512, the existence of which was only known to him from the statement in Brunet. This is sufficient to prove the great rarity of the volume.

	Unmentioned by Brunet, Salvá, and Gallardo. The book must be a very rare one. It is really anonymous, although here placed under Mesue. He was himself a Franciscan friar.

Only two other copies known of this curious volume. The copy which belonged to Gallardo was the only one known to the translators of Ticknor . . Ticknor himself was ignorant of its existence, but the Spanish translators give two pages of description in note-type to this "obra rarisima" as they call it. The work is a set of dialogues, partly in Valencian, between several persons who carry on a combat of wits in the company of the Duke of Calabria. It comprises a number of poetical compositions by Don Francisco Fenollet, J. Fernandez de Heredia, and others, including several Romances which are said to be in much simpler and more archaic style than the prose of the volume.

"'Notes on early Spanish Music.' By Juan F. Riaño. (B. Quaritch.) A treatise which will be invaluable to students of musical history on account of the mass of information which Señor Riaño has laboriously brought together from various out-of-the-way sources on a department of musical history hitherto somewhat neglected. In his preface, after commenting on the absence of information on 'the ancient school of Spanish music before Palestrina,' Señor Riaño says: 'This reason has induced me to think that a real service will be done by facilitating information to those who have undertaken the study of music in the Middle Ages in Spain. I have collected the bibliographical information in the different libraries to which I have had access, so that students may be aware of the existence of a great number of Spanish manuscripts from the tenth to the sixteenth century which have musical annotations. I also give a catalogue of early printed books on music up to 1600 by Spanish authors, which, owing to their extreme rarity, are bibliographical treasures, and constitute a group of works of the greatest interest for the history of the development and progress of European music in the Middle Ages and beginning of the Renaissance.' The volume is, in fact, a catalogue raisonné of old musical manuscripts, profusely illustrated both with specimens of the music and with pictures of old musical instruments. There is a charming series of quaint, angular figures playing on a variety of ancient instruments, from the celebrated 'Cantigas' of King Don Alonso el Sabio (13th century), which will interest any one. But for the most part the treatise is for serious students only; and they owe a debt of gratitude to Señor Riaño for his painstaking, unpretending labour; for this book, small as it is, represents research and hard work."—Pall Mall Gazette, September 16th, 1887.

"The work is one relating to Spanish Church Music, a subject on which hardly anything has been written, and of which very little is known. Señor Juan Riaño, in his Notes on Early Spanish Music, gives us a catalogue of MS. Musical Liturgical works, now existing in Spain, and by his most excellent illustrations we can get a good idea of the curious musical signs appearing in these early Spanish MSS. Of course, they nearly all illustrate the peculiar rite used down to the present day at Toledo, and known as the Mozarabic rite. At page 25 we have a facsimile of a Mozarabic Breviary of the tenth or eleventh century, and on page 29 a facsimile of a Gothic Missal of the eleventh century, which shows the Visigothic musical notation. There are also a large number of illustrations of Spanish musical instruments. One is a little disappointed that Señor Riaño gives no account of the splendid Liturgical MSS. in the library of the British Museum; they are full of Visigothic neumes, dated about the tenth century, and, of course, of the Mozarabic rite. It is a pity no one has paid, as yet, any attention to these important works, possibly the only Spanish MSS. in England."—The Weekly Register, October 1st, 1887.

RARE. The value of the book as a scientific treatise on Music has been fully related by Fétis. Its interest for us lies largely in the number of first lines (or first and second lines) of the Spanish ballads and songs which he gives and of which he adds the corresponding musical notes.

This copy is so large that the prolonged diagram-lines which appear on several pages have remained perfectly safe from mutilation. The editions of 1577 and 1592 are identical: only the title was reprinted for the latter.

THE FIRST AND THE RAREST OF ALL PRINTED BOOKS TREATING UPON THE GAME OF CHESS . . . (The work of Jacobus de Cessolis which is so well known in early texts, Latin, Italian, French, and English, was merely a moral treatise in which the pieces of the Chess-board were used to personify abstractions.)

Apparently no perfect copy exists. This one, which is the best, has its title-page in facsimile; and Gallardo's copy, which is the next best, wants e 2 and e 3 in the first set of signatures. A third copy was described by Santander (whose description is copied by Brunet), but where that copy is now, or whether it was actually perfect or not, I cannot learn.

The date of the book is ascertainable approximately from the printing, and from the fact made evident by the dedication that Juan, the Prince of the Asturias, son of Ferdinand and Isabella, was alive. Lucena calls him John the Third, which he would have been, if he survived his parents, but he died in 1497 in his nineteenth year. The Salamanca student would certainly have changed his dedication if the prince had died before the book was ready for press.

First Edition of a famous Chess book, and EXTREMELY RARE. Thousands of persons have talked of Ruy Lopez, and made use of his celebrated gambit, but few have had the chance to see the original book by which he made his name immortal in the annals of chess.

We learn from the dedication to Garcia de Toledo that "many lords and people of eminence were giving themselves to this so excellent manner of enjoyment," and that young Don Carlos (the hapless son of Philip II) took pleasure in seeing the game played.

"MUI RARO. De esta obra . . . se pueden sacar noticias sumamente curiosas de varios juegos antiguos, y de las fullerias y tretas que usaban los tahures."—Salvá.

He discusses with amusing earnestness the character and the lawfulness or illegality of betting and gambling in all sorts of ways. Of the numerous "dodges" he describes, the following curious case: "Thus if any priest should leave his property to some friend, to the intent that the latter shall hand it over to the priest's son, to whom he himself cannot leave it, etc. etc.," is brought forward to illustrate the question as to whether a debt of honour may be lawfully accepted, as of the nature of a free gift, by any man who had won it in play. The fact that women, at the time, were heavily addicted to gambling is frequently made manifest in this singular book.

A very rare and curious book. There are several pages on the subject of the game of Chess; and also on that of Hunting; but the matter of cards and dices is more amply considered. The author approved of Chess and was evidently well acquainted with it.

Salvá draws attention to the twelfth chapter of Book I, which, as it was first printed in 1644, is very curious. It proves that rifles were already then in use, "arcabuces rayados por de dentro," the author calls them.

One of the rarest and most valuable Spanish works on Hunting. Baron Pechon's copy fetched 1500 francs, and was afterwards priced by Bachelin 2000 francs. Salvá had only an imperfect copy.

The plates are as follows: 1, frontispiece; 2, portrait of the Count-Duke, with his arms in the left-hand corner, surmounted by the words "Philippi IIII munificenta" (this is after Velasquez). 3, Hunting of the Wild Boar, one mounted horseman close to the boar, two others in the distance, and two dogs at the left-hand side below. 4, Escape of the Boar, the hunters dismounted, one of the horses injured. 5, Renewal of the Boar-hunt, two mounted huntsmen close upon the boar, without any other figures. 6, Boar-hunt within an enclosure. 7, Boar-hunt (this is from the same plate as No. 3, altered by the engraver, the dogs omitted, and five horsemen instead of two in the distance). 8, Deer-shooting. (In the morocco copy, 9, Duplicate unsigned proof of the portrait of the Count-Duke.) The signature of "P. Perete" as engraver appears upon 1, 2, 5, 6; and No. 6 has also an inscription with the designer's name "Franco. Collantes inbentor 1634."

An unknown edition, of which perhaps no other copy exists. The edition of 1552 was the earliest known to Salvá, in whose catalogue an extract from the text is given, which shows that this Spanish horse-doctor was acquainted with the scientific fact of the Circulation of the Blood, nearly a hundred years before Harvey discovered it. It appears in the present copy on the reverse of leaf 49, and the concluding words may be quoted: "La sangre anda en torno y en rueda por todos los miembros." It is a statement concerning the function of the veins and arteries, which arises in an answer to a supposed question about the branding or barring of a horse's legs.

mended at one corner; fine large copy in green morocco extra, gilt edges; from the Salvá library Salamanca, en casa de Iuan de Canoua, 1555 20 0 0

Published after the author's death by Luis de Leon, to whose hand the preface is due.

I have not had a copy of this excessively rare book for twenty-seven years. It was the first general collection of genuine popular proverbs and proverbial locutions that was made in Spain. They amount to six thousand in number, and comprise not only Castilian refranes, but also Catalan, Valencian, Asturian, Galician, and Portuguese, with a few Italian and French, all in a single alphabetical arrangement; with Castilian explanations appended to those which are in the other languages. The original owner drew his pen through all the indecencies, but not so as to render them illegible. His pious action has simply made them more remarkable than they would otherwise have been.

COLLATION: Title and preliminaries, 6 leaves; text of the proverbs, folios 1-131; folio 132 is a title: Epicedio de Valerio Francisco Romero en la mverte del maestro Hernan Nuñez . .; the text of the Epicedio follows, in eight-lined stanzas, and ends on folio 142.

VERY RARE. To rival Ercilla and to sing the praises of the Marques de Cañete, was the object of the poet. He failed, and his book is more rare than valuable. It is, however, highly interesting, as one of the earliest productions of Chilene literature, the author having been a creole.

There was no copy of this edition in the Salvá collection; only one is mentioned by Gallardo, and only an imperfect one by Brunet.

The last sentence of the 1525 edition (in which the production of the Primaleon as a second book is announced) was omitted in this; but here, on the last page, we find the Latin verses of "Jo. Auger transmeren," which are not in the 1525 edition. These silly and pompous verses are important for the history of the book, as they allege that it was written by a learned woman greater in merit than all Spanish men. There is also a hint of assistance rendered in the more warlike passages by a "filius altisonans." In the catalogue of Ferdinand Columbus' library, an edition of 1511 is mentioned, with a statement that Francisco Vazquez was the author. In the colophon of the Primaleon of 1524, the editor's name is given as Francisco Vazquez of Ciudad Rodrigo. From these scraps of information Don Pascual de Gayangos has supposed that this Vazquez was the son referred to above, and that he was part author at least of the Primaleon.

Small folio, Roman letter, title printed in red and black beneath a woodcut; fine and large copy in green morocco extra, gilt edges, from the Salvá library Medina del Campo, 1563 12 10 0

Very rare. Six stanzas of verse at the end (a sort of imitation in Spanish of the Latin verses of Auger which appeared in the 1526 Palmerin) comprise in the fifth octave a clear statement as to the origin and authorship of the Primaleon:—

En este esmaltado ay muy rico dechado
Van esculpidas muy bellas labores
De paz y de guerra y de castos amores
Por mano de dueña prudente labrado.
Es por exemplo de todos notado
Que lo verisimil veamos en flor.
Es de Augustobrica aquesta labor.
Que en Medina se ha agora estampado.

There cannot be much hesitation in accepting as a fact that the author of the Palmerin and the Primaleon was a lady, and that she came from Ciudad Rodrigo. Whether her name was Vazquez or not must remain questionable.

First edition of one of the great Spanish historical classics of the fifteenth century, that is, of the Generaciones y Semblanzas or original Memoirs of his own time, by Hernan Perez de Guzman, which occupies the last eighteen leaves of the volume. The first part of the book is his condensed adaptation of the narrative contained in the still unpublished Mare Historiarum of Guido Colonna.

Brunet only mentions the edition of 1531 of this Spanish Chronicle, and even that he had never seen. There was no copy of either in the Miro or the Seillière collection; and the copy which Salvá had was imperfect. It is not incorrectly described in the Salvá catalogue as "Libro de estraordinaria rareza."

First edition of a great Spanish historical classic; and at the same time one of the finest typographical masterpieces of the early press. It was compiled by Perez de Guzman from the work of several elder contemporaries; and thus, as Salvá says, the most distinguished writers of the fifteenth century contributed to its composition and improvement.

Collation: ✠ 10 leaves; A, B, 8 leaves each; a, 9 leaves; b—z, and aa—hh, in eights; ii, six leaves. The peculiarity of 9 leaves in signature a has not been remarked by the bibliographers. It is to be presumed that a leaf was intercalated to supply some error made by the type-setters.

Excessively rare. Each volume is the second edition of its text, and the two united form a set which many collectors are likely to sigh for in vain.

The list of editions given by Duran and Salvá is erroneous. There was no edition of Part I in 1588. The above first volume bears the words second edition, and the royal privilege, which is included in the preliminary pieces, proves that the first edition must have been printed for Angelo Tavano at Zaragoza at the end of 1595. With regard to the Second Part, we have the following details: Gines Perez finished the writing of the manuscript on the 22 November, 1597, at Murcia. Juan Dorado, of Murcia, bought it, and obtained the royal licence to print it on 4 June, 1610. Doctor Molina saw it in three sections, the first and third in MS., the second in print, dated Alcala 1604, on the 10 of April, 1610, and approved it for publication. After June, 1610, there is no further information till 1619, in the April of which year the Tassa and a further approbation were dated at Madrid. Consequently, it seems likely that the first edition was printed at Madrid in 1619, and immediately afterwards reprinted at Cuenca and Barcelona.

The allusion to a printed portion of Alcala, 1604, by Dr. Molina, may simply be an error on his part, caused by having seen the Alcala edition of the First Part in 1604. Ticknor boldly asserts that the second part was first printed at Alcala in 1604, but he and others probably relied upon the word of Dr. Molina. This personage, however, in his approbacion, speaks only of the book in the following fashion, as "el libro de las Guerras Civiles . . y de las batallas particulares . . entre Moros y Christianos, y de la rebelion de la dicha Ciudad . . tiene tres partes . . la primera y tercera parte estan escrito de mano . . y la segunda impressa en Alcala de Henares por Juan Gracian, año de 1604." Ticknor laments the loss of the third part which he had never seen; but it is quite evident that the Doctor's segunda parta is the batallas particulares, and refers to the published Part I, while he has split up Part II into Guerras Civiles (his part 1), and Rebelion (his part 3).

VERY RARE. The first scientific and practical work upon the treatment of the precious ores, derived from the practical experience of the Spaniards in the New World and at home. 1103 PETRARCA, TRIUMFOS, First Edition, Title (under a large woodcut escutcheon): FRANCISCO PETRARCA cons los seys triunfos de toscano sacados en castellano con el comento que sobrellos se hizo . This is a fine book of the greatest rarity. The translator (a very free translator) was Antonio de Obregon who dedicates his work to Fadrique Enrriquez de Cabrera, Almirante de Castilla.

The restoration that is mentioned above seems to have been a cleansing of the last fourteen leaves from large patches of ink that must have covered their whole extent. The result has been to give those leaves the appearance of facsimile.

1104 ——— Title: TRIUMPHOS DE PETRARCA . Translacion d los seys triumfos de Frācisco petrarca de toscano en castellão: fecho por antonio de obregō capellā del rey Dirigido al Illustrissimo señor Almirante de Castilla &c . The three editions of 1512, 1526, and 1532, are described by Salvá as all equally rare and equally handsome books. There was no copy of this one in the Miro collection.

1105 ——— REMEDIOS, First Edition. Title (under a large woodcut of the Gran Capitan's escutcheon): FRANCISCO PETRARCHA De los remedios contra prospera y aduersa fortuna Con preuilegio. Colophon: . . . es imprimido el libro del famoso poeta y orador Francisco petrarca de los remedios cōtra prospa y aduersa fortuna en la muy noble villa d Valladolid por Diego de gumiel . . . año de . Rare. The dedication to the Gran Capitan by Francisco de Madrid, Ascediano de Alcor, and Canonigo en la yglesia de Palencia, shows that he was the translator of the book, and the author of the Life of Plutarch which precedes the text.

	This copy belonged about 1600 to an Englishman who has written some verses against marriage at the end. Poza was one of the first writers upon the Basque language, which he describes as superior to every other. This is done by giving test words as specimens, and then bringing forward their analogues from many tongues. It was one of the first books printed at Bilbao.

1136 QUESTION DE AMOR . Y, CARCEL DE AMOR. En Paris, En casa de Hernaldo Caldera, y de Claudio Caldera su hiyo . 1548.

2 vols. in 1, narrow 12mo. very fine copy in the original stamped binding of smooth black morocco (probably done at Brussels) Paris, 1548 10 10 0

The second volume has a distinct title, foliation, and signatures. The title is "Carcel de Amor del complimiento de nicolas nuñez," and the prologue indicates that the Carcel had been composed by Diego de Sant Pedro. The complement of Nicolas Nuñez begins on folio 75 of the second volume.

The Question de Amor was written at Ferrara in 1512. The author's name is unknown. It is a singular discussion, in mingled prose and poetry, as to which of two lovers had the worse fate. The lady of the one had died, the other served his lady without hope of guerdon.

THE ONLY PERFECT COPY KNOWN of a book which the translation of Ticknor call "uno de los libros mas raros de nuestra literatura poetica." COLLATION: 208 leaves in signatures of eight each: a-z, &, 9, r'.

The imperfect Miro copy, which I had and sold some sixteen years ago, is the only other example of the book which has come to my notice.

EXTREMELY RARE. There is probably not more than one other copy in existence. The only one known to Brunet and Gayangos was the present copy, which at that time was in the Sapienza library. They both gave an incorrect description. The book consists of 230 leaves, namely, title and one preliminary leaf, followed by the text numbered folios I-128. The heading of the first page of text reveals that the Tuscan original was called El Enamoramiento del Emperador Carlos Magno, and gives the name of the translator as Luis Domingues.

The single ballads "printed on one or more sheets, in black letter, for popular use" (as Ticknor describes them), are amongst the rarest and the most precious pieces of old Spanish literature. It was out of tracts of this kind that the Romanceros were built up gradually between 1550 and the close of the century.

1231 ——— (FERNAN GONZALEZ) SIGUENSE DOS GLOSAS: la vna sobre el Romãce que dizen . Buen conde Fernan gonçales el Rey embia por vos. Y la otra sobre el Romance de. Small 4to. four leaves, gothic letter; olive morocco extra, from the Salvá library S. n. (about 1525) 12 12 0
The gloss of Alonso de Alcaudete is not the dull prose gloss of many later poets, but a new poem in stanzas on the same subject as the original ballad, the last line of each stanza being one of the successive lines of the ballad.

EXTREMELY RARE. The earliest attempt to collect the popular ballads of Spain was made by the man for whom this work was published at Antwerp in or before 1550. This, his third edition of 1555, represents the final recension of the text of the First of the Romanceros. Further collections made towards the end of the century led to the compilation of the Romancero General described below.

One of the most precious volumes in the Salvá collection. Copies of this edition are rare in any state, but as a rule they are imperfect. This was the only perfect copy known to Salvá, for when he had it the British Museum copy was deficient of four leaves. I have had a copy perfect with the exception of one leaf only, and a copy made up with facsimiles is described below.

EXCESSIVELY RARE. It is described by Gallardo, but with the error of specifying 11 preliminary pages, instead of 12 preliminary leaves. The same book was issued in the same year by Pablo de Val at Madrid, and it is usually cited under his name.

These Romances, which are divided into four parts, the last of the parts relating chiefly to the conquest of Granada, were written or collected in the early part of the sixteenth century. They were handed over to Alonso de Fuentes, that he might write a prose gloss upon them. Before he had finished his work, his anonymous patron (un Señor a quien yo tenia gran obligacion para servir) died, and the book was published by or for Fuentes in 1550 at Seville, appearing at Zaragoza in 1564 for the second time. Both editions are of the utmost rarity.

16mo. two leaves slightly mended; maroon morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, with the Seillière arms on the sides Anvers, 1566 25 0 0

Best Edition of the book. It omits eight of the pieces in the editions of 1551 and 1580, but it has twenty-one additional ballads which are not in them.

Madrid and Zaragoza, 1699-1705, etc. 21 0 0

The contents of this volume are sufficiently old to have become rarities of a high order. They are all on single sheets of a few leaves each, and having been printed for popular and ephemeral use, the preservation and the combination of so large a number are remarkable, considering that even the ballads and broadsheets printed a hundred years later have become very rare.

All the pieces are in fine condition.

Such a large collection of Spanish chap-books is extremely rare and interesting. The productions of the catchpenny presses of the last century are already very scarce; as most of these gems of street-literature were easily destroyed.

Small folio. gothic letter, with woodcuts and woodcut borders; a singularly fine and sound copy of the rare original edition; in limp vellum Napoles, 1552 25 0 0

The title is partly in Roman, partly in Gothic letter, under the woodcut escutcheon of Don Pedro de Toledo, Viceroy of Naples; the dedication to whom "Prologo dirigido al Illustrissimo Señor don Pedro de Toledo," etc., occupies the obverse of the second leaf. The Tabla begins on the reverse of the second leaf and ends midway down the page on the reverse of the fourth leaf. Then the text follows on 120 numbered leaves (I-CXX).

This is the original issue, as made in Naples, and is excessively rare. In the copies which were sent to Spain, the four preliminary leaves were reprinted, the words of intitulation vary, the escutcheon on the title is that of the Emperor, and the dedication is addressed to Prince Philip.

This story (which was printed for the first time about 1490) is usually classed among Romances of Chivalry, and called Leriano y Laureola. San Pedro made his lover die at a distance from the lady, because, through a punctilio, she would not marry him, although they loved each other. Nicolas Nuñez did not like such an ending, so he brings them together in order that the disappointed lover shall die in his lady's presence.

FIRST EDITION. ONLY ONE OTHER COPY IS KNOWN, namely that which belonged to Salvá and in which at least nine leaves in the middle were deficient. All the bibliographers were ignorant of the existence of this first edition, until Salvá's imperfect copy was seen by Brunet. It is in signatures a-q of eight leaves each. The final sheet of poetry Nueva Coronacion contains eight leaves with the signature a. It does not perhaps belong to the book, but it was evidently printed at the same time by the same printer in uniform style.

This comedy was considered so licentious that it was at once suppressed by the Inquisition, and nearly every copy of this original edition seems to have been destroyed. It was reprinted two years later at Salamanca, but that edition underwent the same fate, and the book was never again reprinted in Spain, until our own days.

ORIGINAL EDITION. Very correctly printed with a good fount of Spanish types; marked by few typographical errors, among which I see in a couple of places scrivia and Spañoles. It is therefore tolerably certain that this excessively rare book was printed in Italy, and either at Naples or at Milan, more probably in the former city. The second part is an excuse for the siege and sacking of Rome, and a defence of the Emperor as not responsible for it. The author says, however, in his address Al Lector that if he is anywhere in error, it is through ignorance not malice, "pues en todo me someto a la correction y juyzio dela santa yglesia, la qual confiesso por madre."

Both Dialogues are in the same type and have 34 lines to the page. There is no foliation. The signatures of the Mercurio are A—I in eights, and K 2 leaves of which the second is blank. Of the second Dialogue, a—c in eights, and d in ten leaves. It is the circumstance of the signatures being mostly octaves, that induced Boehmer to call this book a large 8vo., and he is perhaps technically right. But the shape of the book is undeniably quadrate. Only three other copies seem to be known, all in Germany, and one of the three imperfect.

The vellum cover of the above copy is the original one, and it bears a faded inscription on the outside, written about 1580, which seems to be "A xeres qui est d'aquesto libro vero possessore." The name is Spanish; the language is mixed Latin, Spanish, and Italian.

Two volumes of excessive rarity, both bearing on the title the curious woodcut device of a Y, with the figure of a man toppling off the broad arm, and a standing figure pointing to the crown which rests above the narrow arm of the letter. The motto is "Estrecho el camino de la vida y es ancho el de la perdicion." The place and printer's name are considered to be pseudonymous, and to indicate the press of Jean Crespin at Geneva (—the man who printed the original edition of Foxe's Martyrs in 1557).

First Edition, excessively rare. In fact no other copy than this has ever been seen in the book-auctions except Lord Stuart de Rothesay's, which was sold in 1855 and fetched £47. The present example is a very fine one, and so large that Salvá suspected it to be a real Large Paper. It consists of 183 leaves (a blank leaf having been cut away either at the beginning or end of sheet +, or the beginning of sheet A). The signatures are + 10 leaves, A 7 leaves, B—X eight leaves each, Y six leaves.

This copy fetched £29. 10s at the Seillière sale in London in 1877. Only one other copy (Sobolewski's) is known, and in it the title was wanting, besides two leaves of the table.

The name of Dionys Clemente is unrecorded not only by Ticknor and Antonio, but also by Ximeno in his Dictionary of Valencian writers. From this, the extraordinary rarity of the book may be easily inferred.

Very rare. The glimpse of the book's history as told in the intitulation on fol. ii is curious, since it reminds us of a parallel instance in English literary history. Urries was in Bruges at the same time as Caxton; and while one was translating the Troy Book from French into English, the other was rendering Valerius Maximus from French into Spanish.

Small folio, Roman Letter, First Edition; light brown morocco, gilt edges (Zaragoza, 1555) 8 8 0

Consisting of 6 preliminary leaves and 156 leaves of text (numbered 1-159 erroneously). The signatures are A, 6 leaves; a-n in sixes; o, 7 leaves; p-z in sixes, A eight leaves, B four leaves, and C five leaves. The book is so rare that I am unable to ascertain whether there was a final leaf of colophon or not.

Brunet describes the edition of 1562, and, in his note upon it, says that the first edition of "Valladolid, 1555" is very rare. In the Spanish Ticknor there is a similar but still briefer allusion; but the date is evidently taken from that of the Privilege, which is signed by "Yo la Princesa" at Valladolid in 1555. The privilege was, however, granted to the Zaragoza printer "Por quanto vos Miguel de Çapila librero vezino de Caragoça haveys hecho recopilar de latin en romance al Maestro Valles el libro." Consequently the first edition was printed at Zaragoza, not at Valladolid, as described above. Amongst the preliminary pieces there is "El autor al pio Lector," which was not reprinted in the 1562 edition; also six columns of Errata, and a statement that "Quedan se recopilando las guerras que succedierõ en Italia. . ."

THE FIRST PRINTED COLLECTION of any of Lope de Vega's Comedies. It is unmentioned by Salvá, Brunet, and Gallardo; and it came to Ticknor's knowledge only in time to be referred to in his last English edition. (It was a single copy found in Germany which he described.) The names of the writers besides Lope are not given in the book; but No. 6 is the Carlos el Perseguido of Lope (with numerous passages in the text which were altered in the edition of 1604)—No. 4, "Comedia de la libertad de Castilla por el Conde Fernan Goncales, en lengua antiga," is not the play of the same name by Lope, but totally distinct. No. 5, "Hazañas del Cid y su Muerte, con la tomada de Valencia," is not the second Cid comedy of Guillen de Castro. As to the Amigos Enojados, and the No. 1 and No. 2, their titles are not to be found in Salvá's list. According to Ticknor, at least three of the Comedies are by Lope.

The book consists of title and leaves numbered 1—272. On the title is an autograph, "Jes de Jamet a Seville ce 24 d'Avril, 1604."

The book is divided thus: Title and preliminaries, 3 leaves; Entremeses, 16 leaves; Comedias, two parts, paged 1-364 and 1-258; Loas, 8 leaves. The twelve comedies are arranged in a different order from that of the Valladolid edition.

Its "coarseness and indecency are so great that they cannot long have been tolerated," says Ticknor. It is a rare play of the type of Celestina, and the alcahueta herself under the name of "Lena" is one of the characters.

VERY RARE. There was no copy in the Salvá or Heredia collection, and the book is unmentioned by Ticknor, Gallardo, and Brunet.—Harrisse (and, from him, Brunet's continuator) mentions the work but not this edition.

References to America will be found on folios 128 and 211. The author was very irate against the rush for gold in Peru, and the revolutions in society caused by the sudden enrichment of adventurers.

The letter R conceals the name Riaño, a name which would easily recommend even a less curious and interesting fragment of antiquity than this is. It is the note-book of a German traveller whose name is unknown, but who must have been a man of high position. The original is in the British Museum.

Only 100 copies have been printed.

(Valencia, Navarro, 1564)

The fact that the second part was twice printed or partly printed, was evidently unknown to Ximeno (Escritores de Valencia, 1747), but he says: "Este tomo no se halla entero por aver impedido la Real Audiencia continuar su impression por querellas que pusieron muchos nobles."

TERCERA PARTE. A woodcut escutcheon. Libro tercero de la Chronyca de la inclita y coronada ciudad de Valencia . . Año de . M.D.Lxiiij

Fine and perfect copy of the first edition of Part III. In the colophon, the author announces that he was proceeding with the second edition.

[QUARTA PARTE] Cronica de Valencia . Libro quarto de la Cronica de la Inclita y coronada ciudad de Valencia copilado por Martin de Viciana . . . En Barcelona en casa de Pablo Cortey, 1566. Fine and perfect copy Barcelona, 1564

Vols. II and III are in Gothic type; IV is in Roman type.

1463 ——— the same work, II, III, IV. Salvá's copy in limp vellum 1564, etc. 15 0 0

In this copy Vol. III is precisely like the one in the Killigrew copy. Vol. II is a MS. copy of the complete Second Part; probably "con mucha variacion," as Ximeno says. Vol. IV is an exact copy of the printed Barcelona volume.

1464 ——— the same, Vol. III separately, sm. folio, fine copy in limp vellum, £3. 3*s*; or in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford 1564 3 16 0

Very few books have such a history as this. The author worked on it for more than forty years before he began to print. It is absolutely certain that the first volume was issued by Navarro in 1564, with all the necessary licences, etc., but not a single copy is known. Of Vol. II, we have plain proof that he printed two editions, both done in 1564, the second intended to correct or supplement the first; and yet, as Ximeno declared a century and a half ago, no complete printed copy of either is known. Of Vol. III, the edition which Vicyana himself calls the first, was printed off rapidly so as to be presented to the King on his entrance into Valencia on the 14th April, 1564; while of the second edition, which as he says he was even then progressing with, Ximeno seems to have had a knowledge that it was completed in 1564, but I know of no copy. Vol. IV was printed no doubt in Barcelona so as to escape the hostility of the Valencian nobles, but even it is rare.

75 pieces, bound together in 1 vol. sm. 4to. limp vellum 1648-76 20 0 0

A highly valuable collection of Spanish poetry, written in the popular metres, and including a good many dialectal forms of language. Such a large series of rare pieces could only elsewhere be found in public libraries if indeed anywhere.—Four pieces of later date are added to the 75 above mentioned, and bear the imprints of Cervera, Gerona, and Barcelona, 1727-38.

1472 ——— another copy, having the engraved title in photographic facsimile; vellum 1617-18 2 0
The engraved frontispiece is rare, because of its offensive emblematic vanity in which the author compared himself to a rising sun before which all the poetic stars of the world would fade. Villegas himself suppressed it in the second edition.

1493 ZAYAS Y SOTOMAYOR (Doña Maria de) Novelas Amorosas, y Exemplares . . Small 4to. calf Zaragoça, 1637 2 16 0

This volume contains ten stories, which the lady augmented by a second part of ten more in 1647. Salvá, who had no edition before that of 1647, knew nothing of the bibliography, and cited Brunet for a statement that the first edition of the first part had appeared at Madrid in 1635, and been followed by reprints in 1637, one at Madrid and one at Zaragoza. But from the preliminary pieces of the latter we see that Jos. de Valdivielso gave his Aprovacion at Madrid on 2nd June, 1636, and Juan de Mendieta his, also at Madrid, on the 4th June, 1636 (printed by evident mistake 1626). The Licence is dated Zaragoza, May, 1635. We are therefore left in uncertainty and find it difficult to take Brunet on trust.

The licence by Mendieta is here printed with the date 4 June, 1634, which is perhaps the true one.

The tale of the Prevenido Engañado in the first part of these Novels is sufficient in itself to stamp Doña Maria as one of the most licentious writers in the Spanish language. It contains a succession of lascivious adventures ingeniously strung together to prove that women can always succeed in betraying their lovers and their husbands, and that no precaution can frustrate their indecent desires.

From a close comparison of this book with the Certamen Poeticum (Obres y Trobes) printed at Valencia (in 1474) and the Salustio printed in the same city in 1475, Salvá was enabled to assert that the Rabbi Samuel was also printed at Valentia in either of those two years. It is consequently one of the first books produced by the press in Spain. No other copy is known.

The extraordinary rarity of these highly important volumes arises from the limited and private nature of the impressions. It is stated upon good authority that only fifty copies were struck off by order of the great Cardinal Ximenez.

In these two volumes we have what is virtually the most ancient liturgy of the Latin Church, originating not with SS. Isidore and Ildephonsus, to whom the compilation is assigned, but with earlier times when Christian Rome was still Greek, and the bishopries of Numidia, Spain, Gaul and Lombardy constituted the Latin Church.

The piece absent from the latter copy is the Interpretationes hebræorum nominum, 10 leaves (Vol. V). The copy is in good condition, excepting that the title to Vol. I is mounted, some letters in the preliminary leaves of the same vol. restored, and that some leaves in Vols. IV and VI are a little mended or wormed. It is from the library of the Earl of Aylesford, at whose sale it originally fetched £78.

The earliest Polyglot Bible issued and now very rare, as only 600 copies were printed, most of which have been bought up for public libraries. The printing occupied more than fifteen years, having been commenced in 1502, and cost the Cardinal 50,000 ducats. In it the New Testament in Greek was printed for the first time, but was only allowed to be sold after the Death of Leo X in 1522, he having strictly prohibited the sale of the Bible. The death of Cardinal Ximenes, November 8th, 1517, may also have caused a delay in the publication. Sir J. Thorold's copy sold for £176; Rt. Hon. Beresford Hope's for £166, and Mr. Russell's for £150.

UNIQUE. There is no trace of any other copy, and the translator is unrecorded among the Catalonian writers. An interesting peculiarity of the book, is that it contains, several times repeated, the identical capital S with which the unique Spanish letter of Columbus begins.

The history given here in the Valentian or Aragonese language is the second of the three parts into which the Chronicle of Jayme el Conquistador is divided; and it was printed in this volume for the first time. The King was a bold warrior and an able chronicler; he fought and conquered and wrote in the first half of the thirteenth century.

The MS. which was given to Tastu to print from, appeared to him to be in a sixteenth-century hand. It had no name or title, and he only printed four copies as proofs, of which this is one on Dutch paper. His own note on the fly-leaf attests the fact. The book was never brought to publication, and it remains, therefore, still an unpublished poem. The first lines of verse are

Both the above volumes are fine specimens of Spanish ornamental bookbinding. Their historical interest is considerable, as they were published for a political purpose to show the ancient and confirmed rights of the Catalan people by way of remonstrance against the evident intention of the Castilian crown to suppress them, which led to the insurrection of 1640.

This collection of twenty-four unpublished Valencian poems is perhaps the work of LUIS CATALA, one of the trobadores of Valencia, who contributed Coplas to the "Obra de la Concepcio de la Mare de Deu" of 1486, and who had already (according to Fuster) contributed to the "Obres y Trobes" of 1474. My conjecture is based on the fact that Luis Catala wrote work of the kind, and that a couple of notes in the volume itself show that it belonged to the Catala family in the sixteenth century. One of these notes is as follows:—

"Jo Viscent Catala, cavaller, confese aver rebut de vos Pere Miquel cavaller y abitador de la vila de Castello de la Plana vin llires de preu de una casa que esta en lo carer magor, de front de casa de Giner . . ."

This was written about 1590. The other note is a little later, and seems to read "moneginis Català, cavaller de La Plana." Castellò de la Plana is a little to the north of Valencia.

The paper on which it is printed is identical with that of the rest of the book. The dedication which follows the title is addressed "Als molts magnifichs senyors mossen Guillem Ramon Cathala generas," and thirteen other persons (citizens, advocates, syndics, and Secretary of the Council of Valencia) by the printer, Phelip Mey.

Muntaner's Chronicle was written in 1325-1328. Ticknor praises the exact yet animated character of the narrative, and compares it to that of Froissart. The Catalan knight was, however, a warrior, not a priest, and wrote in the spirit of a man who had fought in thirty battles and suffered wounds and captivity. His work refers more to the three successors of Don Jaime than to the Conquistador himself, as it is a record entirely of personal experiences, and he had only, as a boy of nine, seen that King a few years before his death.

The Sinner Redeemed is a curious religious romance or vision in which great numbers of speakers argue pro and con on the subject of the immolation of Christ. Among the characters are Plato, Moses, Isaac, Solomon, Eve, and Lucifer. The affair is debated in a court in which the Almighty presides; and in the last chapter of this first book (no more was printed) the Virgin refutes the speech of Orpheus, and consents voluntarily to the death of her Son.

THE FIRST ROMANCE OF CHIVALRY PRINTED IN SPAIN.

Original edition, of extraordinary rarity. Only three other copies are known—one in the British Museum, a second (imperfect) in the library of the University of Valencia, and a third which had belonged to the Royal Library at Lisbon before it came (somehow) into the hands of the banker Salamanca, and which is probably once more in its original home.

The author, Johannot de Martorell, a knight, dedicated his work to Dom Ferdinand of Portugal (son of the King, Dom Duarte) in 1460. He professes to have rendered it from English into Portuguese, for the prince's behoof, and thence into Valencian for the benefit of his compatriots. There is a certain amount of truth in the statement of an English original since the incidents of the early chapters are derived from Guy of Warwick, and the central figure in that part of the story is called Guilhem of Waroych, an Earl who emerges from a monastery to conquer heathen invaders of England and then returns to it after having revealed himself to his wife. The origin and laws of the Order of the Garter are given, differing somewhat in the account of its creation from the ordinary story. After Tirant appears on the scene, the romance seems to be independent of any original, and incidents of love and war are thickly crowded in the record; which deals henceforward chiefly with the Empire of Constantinople rescued from the Turks by the hero. Tirant is engaged to the Emperor's daughter, but his courtship is protracted, and other ladies tempt him in a great many warm passages. He wins, however, the renown of a chaste and valiant warrior, and finally dies without his reward. The mourning princess dies upon his dead body, and the tale is ended. Martorell would perhaps have finished it differently, but he died when only three parts of the work had been written. The fourth part was composed at the request of Doña Isabel de Loris by the magnificent knight Masti Johan de Galba. Cervantes did not know the story in its original Valencian form, but only in its Spanish translation (printed in 1511). He makes the Curate save it from the holocaust of romances, and declare that "Por su estilo es este el mejor libro del mundo."

This original edition of Tomich's Chronicle is apparently unknown to all bibliographers, and has survived probably in this only copy. There are 49 chapters in the text (called 48 because the matter comprised in caps. 13 and 14 of the reprint runs unbroken under the rubric of cap. 13 in this) and the work ends with the death of Ferdinand's predecessor in 1479.

The title is absent (if there was one); leaf a 1 is missing, but it was apparently a blank leaf. The signatures run in eights and extend here to ii 6, which is followed by the three manuscript leaves referred to.

In this edition—itself a rare book, and the only one known to the bibliographers—the chapter xiii was divided into 13 and 14, and thus the number of chapters increased by one. This was further increased by an additional chapter 50 giving a short account of the reign of Ferdinand from 1479 to 1515.

There was no copy of either edition of Tomich in the Miro, Seillière, and Salvá-Heredia libraries.

When Barros wrote this Romance he was little over twenty years of age. The first edition was printed at Coimbra in 1520. In the eighty-second chapter, Fanimor is made to deliver a set of prophecies in verse in which he foretells the triumphs of the Portuguese arms in the eastern oceans, giving a great number of geographical names now familiar enough, but which in 1520 would have been utterly strange to most people.

A speech of the Queen Leonore at the beginning of the book is worth quoting: "By Saint Mary! what a goodly custom have the English, who, in time of peace, carry no arms nor care to go armed, but wear good white raiment on their hands, like maidens; and when they are at war, then they put their arms on, and use them all the world knows how!"

A work of standard authority and excellence. It is the only authentic history of the Mexican republic, from the stirring days of its struggle for independence, and is based almost entirely upon official documents.

1807 ALBOQUERQUE. Small folio, First Edition; fine copy, ruled throughout, in a French sixteenth century binding, gilt edges, with centre and corner pieces impressed in gold Lixboa, 1557 45 0

This first edition is so rare that only some three or four copies are known, and this one is probably the finest of them all, with its blank leaf at the beginning and blank leaf at the end. Mr. Walter de Grey Birch, at the time when he translated the commentaries for the Hakluyt Society, confessed that he had "never been sufficiently fortunate to see the first folio edition of 1557." The British Museum has, however, acquired a copy since then.

Small folio, calf, £5; or, in red morocco extra, gilt edges, from the Salvá library Lisboa, 1576 7 1

This is the edition, usually considered the better of the two, which was used in translating the book for the Hakluyt Society. It is also so rare that the number of existent copies may be counted on the fingers.

There is a considerable difference in arrangement and in language between the two editions. As a small example, in the dedication to Prince Sebastian in the issue of 1557 the writer gives the name (Pero Gomez) of the soldier who apostrophized over the grave of Alboquerque, while in the dedication to King Sebastian in the issue of 1576, the old warrior is merely hum soldado.

It was in April, 1520 that they landed at Massowa, and it was not till six years later that they left the country to make their way home to Portugal.

Small folio, gothic letter; the blank lower margin of the first page mended; blue morocco extra, gilt edges, from the Salvá library (Sevilla, 1511) 100 0

First Edition of the first history of the New World. It is a book of equal rarity and importance, and is to be found in very few libraries. I have never had it but once before, about seventeen years ago.

As a production of the Spanish press, as a history of Spanish doings, and as containing the five-years privilege of Doña Juana, in the Castilian language, on the reverse of the second leaf, the First Decade of Peter Martyr has its fitting place here. The letterings on the map are in Spanish.

This map is a most interesting and valuable early specimen of cartography. It gives Bermuda in the right upper angle with a glimpse of Gibraltar to the east. The West Indian Islands are given with nearly approximate correctness in their shape and relative position: Cuba, Jamaica, Hispanola, and San Juan (i.e. Puerto Rico) with the Lucaios (to the number of nineteen islets lying north of eastern Cuba and the western half of Hispaniola). North of Cuba, at a distance apparently intended to represent some three hundred miles, there is a coast which seems to be a combination of the southern shore of Florida with that of the island of Bahama, and is marked Isla de Beimeni parte. The coast of South American runs correctly from Cape Gracias de Dios to the Cape of Santa Cruz (a little east of Cape San Roque) in Brazil. To the west of Gracias de Dios it trends erroneously towards the N.W., but the outline is fairly true as far as the Gulf of Honduras.

In the description of the above copy the dedication to Ximenez (with the map), and the first list of Errata are reckoned as folios 21, 22, because their position in the book is such; and Salvá in describing the volume by its signatures took them to be the fifth and sixth leaves of signature c. The fact of the matter is that they were printed as a single sheet of two leaves after the conclusion of the Decas, that is between f 8 and g 1; evidently as an addition to the text. The dedication to Ximenez was written by Peter Martyr; the list of Errata was made by his friend Antonio de Nebrija who edited the work in its passage through the press. His first remark is "The unskilfulness of the typographers, who know scarce any Latin, has caused me to benefit but little by having supplied them with a correct copy of these works of my friend the author." The preparation of the map was probably therefore an afterthought. This would account for its absence in most copies of the book.

COLLECTION BY SIGNATURES; a, b, eight leaves each; c, four leaves; the two leaves of map and errata; d, e, f, eight leaves each; g, six leaves; h, i, eight leaves each; and k in six leaves.

820 ANGLERIA (Pedro Martyr de) Decades 1-3. First Edition. De Orbe Nouo Decades, sm. folio, gothic letter, exceedingly fine large and clean copy (300 × 201 millimetres), with some edges uncut, red morocco, with Charles Ashburnham's arms

Aranda's work is one of the least known of all the early descriptions of the Holy Land, in which he was, as he states, "no solo peregrino, mas aun abitante y morador." He afterwards returned to Spain.

Woodcut portrait of Couto on the back of the title.

Almost all the copies were burnt, and the preliminary leaves had not yet been printed when the fire took place. Consequently this volume consists of the text complete, foliated 1—236, without any title. The deficiency was never supplied afterwards.

(Couto VII) Decada Setima . . .

Woodcut portrait of Couto on the back of the title.

(Couto X) Da Asia de Diogo de Couto . . Decada Decima . .

Lisboa . . MD CCLXXXVIII (1788)
This Decade was supplied by compilation in the small edition of 1788, so as to take the place of Couto's lost MS.

(Couto XII) Cinco Livros da Decada Doze . . Tirados a luz pello Capitão Mel. Frz. de Villa Real . .
Em Pariz . Anno M.D C.XLV (1645)
Only five books of the twelfth Decade were recovered by Manoel Fernandez de Villa-Real, who published them for the first time in 1645, at Paris, where he was then residing as Portuguese Consul and Minister. (He was rewarded seven years later by being put to death at an Auto-da-Fe for supposed Judaical heresy.)

—— together, 11 vols. folio and small folio, uniformly bound in olive morocco, gilt edges, and 3 vols. 12mo. bound in red morocco, with royal arms on the sides; from the Salvá library 1552-1788 100 0 0

1837* BARROS and COUTO'S ASIA. Original editions. Another set, omitting the Ninth, Tenth, and Eleventh Decades, but in all other respects agreeing with the Salvá set, 10 vols. folio and small folio, old calf, from Lord Crawford's library 1552-1673 75 0

The three missing Decades were intentionally omitted by Lord Crawford, as never having been separately printed, and as having only appeared in distinct editions of the work.

Richard Heber expended upwards of £400 in making up his complete set of the original editions. With the exception of the copy in the Grenville library there is no record to be found of any other copies comprising all the original decades, except the two sets above described. The other copies Brunet mentions, as well as one offered by Thorpe some fifty years ago, wanted the twelfth decade.

"Le catalogue des ouvrages de Beristain est fort nombreux. Il passa toujours pour un ami des lettres, mais d'un servilisme extravagant. Une note manuscrite à son article, dans l'exemplaire de ma collection, dit de lui ces mots: Beristain fué el hombre mas servil que parió madre! Lastima que fuera mi paisano! L'auteur de cette note, Juan Evangelista Guadalajara, ainsi qu'il se fait connaître dans cet exemplaire qui lui appartint avant moi, en a surchargé les marges, aussi bien que les pages blanches, en tête et en queue des trois volomes, d'un grand nombre d'annotations, de rectifications et d'articles supplémentaires que seraient des plus utiles pour une seconde édition du Beristain. An important volume. This MS. of Bernaldez belonged to the man who was Archbishop of Seville in 1682, and was transcribed by or for him from the copy of Rodrigo Caro's MS. which had formed part of the library of Don Juan Suarez de Mendoza.—It fell afterwards into the possession of Baron Taylor, and in 1848 passed into the Delmonte Library which has recently been dispersed.

An invaluable work, written by an eye-witness of the events which he describes with vivid and picturesque simplicity. Bernaldez gave the hospitality of his house to Columbus in June, 1496, when the great navigator had returned from his second voyage. This is the better of the two editions which have been printed.

A singularly complete collection of the scattered pieces of this voluminous writer. Many of them are excessively rare, as, in consequence of the disturbed state of the political atmosphere in which he lived, they were found obnoxious to many successive holders of power. Bustamante was the son of a Spaniard, but, more Mexican than the Mexicans themselves, he talked of "our three hundred year's captivity and sufferings," cursing the nation from which he derived his blood and the language that he used with such fiery energy.

OF EXTRAORDINARY RARITY. Even the first volume, printed at Barcelona, in 1639, is a very scarce one; but this second volume is so rare that the extant copies may be reckoned on the fingers of one hand. In fact, there are probably not four copies in Europe (Salvá knew of the existence of a single copy only, and that was in America). The leaves of which the volume is composed are title, 1 leaf, Protestacion del Autor, 1 leaf; Aprobaciones y Licencias, 2 leaves; Razon de la Obra y Vida del Autor, por Bernardo de Torres, 2 leaves; Dedicatoria á la Virgen, 1 leaf, that is, altogether, 7 preliminary leaves. The text follows, the first fourteen leaves foliated 1-14, the sequel paged 15-268. Then a leaf, "Libro Segvndo Advertencia al Letor," signed by Bernardo de Torres. Next follows the text of the Libro Segundo ("las cosas que sucedieron desde el año de 1594 hasta el de 98 . . ") paged 1-42 where it breaks off imperfectly with the words "azer barro, i otros." Then begins "Libro Qvinto . . y Svcesos egenplares . . " paged 1-92, and ending with the words "Fin de la Obra." Two leaves of "Tabla de lo que contienen los capitulos de este Tomo Segundo" finish the volume. Such was the book as Calancha had left it in MS. incomplete, when he died on March 1st, 1654. It was given to the press in its defective state by his friend Bernardo de Torres, who was employed to bring out a more satisfactory Vol. II, a task he accomplished in 1657. Strange to say, in this latter volume, entirely his own work, he makes absolutely no mention of the volume of 1653(-4); and we may conclude that it had been already suppressed by the authorities of the order, either as being defective, or because it contained objectionable matter. Its chief subject is the miracles which had been accomplished by the aid of the Virgin, amongst which the chastity of women is an important part, illustrated by deeds of rape. Calancha quotes and approves of the opinion of Aquinas that "no pierde la virginidad la que por violencia . . fue corrompida, aunque tuviese en el acto delectacion, con tal que no la desease."

Small folio, limp vellum Lima, Ivlian Santos de Saldaña, 1657 7 10 0

Five preliminary leaves; pp. 1-680; pp. 1-50; seven unnumbered leaves of Protestatio and Indice. The first 680 pp. are solely the work of Torres, serving as a satisfactory Vol. II to Calancha's Vol. I of 1639. The succeeding 50 pp. are an Epitome of that Vol. I, made by Torres, and printed with his own work, so that this volume should serve as a complete History. It is extremely curious that no reference whatever is made to the Tomo Segundo (all of Calancha's writing) which Torres himself had already published in 1653(-4).

account or diary, begun at La Paz in 1734 and ended at Santiago in 1737, bd. California, 1737 50 0 0

The author gives at the beginning an outline of the establishment of the first Missions in Lower California in 1697, and a description of the several nations which inhabited the Peninsula, with a sketch of their habits, customs, and religion. The narrative of his personal experiences may be regarded as a necessary Supplement to Venegas, whose account of the Mission of La Paz ends in 1734. The exciting incidents which took place between that year and 1737 are described with a singleness of purpose and a simplicity of manner beyond praise, reminding the reader of Defoe.

This is a text of great importance in Californian history, and ought to be printed and translated. The writer's name, although not appearing in his book, can be identified from Clavigero.

Fetched £55 at the Ramirez sale.

So RARE that only one other copy in Europe, and one in Mexico, have been described by the bibliographers. It is a book of considerable intrinsic value with regard to the natural productions and phenomena of New Spain. The author was an enthusiastic admirer of the sancta yerva, Tobacco, and says that, if its smell were not so horrible, it would supersede all the herbs used medicinally in Europe. He describes the method of rolling it, wrapping it in another leaf as a tube, then lighting one end, and sucking the smoke from the other, as a beneficial practice used by the Indians, which the negroes and many Spaniards, and even women, had adopted.

CARTAS DE JESUITAS:

1867 COPIA DE ALGUNAS CARTAS que los padres y hermanos de la compañia de Iesvs, que andan en la India, y otras partes orientales, escriuieron a los de la misma compañia de Portugal. Desde el año de M.D.LVII. hasta el de lxj. Trasladadas de Portugues en Castellano. Impressas en Coimbra Por Ioan de Barrera. 1562. Small 4to. green morocco, gilt edges, from the Salvá library, VERY RARE Coimbra, 1562 10 0 0

Four preliminary leaves, followed by 103 numbered leaves of text. On folio 47 there is an imprint, and folio 48 is entirely blank.

The second collection of Jesuit Letters in Spanish. The first had appeared one year before at Zaragoza (see Alvarez, No. 1815).

This Coimbra volume (of which there seems to have been no issue in the Portuguese language) is extremely rare, so rare, indeed, as to have been unknown to Brunet and his continuator, and Graesse. The preface is by Manuel Alvarez, and states that the number of letters received from the East and West, had become too great for copying by hand to send to all the houses of the Company throughout Europe. It had, therefore, been found advisable to print them. The letters in this volume are 25 in number, and begin with events of the year 1556 (those in the Zaragoza collection having embraced the year 1554 and 1555). There are ten from Goa, four from Japan, three from Africa, one from Malacca, and seven from various places in India, dated from 1557 to 1561. The best known name among the writers is that of Luys Froes.

1868 COPIA DE LAS CARTAS que los Padres y hermanos de la Compañia de Iesvs quo andan en el Iapon escriuieron . . desde el año de M.D.XLVIII. que comẽçaron, hasta el passado de LXIII. Small 4to. red morocco, gilt edges, from the Salvá library, EXTREMELY RARE Coimbra, 1565-64 10 10 0

Four preliminary leaves, followed by pp. 1-478 of text. The preface by Cypriano de Soarez declares that it had been considered useful to combine all the letters received from Japan since 1548, and print them in a volume; and that the Spanish language had been chosen for that purpose, because of its being generally known throughout Europe. He calls Japan "some oriental islands of white people, now newly discovered by the Portuguese." The text begins with a letter from Pablo Japon to Ignatius Loyola, written from Goa in November, 1548.

The number of letters is very considerable (forty odd), and comprises two by Francis Xavier. They are all from, or about Japan, and comprise the four which appeared in the 1562 collection. The value of the book of 1564-65, is great, because of its going back to the beginning, and thus forming the first entire collection of Letters from Japan.

1869 CARTAS QVE LOS PADRES y Hermanos de la Compañia de Iesus, que andan en los Reynos de Iapon escriuieron . . desde el año de mil y quinientos y quarẽta y nueue, hasta el de mil y quinientos y setenta y vno . . Eight preliminary leaves; text, 315 numbered leaves, imprint, 1 leaf; Tabla, 4 leaves.

This is a new edition of the Coimbra volume of 1565, with a continuation comprising the letters of 1563-1571. A life of Xavier, by Manuel de Acosta, is added at the beginning.

There are nearly 90 letters in this edition.

CARTAS REALES Y OBEDIENCIAS AL PAPA.

1875 (Joao II de Portugal.) VALASCI Ferdinandi vtriusqȝ iuris consulti Illustrissimi Regis Portugallie oratoris ad Innocentium octauum . . de obedientia oratio, small 4to. gothic letter, olive morocco extra, gilt edges S. n. (Romæ, 1488?) 15 0 0

This was the first act of homage to the Pope performed in the name of Joao II (King of Portugal and Lord of Guinea) after the first discovery of the Cape of Good Hope by Bartolomeu Dias. The orator expresses the expectation that as in the previous year the Portuguese fleet had girdled the greater part of the circumference of Africa, and had reached almost as far as Cape Prassum (Ptolemy's Cape Prassum, corresponding to that which the Portuguese afterwards reached and named Cabo dos Corrientes), where, as they supposed, the Arabian Gulf begins, they would soon be able to announce the discovery of great nations towards Asia. He thought that the remainder of the way would be only a matter of a few days (paucorum dierum) for the seamen. The allusion is to the distance from the Cape of Good Hope to Guardafui, although neither of them is mentioned by name.

PERHAPS UNIQUE. Amongst the offerings to the Pope is included "another world explored and discovered by our navigations. Though our ancestors doubted whether there existed antipodes to us in the other hemisphere, far more of sky and land have been unfolded there by the auspices of our sovereigns than lies open in the whole extent of Europe. Why should I speak of the rich islands of the Indian Sea, lately discovered, and already converted, as it were, into the suburban farms of the Spaniards?"

EXTREMELY RARE FIRST EDITION. It is a book of grand and sumptuous appearance, printed in very large Gothic type with 32 lines to the page. This work revolutionised the science of Navigation, and was the first to point out the deflection of the needle. The date at which it was written appears in some of the passages of the earlier part of the book as 1545, but a year or two probably elapsed before the author could finish it and get it ready for the press.

The instructions for map-making are not the least interesting part of the text, and would be found useful by many persons who are unable to understand the principle of the wind-roses and rhumb-lines which cover the surface of old hydrographic charts. But even here the acute intelligence of Cortes indicated the defects of the plane system long before Mercator.

All editions of this important work are of great rarity. It is one of the most valuable sources of information for the history of the Spanish conquest and settlements in America; as well as of the manners, language, and religions of the aborigines.

Davila is the earliest writer who mentions the establishment of Printing in the New World, and the fact that the Scala Cœli of St. Joannes Climacus translated by his namesake Juan de Estrada from the Latin version, was entitled to the distinction of being the first book printed in America (about 1535-6).

One of the most delightful books ever written: a soldier's story rendered marvellously picturesque by the simplicity and sincerity of its telling.

There are six preliminary leaves including the title; followed by leaves numbered 1-254; concluding with six unnumbered leaves of Table.—There is a different edition bearing the same date, in which the title is engraved (not letterpress, as here); but the question of priority has never been solved.

Fourteen preliminary leaves (including two titles); leaves 1-172; Apendice y Adicion, 173-183; Erratas, 1 leaf; Memorial breve de las provincias de las siete ordenes de Religion, pp. 1-8, 4 leaves; Noticias importantes de la edad y grados etc. leaves 1-5.

Privately printed for the use of the Council of the Indies, but not published. It is the best statistical account that exists concerning the Spanish Empire in New Spain, California, and Central America, embracing also short historical summaries, and was considered by the King and Council to be a document of singular value for their own information. It is to be presumed that only so many copies were printed as were needed for official reference.

CONTENTS:

I. MEMORIAL DE LOS INDIOS DE TLASCALA AL VIRREY.

A contemporary copy of a petition which the Indians presented to the Viceroy, setting forth in the most touching language the manner in which they had aided Hernan Cortes in the conquest, the non-fulfilment of the promises which they had received, the consequent miseries of their lot and the heavy contributions under which they were groaning, etc., and begging relief from their burden. The date is marked by a passage referring to the epidemic of "los años pasados de 76 y 77," and the fact that the Tlascalan population had been reduced by that plague from over 200,000 persons to 24,000.

Vol. I. Acts of the Municipality of the city of Mexico from March, 1524, to June, 1529, copied by Don J. F. Ramirez, pp. 644. Ramirez has added 169 notes to this volume, illustrating some historical points, and has made an ample Index in his own handwriting in two leaves.

Vol. II. Copied under the care of the Lic. Don MANUEL OROZCO Y BERRA, containing the Acts from June, 1529, to September, 1532, in 649 pp., and two leaves of Index by Ramirez.

Vol. III. Copy also made by OROZCO, containing the Acts from January, 1533, to December, 1535, and extracts for the years 1536-1543, in 637 pp., and two leaves for the Index by Ramirez.

Vol. IV. Containing the Acts from Dec. 1550, to June, 1559, in 489 unnumbered leaves.

Vol. V. Containing the Acts from June, 1559, to Dec. 1561, in 431 unnumbered leaves.

Vol. VI. Containing the Acts from Jan. 1562, to April, 1564, in 317 unnumbered leaves.

This was one of the most important articles of the Ramirez collection, and ought to be secured by a Public Library in America.

At the end of the volume we learn that there is found in the original books a note in the handwriting of the eminent scholar Dn. Carlos Siguenza y Gongora, in which he states that during the tumult which took place in Mexico on the 8th of June, 1692, when the mob burned both the national and the municipal palace, he saved the original Actas.

The value of these six volumes as historical documents cannot be exaggerated, and anyone who has dedicated himself to the study of the years immediately following the conquest, and who knows the important part which the Municipal Councils of those times took in all public affairs of consequence, will at once recognize their utility, because they form not only the foundation of Colonial history, but to a certain extent the foundation also of the history of a society and a civilization that were disappearing.

The volumes contain also copies of a great number of "CEDULAS REALES," letters from important personages, such as Cortés, Alvarado, and others.

A small part of these Acts has been printed in the Boletin Municipal de Mexico, but merely in extracts, which have been edited in such a careless manner, and issued in such a small number of copies, that these volumes lose in consequence nothing either in value or importance.

The letterpress title which was used for the first and second volumes was taken or reprinted from the edition of part of the text prepared by Ygnacio Rayon. On that of Vol. II, Ramirez altered in writing the name of Rayon to that of Orozco; he did not make a similar change on the title of Vol. I, although that volume is, without doubt, entirely in his own handwriting.

This collection of MSS. fetched £140. at the Ramirez sale.

Some parts of this volume are in MSS.; others are printed. The contents are:—

1. MS. dated Mexico, Nov. 3 de 1571. Edicto general del Dr. Pedro Moya de Contreras. ORIGINAL, 2 leaves. It is the first document issued on the establishment of the Holy Office in New Spain. It condemns all the followers of the "lei muerta de Moisen de los Iudios . . . la malvada de Mahoma . . . la seta de Martin Lutero," and prepared the New World for the glorious celebration of the first Auto which took place in 1574, with twenty-one Lutheran heretics for the performers. This is the original counterpart of the Edict deposited in the archives, and is signed by Pedro de los Rios, secretary of the Archbishop Pedro Moya de Contreras.
2. Edicto general de los Inquisidores de Mexico, 25 de Sept. 1745, 6 leaves.
3. Edicto general, 14 de Enero, 1698.

This splendid and all important collection relating to the principal missions from New Spain was formed by the late Don J. F. Ramirez at the cost of much labour and money, and comprises all he was able to gather on this subject during forty years. It contains over 300 pp. relating to California, about as many on the subject of Sonora, and nearly 1000 on New Mexico and Texas. The contents will speak for themselves.

Costanso's account of the S. Carlos and S. Antonio expedition along the coasts of Northern California is excessively rare. Junipero Serrá was with the expedition. This printed piece and the annexed MS. sobre las nuevas Misiones, form the first account of the Spanish settlements in Upper California.

1956 DOCUMENTOS para la Historia Eclesiastica y civil de la NUEVA VISCAYA, 3 vols. folio, neatly written MS. containing altogether over 2000 pp., calf, gilt back (Mexico, 1846-50) 3 3 0

This valuable collection consists of copies, from unpublished documents by Manuel de la Vega and others in the last century, made for the late Jose de Ramirez. A portion of the contents has since been printed in the Documentos para la Historia de Mexico.

This collection fetched £7. 15*s* at the Ramirez sale.

1957 OPUSCULOS VARIOS: MS. in folio, 305 leaves, containing a collection of miscellaneous documents, some originals and some transcripts (a few printed), ranging over different epochs, but relating mostly to the last and present century, hf. calf, from the Ramirez library

Sec. XVIII-XIX 14 0 0

The high official positions which the late Don J. F. Ramirez occupied at different times, as a member of the several Cabinets and also of the Supreme Court of Mexico, afforded him ample means of obtaining the documents which form this interesting collection, in which an immense amount of historical and statistical information is contained. It includes thirty interesting autograph letters from political personages and diplomatic agents in Europe—such as Pascasio, Echeverria, Arrangoiz, Valdivielso, Oseguera, Jose Maria Luis Mora, Zavala, Comonfort, Mariano Rivera, and others—which are interesting for the modern history of Mexico. It also comprises a MS. copy of Tapia Zenteno's "Noticia de la lengua Huasteca" on 41 leaves.

1958 COLECCION DE DOCUMENTOS para la HISTORIA DE MEXICO, publicada por Joaquin Garcia ICAZBALCETA, 2 vols. Mexico, 1858-66—HISTORIA ECLESIASTICA INDIANA, obra escrita á fines del Siglo XVI por Geronimo de MENDIETA, 2 vols. (1870)—together 4 vols. royal 4to. LARGE AND FINE PAPER, hf. morocco 1858-70 10 10

One of the most valuable modern publications on the Discovery and Colonization of America, and the condition of the Indian peoples at the time of the Conquest of Mexico. The documents had been unpublished and the first two volumes have nearly all been printed by the personal labour of the Editor. Only 12 copies of the former of these handsome books, and 26 of the latter, were printed on Large Paper.

1959 DURAN (Antonio) Cercos de Mocambiqve defendidos por Don Estevan de Ataide, sm. 4to. some leaves mended and made up; vellum Madrid, 1633 2 [illegible]

Records of Dutch attacks upon the Portuguese settlements.

1960 DURAN (Fray Diego) Historia de las Indias de Nueva-España y islas de Tierra-Firme, la publica con notas e ilustraciones Jose F. Ramirez (y Gumesindo Mendoza), 2 vols. of text, and 1 vol. of Atlas, containing 66 coloured plates of Mexican picture-history, facsimiled from the original MS.; together 3 vols. roy. 4to. sd. Mexico, 1867-80 6 6

The author of the three important treatises which constitute this work was born in Mexico in 1538, son of a Spanish father and a Mexican mother. The publication, commenced by Ramirez, was interrupted after the appearance of Vol. I, by the fall of Maximilian, and was only resumed and completed several years later.

From the nature of the composition, and the writer's exceptional possession of sources of information, closed to others,—Fray Diego Duran's history must take a foremost place among books of its kind. It is an indispensable companion to Sahagun, Torquemada, and Ixtlilxochitl.

	There is nothing in any of the early books on America to compare with Enciso's narrative of his colloquy with some chiefs in Tierra Firme, from whom he claimed the possession of their lands as having been bestowed by the Pope upon the King of Spain. They were not satisfied with the argument, saying that the Pope must have been drunk when he gave away what did not belong to him, and the King must have been an idiot to accept such a gift. So they fought Enciso and killed a couple of men, but the Spaniards triumphed.

The author was one of the followers of the great Hurtado de Mendoza, and was an actor in, as well as an eye-witness of, many of the events recorded in his work.

The first work upon the New World, in which the subject was treated by the pen of an able writer. Although published by order of the Emperor, it quickly became so scarce that we must suppose there was an intentional suppression on the part of the authorities, as soon as it was found that the book afforded too much information to the rivals of Spain.

It consists of 54 leaves, all foliated except the title and the last two leaves. In his postscript, Oviedo states that his larger history was already written and lying in MS. in San Domingo; and that when he returned thither, he would copy it out fairly for transmission to the Emperor.

2012 GAZETAS DE MEXICO, compendio de Noticias de Nueva España desde principios del año de 1784 hasta Diciembre de 1817
33 vols. sm. 4to. bd. Mexico, 1784-1817 7 10

Although there are occasional imperfections caused by the tearing of leaves and the occurrence of wormholes, this is an unbroken set of all the volumes published from the beginning in 1784 down to the middle of 1817. In 1810 the title was changed to Gazeta del Gobierno de Mexico. From 1784 to 1793, there were 5 vols. produced, at the rate of a volume for every two years. 1794 and 1795 had a volume for each year. In 1796-1805, five volumes came out, at the old rate of production. 1806, 1807, 1811, had one volume for each year. During 1808, 1809, 1810, 1812-17 there were two volumes printed for each year.
Such a set as this is of extreme rarity and of great value.

The first 46 pp. are all about India, the Mogul Empire, and the English factories. He then describes his wanderings in Persia, Turkey in Asia, Syria, and his home voyage along the Mediterranean.

An important book, written as the report of a Commission between 1735 and 1740 for the information of the Home government concerning the abuses of Spanish rule in Peru. It was kept secret as a State paper, and remained fruitless because the authorities at Madrid found the task of reformation too vast for their abilities ; and it was not till the colonies had become separated from the mother-country that a foreigner obtained the chance of seeing and publishing the Memorias Secretas.

Most of the copies were circulated in America, and eagerly read.

W. Lucas

The work is illustrated with numerous ornamental blocks of Indians, together with portraits of Columbus, Charles V, and Las Casas, re-engraved or adapted from sources as nearly contemporary as possible.

The interest of these rare pieces lies in the circumstance that they foreshadow the future severance between Spain and her colony, and may be taken to exhibit a parallel to the similar sources of disagreement which arose between New England and Old England thirty years or so afterwards.

2 vols. in 1, sm. folio, Editio Princeps, with the large woodcut MAP OF THE WORLD occupying the two open pages of a single sheet; a very large and fine copy in a seventeenth-century hf. morocco binding Zaragoza, 1552-53 85 0 0

In the map the design is continued from one side of the world to the other by the north, just as though the sheet were to be placed upon a globe, and fall in equal divisions from the Arctic Pole. Thus the extreme North-west of America joins the extreme North-east of Asia, and the extreme North-west of Europe is attached to the extreme North-east of America. The conception is a remarkably bold one, and better calculated (notwithstanding the natural errors of the Arctic portion) to give a true idea of the world than the right and left double-hemisphere maps of other cartographers.

This is a great historical work, indispensable to the student of Spanish affairs in America after the conquest, notwithstanding the charges made by Bernal Diaz against Gomara of occasional inaccuracy.

The dedication to Charles V begins with these remarkable words: "The greatest event which has happened since the creation of the world (leaving aside the incarnation and death of Him who created it) is the discovery of the Indies."

Gomara prefixes a curious address to intending translators, warning them to be accurate and to measure the full significance of the pregnant Spanish phrases, also to pay special attention to proper names. He further declares that he is writing the book in Latin, so that the translators may take no trouble in that language. His Latin version has never appeared.

THE TWO WOODCUT LEAVES PRECEDING THE TEXT, CONTAINING MAPS, ONE OF THE WESTERN AND THE OTHER OF THE EASTERN HEMISPHERE, SEEM TO HAVE SURVIVED ONLY IN FOUR OR FIVE COPIES, yet the book is imperfect without them; and the author in his address "a los Impresores," by whom he meant future reprinters of his work, begged them to omit nothing which he had taken care to insert in his original edition, maiormente las tablas de la tierra. It was this warning which induced Bellero in Antwerp to issue a small Traça dela Tierra with his edition of 1554, but this is also a rare map now. The difference between Bellero's map and Gomara's proves that the Spanish Government had effectually suppressed the latter, and that the Antwerp publisher was obliged to have a new design prepared, which is in some respects decidedly inferior to the original in geographical accuracy.

In the same volume, there is bound up at the end the rare first edition of Cieça's Chronica del Peru, Parte Primera, 1553; but as its two ultimate leaves are torn and defective, the value of the Cieça is not considered in the price of the Gomara.

The "Prologo del Interprete" and the "Introductoria" both show that Maestre Rodrigo was in advance of many of his contemporaries. In the former he mentions the various translations of Marco Polo and alludes to the work of exploration being carried on in the West, South, and East, by Spanish and Portuguese seamen. The Introduction is a piece of over seven columns of print and well worthy of careful reading. His object is to inveigh against the false notions and deductions flowing from the improper use of the word "Indies" as applied to the islands discovered by Columbus and others in the Western Ocean, and a good deal of curious information is incidentally thrown in. One stray piece of gossip is not without humourous interest; it was customary to call negroes Juan Blanco, and negresses Margarita. As the book was first printed at Seville in 1503, it is an earlier addition to the Bibliotheca Americana than Mr. Harrisse has made it. He puts it down, at second hand, under 1529.

Small folio, gothic letter, with numerous diagrams and a full-page map of the "Nvevo Mvndo"; vellum binding Valladolid, 1545 — 20 0 0

EXTREMELY RARE FIRST EDITION. The map represents a flat surface, extending from 65 degrees North to 18 degrees South Latitude, and from the West Coast of Mexico to the Gulf of Guinea in Longitude. This is not only a rare book, but it has the advantage of the first production of this map, which was repeated in Martin Cortes' treatise on the same subject. The work of Cortes is, however, still rarer, and its text is more important than that of Medina.

085 MEMORIAS DE LOS VIREYES que han gobernado el PERU, durante el tiempo del Coloniaje Español, 6 vols. large 4to. map and plates, cloth Lima, 1859 — 2 10 0

Very few copies of this great national work have reached Europe. It is a collection of the Relations made by the Viceroys (in obedience to a wise mandate of the crown) in which each outgoing governor informed his successor of the nature and duties of his post, of the distribution of offices and presidencies, of the privileges of the natives, their hereditary customs and character—in short, statistics of everything that could be needed.

Number 303 in Vol. IX is not in this set.

The above interesting collection of Periodical Writings is of the greatest rarity. Thorpe, in one of his Catalogues, states that a gentleman had assured him he could meet with but one copy in his travels through Spain, for which he was asked upwards of £30.

After four preliminary leaves (General Title, two leaves of introduction, and title of Explanations) the Office of the Mass and a liturgical commentary follow on pp. 1-137. The Horæ Minores occupy pp. 1-36 of a new pagination; and the Commune Sanctorum pp. 37-198. The first plate represents the fire-ordeal in which the Mozarabic Liturgy conquered the Roman, and faces page 1 of the Missa part. The third plate represents the combat-ordeal, and faces p. 1 of the Horæ. The second plate is a Crucifixion facing p. 53 of the Missa. All three are signed by the engraver, "Josephus Nava Angelopoli." The title on the fourth preliminary leaf referred to above is "Explanationes Universæ Apologiæ et Dilucidationes . . elaboratae . . fuerunt ab Illmo. D. D. Francisco Antonio Lorenzana . . Archiepiscopo Mexicano . . operam adjunxit . . Franciscus Fabian et Fuero . ." Both prelates had been previously dignitaries of the Cathedral at Toledo.

Some of the lines of Neum-music and accompanying text are given in facsimile of the Toledo MS.

EXCESSIVELY RARE; so rare, indeed, that the translator of the book for the Hakluyt Society knew of no other copy than the one in the British Museum (Grenville library), from which a transcript had to be made for his use.

Salvá had a copy in which the first of the six preliminary leaves was an engraved title, not, as here, a letterpress title. There can be no question that the letterpress title is the original one. It contains the names of the printer and publisher which did not appear on the engraved title of the Salvá copy.

2104 MOTA PADILLA (Don Mathias de la) Conquista de el Reyno de la nueva Galicia en la America Septentrional, fundacion de su capital ciudad de Goadalaxara, sus progresos militares y politicos, y breve descripion de los Reynos de la Nueva Vizcaya, Nueva Toledo o Nayarit. . . The oldest and best MS. of the work now existing, apparently almost contemporary with the author's MS. The text has been printed more than once since the first edition in 1855, but it still requires to be critically edited, according to the admission of Ycazbalceta, who published an edition, in 1870, for the Geographical Society of Mexico.

This extremely rare treatise was issued at the same time as the Pomponius Mela of Salamanca, 1498, in order to serve as an introduction to that and to other ancient cosmographical books—Strabo, Pliny, Mela, Ptolemy, Solinus, and others, as indicated in the verses on the title page. On the second leaf, Nebrija alludes to the newly discovered lands in the west, and says, "Such is the daring spirit of the men of our time, that they will soon bring us a true description of that land, both of the islands, and of the continent, of a great part of the sea-coast whereof the sailors have given us an account; that part chiefly which lies opposite to the newly discovered islands (Hispana, Isabela, and the others adjacent to them)."

22 [ORTEGA (Padre José)] APOSTOLICOS AFANES de la Compañia de Jesus escritos por un padre de la misma sagrada religion de su provincia de Mexico, sm. 4to. fine copy in vellum Barcelona, 1754 7 7 0
EXCESSIVELY RARE, and of considerable importance to the Californians. Some passages on p. 220 make it appear that the writer was identical with the Jesuit Jose Ortega, who published a Cora Dictionary at Mexico in 1732; but the prologue shows that he incorporated in a continuous narrative the reports of others besides himself. He laboured for thirty years in Lower California, and in the regions between the Colorado and the Gila rivers; and on page 242 we learn that he had the use of the MS. papers of Eusebio Kino, in which "estan coordenados sus viajes, empressas, y descubrimientos." The author enlarges upon purely historical events and anthropological facts to a greater degree than most ecclesiastical writers.

Small folio, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford [Puebla, about 1650] 4 4

This was apparently printed privately in support of the rights of the secular Clergy as against the grasping encroachments of the Frayles and the Padres. Palafox had attempted to make things right in 1640, and the Home government was in agreement with him, but the religious orders always contrived to arrest the hand of authority.

This is not merely a religious biography, but a most interesting account of the Travels of this zealous Missionary and his companions in Mexico and California.

Serra was born in the Isle of Mallorca, in 1713. After visiting Mexico he went to California in 1771 and founded several Missions there, but finally returned to Mexico, where he died in 1789. Palou succeeded Serra in the Presidency of the Californian Missions.

Only a hundred copies were printed of this valuable work. It was the first production of the California Historical Society. The MS. had been prepared for publication in 1792, but remained unprinted till 1874.

This is the EXTREMELY RARE Body of Laws relating to the Indies, known as PUGA'S CEDULARIO (being collected by Vasco de Puga, Oydor of the Royal Audience of the Indies), and is the first attempt at a "Recopilacion" or American Code. Father Fischer's copy, which was wormed and wanted the title, sold in 1869 for £23. All the copies hitherto known (except the above two) have the same defect, even that in the British Museum. It was the calf copy above described from which Icazbalceta obtained his facsimile of the title.

2210 ARENAS. VOCABVLARIO MANVAL de las Lengvas Castellana y Mexicana . . . Compuesto por Pedro dè Arenas, sm. 8vo. (12mo.) First Edition, calf En Mexico: En la emprenta de Henrico Martinez [1611] 14 0 0
PERFECT AND EXCESSIVELY RARE. Probably no more than two or three copies are extant, and one of them, at least, seems to have been imperfect.
COLLATION: 8 preliminary leaves, including the title; pp. 1-108; a blank leaf; pp. 109-183 (with many faults of pagination, the last page being really 174). By signatures, the book is collated thus: preliminaries, 8 leaves; A-L in eights.
The only correct bibliography of this little volume is given by Mr. Field (Indian Bibliography) with the mistake however of describing it as small 4to. instead of small 8vo. In Brunet's continuation Mr. Field's description is copied and the error emphasized.
In the same volume there is, bound up with the Arenas, "Summa . Novi Testamenti distichis . . comprehensa . . Oxoniæ, 1586."

212 CAMINO DEL CIELO, en Mexicano, sm. 4to. clearly written MS., bd. Mexico, circ. 1620 10 10 0

"Although this MS. has the title of 'Camino del Cielo,' after a most diligent comparison with the printed book of Father Leon which has that title, we have been unable to discover any relation between the one and the other. The contents of this volume can easily be recognized and may be divided into two parts:

I. An extensive CONFESSARIO, consisting of thirty-four leaves, including six blank.

II. A collection of Sermons and religious instructions, occupying one hundred and ninety leaves, of which sixteen are blank.

On one of the blank leaves we read 'al Pe. Oracio Carochi,' which seems to intimate that the MS. belonged to him."

This MS. fetched £15. 15*s* at the Ramirez sale.

213 CAROCHI (Horacio) COMPENDIO DEL ARTE de la LENGUA MEXICANA . . dispuesto con brevedad, claridad, y propriedad por el P. Ignacio de Paredes, small 4to. with frontispiece; vellum Mexico, en la Impr. de la Bibliotheca Mexicana, 1759 2 0 0

A copy of this work sold, not many years since, for £17 by public auction.

Leclerc describes the frontispiece representing the triumph of Loyola, but it does not really belong to the book. It was a plate which the Jesuits of the time inserted in copies of several different books at will.

214 JUAN BAPTISTA. Confessionario en lengva Mexicana y Castellana. Con muchas aduertencias muy necessarias para los Confessores. Compuesto por el Padre Fray Ioan Baptista . . 12mo. wanting the eighth preliminary leaf, vellum En Sanctiago Tlatilulco, Por Melchior Ocharte, Año de. 1599 7 7 0

EXTREMELY RARE. Collation: 8 preliminary unnumbered leaves (one absent); 112 numbered leaves; and Errata, 2 leaves. The heading of the Errata is printed in italics. The Ramirez copy contained in addition another Errata, with the heading printed in Roman letters, but it is doubtful whether both lists belong to this edition.

217 MANUSCRITOS EN MEXICANO. A volume in folio, containing fourteen original pieces in MS. and three printed ones; the MSS. occupying two hundred and six leaves; hf. bd. 1580-1847 18 0 0

AN INTERESTING and VALUABLE COLLECTION chiefly of official papers in cases of legal process, etc., but including also three Miracle-Plays (Las Almas y las Albacéas, El Nacimiento de Ysaac; S. Elena y la Santa Cruz) of the seventeenth century, in Mexican with Spanish translations. One document of remarkable interest is a beautifully written Mexican letter or protest addressed by the notables of Mexico, Tezcuco, etc. to Philip II. The blank space above the text on p. 1 is filled with a long account by one of the monks at whose request it had been prepared for transmission to the King, after passing through the hands of Miguel Navarro, Geronimo Mendieta, and Alonso de Molina. It failed to reach the monarch, and the kindly monk says bitterly "Bien se colige de aqui como estos nuestros hijos son inayudables." A modern Spanish translation is added. There are further the two following printed documents which we have not seen mentioned by any bibliographer.

The first is—MOTA. Alabado en Mexicano, qve contiene los principales Misterios de nuestra Sante Fe, compuesto por el Br. Dn. Jose de la Mota, Cura . . . de Tepecoacuilco . . . reimpresso en Mexico por Zuniga, 1809. 2 leaves in 8vo.

The other is a Proclamation in Mexican and Spanish, signed F. S. Tepca, dated Toluca, Sept. 25, 1847, in which he calls upon the Indians to rise against the North American invader: a single sheet broadside. "Nosotros estamos destinados á ser presa del infernal Yanquee."

2218 MAXIMO PAQUIL TITIE . . . A Religious Tract by an anonymous author, sm. 4to. Manuscript in Nahuatl, the text surrounded with curious painted Borders, evidently the work of a native artist, 19 leaves Mexico, about 1650 5 5 0

2219 MIJANGOS (Juan de) [Espejo Divino en lengua Mexicana], sm. 4to. without the preliminary leaves, and the 2 leaves of Index; vellum, the Ramirez copy Mexico, Davalos, 1607 4 4 0

VERY RARE. The Fischer copy is apparently the only other copy—and that a bad one, wanting the two leaves of Index—which has hitherto turned up in the London market. None of the bibliographers has mentioned the book, except Brunet's continuator, and he, having only seen the Fischer copy, gives an imperfect description.

Three old Mexican prints are inserted loosely. One is "V. F. de la Milagrosa Imagen de Jesus Nasarreno . . Antho d Castro sculpebat"; another the Ascension of a Franciscan Saint "Sylveiro ft."; the third a tonsured boy, naked amid the flames (of devotion?) praying before a crucifix "Joseph Amador." They are all three of the seventeenth century and of Mexican execution.

EXCESSIVELY RARE, perfect or imperfect. The value of this book as a monument of philology is universally recognized; it is the first printed grammar of the Aztec tongue. I have sold a copy, with the title in facsimile, for £40, and a perfect one for £52. 10*s*.

In Mexican, with Spanish and Latin passages intercalated throughout for the purpose of explaining the more difficult phrases.

COLLATION: title and preliminary matter, 23 leaves; text pp. 1-380 and I-XC. A frontispiece containing a portrait of Loyola is sometimes added in this as well as in other Jesuit books produced in Mexico at the same period, but it does not really belong to the book.

2225 PEÑAFIEL (Antonio) Nombres geograficos de Mexico: Catalogo Alfabetico de los Nombres de Lugar pertenecientes al Idioma Nahuatl; Estudio Jeroglifico de la "Matricula de los Tributos" del codice Mendocino; 2 parts in 1 vol. large 4to. 264 pp. of text, with about 700 woodcut figures of hieroglyphic place-names; and Atlas of 39 plates containing 462 coloured figures; hf. morocco, gilt top, uncut Mexico, 1885 1 5 0

230 SAHAGUN (Bernardino de) Sermones en Mexicano, folio, neatly written, Original Manuscript on paper made by the Indians from the Agave, such as they used before the discovery of their country by the Spaniards, 98 leaves, bd. from the Ramirez collection, in red morocco case Mexico, 1540 200 0 0

On the first page it has the following title in the handwriting of Father Sahagun, the lower half of which is torn away:—

"Siguense unos sermones de dominicas y de sanctos en lengua Mexicana: no trazudidos de sermonario alguno sino compuestos nuevamente a la medida de la capacidad de los Indios: breves en materia y en lenguage congruo venusto y llano facil de entender para todos los que le oyeren altos y baxos principales y macegolas, hombres y mugeres. Compusieronse el año de 1540; anse comenzado a corregir y añadir este ano de 1563, en este mes de Julio infra octavam Visitationis. . . . fray bnardio. de Sahagun." Some pages are absent at the beginning, and a few pages further on we meet with another note in the handwriting of Father Sahagun:—"Siguense unos sermones breves on la lengua Mexicana: fray bnardio. de Sahagun." It should be remarked here that the imperfections, whatever they may be, are not of recent origin; the book seems to be now precisely as it was when Sahagun began to revise it and wrote the headings I now quote.

On folio 91, the dominical sermons conclude with another note in Mexican in Father Sahagun's handwriting, and signed by him; then follows a blank leaf, and on the following commences a "Sanctoral" on six leaves, the end wanting. This MS. is undoubtedly one of the most curious and interesting volumes in the Mexican language ever offered for sale. In his knowledge of the Aztec language and literature, Sahagun has probably never had an equal. The historical work which he wrote concerning the Mexican empire, and which has been published by Bustamente, brought down upon him the abuse of his fellows, both lay and clerical, for aiding, as they said, to perpetuate the idolatry of the nation.

231 SAHAGUN. Exercicios quotidianos en lengua Mexicana, sm. 4to. MS. plainly written, 86 pp., sd. Mexico, 1574 (—1590) 9 9 0

The MS. begins thus:—"Comienza un exercicio en lengua Mexicana, sacado del sancto Evangelio y distribuido por todos los dias de la semana contiene meditaciones devotas muy provechosas para cualquier xpiano que se quiere llegar a Dios." At the end, there is the inscription: "Este exercicio halle entre los yndios, no se quien se le dio; tenia muchas faltas e incongruidades. Mas con verdad se puede dezir que se hizo de nuevo que no que se emendo. Este año de 1574, fray Bernardino de Sahagun."

The MS. is in perfect preservation, and the handwriting is clear and legible—in fact, too boldly written to be the autograph of Sahagun. This is probably identical with the single MS. of the work which is mentioned by Beristain as being in his time in the College of St. Gregory at Mexico, and which he seems to have considered the original, just as Ramirez believed this to be.

Mexico: Aztec—Otomi.

2232 SAHAGUN. NICAN VNPEOA YNNEMACHTILIZTLATOLLI . . . : ynitoca Virtudes Theologales . . Oquichuih fray Bernardo de Sahagum, 2 parts in 1 vol. folio, ORIGINAL MS. in the handwriting of Sahagun; 27 ll., wanting end, probably one leaf only, as the author speaks of twenty-six additions, and the MS. breaks off treating on the 24th; calf Mexico, 1579 20 0 0

On the verso of the 16th leaf is the signature of Father Sahagun.

On the verso of the 31st leaf the original treatise concludes, and on the following commence the twenty-six additions on 13 leaves. On the verso of the title-page to the additions is a "Prologo" in Spanish, from which it appears that Father Sahagun made the last corrections and additions to this work in 1579.

Two preliminary leaves including title, and 53 leaves numbered 1-54 (36 being skipped).

2234*——— the same, sm. 4to. fine copy in vellum 1673 4 15 0

VERY RARE. The book ends with the fourth leaf of signature N; and is followed by "Instruccion breve para administrar los Santos Sacramentos, en Mexicano y Castellano," on eight leaves, marked with signatures O, P.

Huasteca:

2235 TAPIA ZENTENO (Carlos de) Paradigma Apologetico . . . Noticia de la Huasteca . . . Descripcion de su pais y demostracion evidente de la vanidad de el horror que se le tiene, sm. 4to. clean MS., 16 preliminary leaves of description, followed by the Grammar which consists of 145 pp.. hf. bd. Mexico, about 1746 5 0 0

The Huasteca or Cuexteca language belongs to the Maya class, and is spoken in Tamaulipas and Vera Cruz.

The above preliminary discourse and geographical description were omitted when the book was printed in 1767, to avoid, as the author said, an unnecessary expansion of the volume.

Maya:

One of the most important of the old Guatemalan MSS. that are still extant.

Opata:

2237 LOMBARDO (Natal) Arte de la lengua Teguima llamada vulgarmente Opata, sm. 4to. the autograph MS. on paper, 470 pp.; hf. bd. (Sonora, about 1690) 7 10 0

This Grammar, the only one of the Opata language which was ever written, was printed in 1702 at Mexico, but the copies of the printed edition are excessively rare.

2238 AGUIRRE (Manuel) Doctrina Christiana, y Platicas doctrinales, traducidas en lengua Opata, sm. 4to. fine copy in limp vellum Mexico, 1765 7 7 0

A very rare book, unmentioned in the special bibliographies. The language to which it refers is the chief Indian speech of Sonora, and is also used on the frontiers of New Mexico.

Otomi:

2239 EXAMEN critico de la Gramatica Otomi de Neve y Molina; Discurso critico de la Doctrina Otomi, sm. 4to. original MS., 140 pp., sd. Mexico, about 1770 4 0 0

Both works by a single anonymous writer, who tells us, however, that he was Otomi by birth, and by forty years of continual study had made himself a perfect master of this, the most difficult of all American languages.

Mexico: Otomi—Tarasca.

2240 GAONA (Juan) Colloqvios de la paz y tranquilidad christiana. Interlocutores: Un Religioso y un Collegial [traduzidos en lengua Othomi] —[Doctrina Christiana y Catechismo en lengua Otomi]—2 vols. in 1, 12mo. finely written MS., 458 pp., in the original stamped binding Vera Cruz, about 1600 — 14 0 0

Both these works are in the OTOMI LANGUAGE, written about the end of the sixteenth century, in a small, clear, and beautiful handwriting, with titles and initials in red. The first work is translated from Gaona's Nahuatl text printed at Mexico in 1582; the second is anonymous, but may be a translation from some well-known work. The value and interest of this little volume, from a linguistic point of view, are very great.

2241 GUADALUPE RAMIREZ (Antonio de) Breve Compendio de todo lo quo debe saber el Christiano . . . dispuesto en lengua Othomi (y Castellana), sm. 4to. the Otomi words printed with a mixture of characters specially invented for this work; fine copy in vellum Mexico, 1785 — 1 16 0

The Epitome of this Compendio, printed on a broadsheet for school use, is sometimes found folded at the end of the volume, but does not belong to it.

2242 LOPEZ YEPES (Joaquin) Catecismo y Declaracion de la Doctrina Cristiana en lengua Otomi, con un Vocabulario del mismo idioma, sm. 4to. hf. bd. Mexico, 1826 — 1 2 0

2243 NEVE Y MOLINA (LUIS DE) REGLAS DE ORTHOGRAPHIA, DICCIONARIO, Y ARTE DEL IDIOMA OTHOMI, 12mo. with an engraved table of errata, vellum Mexico, 1767 — 1 4 0

Leclerc describes a frontispiece which is not in this copy, and which possibly does not belong to it. A much more important item is the engraved list of Errata, which is probably missing in nearly every copy.

2244 VOCABULARIO OTOMI, folio, MS., over 700 pp., containing a copious Spanish-Otomi Dictionary, hf. bd. [ca. 1800] — 10 0 0

Pimentel, who examined this MS., asserted that the language was Mazahua (there being no specification in the book itself of the speech it refers to), and it was so considered until Icazbalceta declared his belief that it was Otomi, and a comparison of the text of the Lord's Prayer, which is given by Bancroft in both those tongues, makes it almost indisputable that the vocabulary here is Otomi, not Mazahua. Its interest and value are in any case very great. The state and condition of the MS. leave nothing to desire. We have been unable to discover anything respecting the author.

Speaking of etymological affinities Prescott (Conquest of Mexico) says, "a remarkable exception is found in the OTHOMI or OTOMIE language, which covers a wider territory than any other but the Mexican, in New Spain; and which, both in its monosyllabic composition, so different from those around it, and in its vocabulary, shows a very singular affinity to the Chinese. . . . . It stands alone among the idioms of the New World, as the Basque—the solitary wreck, perhaps, of a primitive age—exists among those of the Old."

Tarasca:

2245 BASALENQUE (P. F. Diego) Arte del Idioma Tarasco, 1714; reimpreso, 4to. sd. Mexico, 1886 — 1 1 0

The Maximilian copy, wanting title and four other leaves, sold for £5. 10*s* in 1869; the Andrade copy in the same year fetched 51 thalers.

ANONYMOUS MS. thus divided:—Grammar, pp. 1-96; Numbers and other words, 97-120; Administration of the Sacraments, 120-132; Confessionario, 132-170; Conversational phrases in the dialect "del Valle," 170-198; Vocabulary and verbs, 199-292; Confessionario in the dialect of Santa Maria Petapa, 293-296.

There is no indication of the name of the author, nor of the time at which it was written; although from the fact that he sometimes refers to Aguero, its date must be posterior to 1666.

Rather than a vocabulary it is a collection of conversational expressions and phrases. On the back of the title we find the words "Manual de la lengua Castellana y Zapoteca. Reboltizo de lengua Zapoteca i Castellana de Juo. Martin Señor de Latopan." Juan Martin may therefore be the author's name.

254 [HOLGUIN (Diego Gonzalez)] Grammatica y Vocabolario en la lengva general del Perv, llamada Quichua, y en la lengua Española. El mas copioso y elegante que hasta agora se ha impresso. 12mo. Original Edition; title mended, and 5 leaves missing; cut down; calf, perhaps unique Sevilla, Clemente Hidalgo, 1603 14 0 0

The missing leaves are, the first preliminary leaf that follows the title, and signatures Dd3, Dd6, L7 and M3. The Vocabulary contains both Quichua-Spanish and Spanish-Quichua alphabets. I have never seen another copy.

HITHERTO UNKNOWN. There is a hint in Ludewig of the existence of an edition of Torres Rubio, printed at Seville in 1603: he had no doubt heard of the preceding anonymous book and supposed it to be a Torres Rubio. This work has been in fact known only through the edition of Lima, 1614, which is always described under the name of the printer, Francisco del Canto, and supposed to be his own production. From a comparison with the larger book, which bears Holguin's name, and from some words in the latter which make reference to a previous essay,—we are enabled to conclude that the present Grammatica y Vocabulario, 1603, is simply the unrecognized first edition of the large work printed and published by Del Canto in 1607-8, with Holguin's authorship revealed on the title-pages.

[There is of course a possibility that the work of 1603 may be a modified edition of the Arte y Vocabulario of Domingo de San Tomas, published in 1560, but there are several reasons against it.]

255 [HOLGUIN] Arte y Vocabvlario en la lengva general del Perv llamada Quichua, y en la lengua Española. El mas copioso y elegante, que hasta agora se ha impresso, 12mo. somewhat water-stained, in the original limp vellum En los Reyes (i.e. Lima) Francisco del Canto 1614 12 12 0

A slightly altered reprint of the Seville book of 1603. The preface "al Letor" is signed by Francisco del Canto, and contains the words, "He hecho est Vocabulario", which have hitherto been taken as sufficient warrant for assigning the authorship of the work to him. Although he had already in 1607-8 printed Holguin's quarto Dictionary and Grammar, he reprinted this original anonymous work of Holguin in 1614 as a cheaper and handier work for common use, but, notwithstanding the words "he hecho," he can hardly have been ignorant of its true authorship.

The title-page makes it clear that a smaller edition had preceded it, in the words: "en que salen a luz de nuevo las cosas que faltavan en el Vocabulario." Furthermore the Prologo al Lector in the Arte contains these words: "esta arte que va en dos libros junta con las addiciones que van en otros dos, tienen

In the earlier part of the Prologo referred to, he states that this Arte was composed for the purpose of forming preachers, and that, for the simpler object of enabling priests to receive confessions in the native tongue, there already existed one (esa ya la habia).

2290 ——— the same, Large Vellum Paper, a magnificent copy in whole maroon morocco super extra, joints, gilt edges, by Zaehnsdorf 1855-64 20 0 0

One of the most magnificent books on the Art-Monuments of Spain, and probably superior to any other in the accuracy and learning of its author. The series of illustrations was selected from works of art which were excellent by reason of their historical character or the beauty of their execution. Only 275 copies were printed, of which about 150 were absorbed by subscribers among the aristocracy of Spain. The book may therefore be regarded as virtually unpublished, and as likely before long to become a costly rarity.

"His great work, the 'Iconografía Española,' published in 1853 and 1864, contains seventy-four 'portraits, statues, and mausoleums,' dating 'from the eleventh to the seventeenth centuries.' Not only the original drawings, but the text in Spanish and French, were his own work. Amongst the gems of this collection may be named the bas-reliefs of Charles V and his Empress, attributed by Cean Bermudez to Pompeo Leoni, and now in the Museum at Madrid; portraits of Philip II when young, and in his old age; the unhappy Don Carlos, Don Juan de Austria, Philip's wives, and the famous 'one-eyed' Princess of Eboli. That of Hernan Cortés is exquisitely finished."—Athenæum, April 10th, 1890.

Of the old masters, there are 29 specimens of Velasquez, 5 of Jose Ribera, 4 of Murillo; Coello, Tristan, Mazo, March, Pereda, and Zurbaran, are represented in single pieces; there are 26 by Goya. Amongst the modern, there are Martinez Espinosa, with 16 examples, Francisco Torras with 21, and Galvan, Fortuny, Rosales, and others. From the unfinished condition of the third volume, and the absence of a list of the plates which that volume should contain, it seems likely that the work was suspended. Such as it is, the collection is a splendid achievement of Spanish Art. In the copy above described, beyond the number of 36 plates (1-32, and 4 unnumbered) in Vol. III, three engraver's-proofs of three of the etchings are added, raising the number to 39.

This superb series of plates was never completed upon any settled plan so as to form a regular Gallery, but it was to all intents and purposes the first Madrid Gallery. Some of the plates were engraved in Rome and Paris, probably as far back as 1770, but all the coppers were done for the King of Spain and kept in the Calcografía de la Ymprenta Real, in which institution they were printed and issued as separate prints. Most of the engravers' work was done in Madrid between 1792 and 1799, but it still went on occasionally till 1858. The greater ease and rapidity with which Madrazo had lithographed the Royal collection put an end to the fine but tedious process of copper-engraving.

2326 YCIAR (Juan de) Recopilacion subtilissima: intitulada Orthographia practica, por la qual se enseña a escreuir perfectamente . . . hecho por Iuã de Yciar . . . cortado por Iuan de Vingles, sm. 4to. First Edition, woodcut portrait and beautiful examples of Calligraphy and Ornament engraved on wood, three leaves missing, vellum
Caragoça, B. de Nagera, 1548 12 0 0

So excessively rare that it was unknown, even by hearsay, to Salvá, who, when citing at second hand the edition of 1550, said that that was probably the first edition of the work. COLLATION: A 2 leaves; B-I in eight leaves each. The missing leaves are G 1, G 5, G 7, and there is a slight defect in D 5. Signature H ends with the seventh leaf, which is the last of the Calligraphic specimens, and was followed by a blank leaf.

2328 ——— very fine copy in blue morocco super extra, the sides tooled in gold on a Grolier pattern, lined (doublé) with red morocco, by Chambolle-Duru, Marius Michel doreur, the Seillière arms on the sides 1550 40 0 0

An exquisite volume, inside and outside. Besides being one of the most beautiful books ever produced in the department of ornamental art applied to calligraphy, it is also perhaps the very rarest when perfect. The following is a collation of this edition.—Title, with engraved intitulation (it is letterpress in the first edition) and engraved borders; dedication, 3 leaves, the author's portrait occupying the reverse of the third leaf; text, 8 leaves of letterpress framed within woodcut borders; Siguense las Tablas, letterpress intitulation within fine woodcut designs (not in first edition); 16 pp. of engraved examples; the seventeenth page "Practica del Alphabeto cancilleresco" intitulation within border; 11 pp. of specimens; "Trata de letras antiguas," 2 pp. of text within borders; 14 pp. of specimens; 2 pp. letterpress "Trata de letra Aragonesa" within borders; 12 pp. of specimens; 1 page of text "Trata . . de las Cifras"; 3 pp. of Ciphers; 2 pp. of letterpress "Trata de la Letra Gotica"; 9 pp. of specimens; "Trata de . . cosas necessarias a un escriptor," 3 pp. of letterpress; 19 pp. of specimens; 4 pp. letterpress "de la Letra gruessa"; 10 pp. of specimens; 18 pp. of letterpress, within woodcut borders; 1 leaf with colophon and printer's mark.—The engraved borders to the letterpress are all added in this edition; as well, also, as several of the engraved pages, which bear date 1550. The letterpress also is augmented in this edition, but on the other hand a few of the recipes for varnish, etc. are omitted. The inscription round the author's portrait shows that he was born in 1528.

Caragoça, Miguel de Suelves, 1564 9 0 0

COLLATION: A 4 leaves, B 10 leaves; C-G eight leaves each; H 4 leaves. In this copy B 1 is missing (which corresponds to C 1 in the 1550 edition) for which a duplicate of D 4 is inserted. At the end there are added, from the 1550 edition, 14 leaves, chiefly of text, concerning the materials to be used in writing.

The calligrapher, Juan de Yciar, of Biscay, was ably seconded and assisted by the engraver, Jean de Vingles, a Frenchman; and their united labour achieved a masterpiece of fine decoration. Vingles' initials and mark occur in several places, and his full name appears in the first woodcut border of the second edition; but his name is not given on the title-page of any but the first edition.

THIRD EDITION.

The FIRST Edition and its two Supplements were published in India in the years, respectively, 1858 and 1862, and the SECOND Edition was also published in India, in 1873.

The THIRD Edition, published in London in 1885, contains 35,000 Articles, with 16,000 Index headings.

THIS work brings together, up to date, and makes available for ready reference, the widely dispersed and invaluable information, whether Commercial, Industrial, or Scientific, which exists relating to India, Further India, and the East Indies generally.

The Geographical Review, in noticing the Second Edition, said:—"There has, indeed, hitherto been no way of learning anything of India, except by accumulating a large library. . . . It is not too much to say that Dr. Balfour has now supplied this want."

From the Carthusian Monastery Aula B. Mariæ in Buxia prope Memmingen.
2 ANTIPHONARIUM CISTERCIENSE, folio, MS. on vellum (218 leaves), with large painted initials chiefly in interlaced style and bearing grotesque figures, with a final picture of extremely rude and archaic pattern, representing the Almighty within a mandorla; Music and text together on every page; in oaken boards covered with goatskin, the lower part of the leather hanging loose About A.D. 1290	40	0	0
Probably written in North Italy. The Gothic writing is very fine and regular throughout. Towards the end there are additions of about the same age but in a different hand. In the original scribe's work we find the Office of the Trinity, and in the supplementary part that of the Crown of Thorns—two very early examples of their use. The picture of the Almighty referred to above is painted on a blue ground, the seated Deity is robed in white, red, and green; he has light brown hair and a short reddish-brown beard, and is represented as a young man. The nimbus is green dotted with white and bears a yellow cross. The drawing is as rude and archaic as though it were a faithful copy from a model of the tenth century. The mandorla is edged with red, yellow, and green.
In a beautiful Carolingian hand that seems Italian in character. There are NEUMES given to many of the metrical passages. The book was formerly in Dr. Askew's Collection, in whose catalogue it is described: Codex memb. vetust. Sæc. forte XII si non antiquior.—An interesting quarto codex, written on 113 leaves, averaging 24 centimetres in height by 18 in. width, with 18 lines of text to the page, therefore widely spaced, as are also the individual words. The scribe does not seem to have been sure of his Greek. An introduction and commentary of nearly equal antiquity are added in the margins, with some corrections and glosses, or notes upon difficult words; and there are a few additional notes by a late XVth century reader.

4 British Navy. Official Papers concerning the men-of-war employed in 1705-1707 as Trade Convoys, and the losses undergone in combat with Fourbin's fleet and French privateers. Small folio, MS. 34 pp. neatly written in the office of the Admiralty 1707 1 0 0

These documents were used in the enquiry instituted by the House of Lords upon the complaint of English merchants. Several English men-of-war had been taken and destroyed, as well as a great number of the trade vessels. Another list is added to show that the French losses had been greater.

5 BYZANTINE MINIATURE of the DEATH OF THE VIRGIN, painted on a wooden panel (11¾ × 9¼ inches), enclosed in a modern frame About 1400 21 0 0

This curious ancient picture of a well-known subject contains twenty-eight figures painted in distemper on a gold ground, with a rubricated intitulation at the top "Ἡ Κοίμισις (sic) τῆς θεοτόκου." The colouring is rich and vivid, but sombre, and more like Egyptian than Byzantine work. The Angel of Death, with sable wings outstretched, hovers above all the figures grouped around the bier on which the Virgin lies; and the Saviour Himself appears in the midst, looking on his mother's dead body while he bears in his arms her soul, represented as a little dark-faced baby, swathed like a mummy in white wrappings.

6 CICERO. Māci Tvllii Ciceronis de Legibvs liber . .

Small folio (4to.), MS. on vellum, with illuminated initials, an emblazoned escutcheon at the bottom of the first page, within a green wreath; old English russia gilt, from the libraries of Dr. Askew, Mr. Wodhull, and H. O. Wills North Italy, about 1480 14 0 0

Fetched £20 at the Wodhull sale.

The escutcheon above mentioned is azure with a bordure argent, a demi-stag argent. This was the armorial bearing of the Maffei in the fifteenth century. The volume was one of several which came to Dr. Askew from the Maffei collection. In other volumes of the same collection, the argent of the escutcheon is changed to or.

7 ISAAC NINEVITA. Τοῦ ἐν ἁγίοις πατέρος Ἀββᾶ Ἰσαὰκ τοῦ Σύρου ἀσκητῶν καὶ ἀναχωρητοῦ . . Ἐπισκόπου τῆς φιλοχριστουπολεως Νινευῖ Λόγοι ἀσκητικοὶ γραφέντες . . ἰδία γλώσσῃ, ἑρμηνευθέντες ὑπὸ Ἀββᾶ Παρικίου καὶ Ἀββᾶ Ἀβραμίου . . A MS. of great rarity even in public libraries.

8 EPHRAIM DIACONUS. INCIPIT liber primus sancti EFFREM DYACONI DE COMPUNCTIONE CORDIS; FORMULA VITE seu regula SANCTI ANSELMI . . Sequuntur HORE concepcōis beate Marie Virginis a prefato Anselmo cōpōite . . LIBER SOLILOQUIORUM SANCTI AUGUSTINI . .

4 parts in 1 vol. sm. 4to. MS. on vellum, 167 leaves, with three fine Miniatures and several brilliantly illuminated initials; from the famous library of CARDINAL GEORGE D'AMBOISE, for whom it was written, and whose arms are painted on three pages; in the original vellum covers, edges gilt About 1484 24 0 0

The escutcheon is surmounted by a crozier and shows that the prelate was not yet Archbishop or Cardinal when he caused this volume to be written for his library. It is in lettres batardes, and upon fine white vellum; still in remarkably fresh and even brilliant condition.

9 FANCIULLI DI FIRENZE. Constitutioni et Ordini della Schuola di giouanetti di Sancto Giouanni (principiata nell anno 1427) con la Bolla di Confermatione di Eugenio IV, 1442, e l Approbatione del Archivescovo Antonino, 1451 . .

Small folio, MS. on vellum, with a large Miniature and border at the beginning, and 17 small Miniatures within the illuminated initials; in the original Florentine stamped binding with metal cornerpieces and clasps. On the outside of the lower cover, there is a painting on vellum fastened down with a brass frame-work, and covered with transparent talc Florence, 1450 120 0 0 as an old man, delivering the book of these Constitutions to a kneeling boy in a white monastic robe. It has been said to be from the hand of Fra Angelico, and the style of design and the colouring seem to lend a certain probability to the assertion. Whoever the painter was, he must have been of no mean rank, considering that the Pope and the Archbishop were interested in the production of this volume.

The papal bull is of course a copy, but the approbation by the Archbishop is "propria manu"; as also are later sanctions of various dates, ranging from 1478 to 1740.

The first illuminated page of the book is a splendid one. On a gold ground, the symbolical design of the Trinity is painted, that is, the Almighty throned in air in the midst of a crowd of seraphs and cherubs, supporting in front of him the crucified Saviour on whose head rests the Holy Ghost in the form of a dove. St. John, as a young man, looks upwards from the centre of the initial letter beneath; and the page is broadly bordered with floral arabesques in which numerous smaller figures of angels and saints are deftly framed.

10 FRAGMENTS: Life of St. Oswald in English verse, 3 vellum fragments which formed a single leaf, and which contain about 150 lines of an old English poem About 1380

Homily on the Death and Resurrection, 2 leaves of vellum, 12mo. size, part of a homily based upon St. John's Gospel, and citing passages from Wyklyf's text About 1440

In these six lines, given as a specimen, I have substituted th for the thorn letter.

11 THE COURTENAY PRAYERBOOK. HORÆ B. V. M., Psalmi Penitentiales, Litania, et Officium Defunctorum, cum Calendario

8vo. MS. on vellum, with illuminated initials and capitals, a border to every page, those of the Calendar being particularly striking, and executed in the old Anglo-Norman style, with little Miniatures and grotesque figures; old calf

Written probably in Bruton Abbey, Devonshire; about A.D. 1325-30 96 0 0

With about 500 emblazoned escutcheons painted on the lower margins throughout the book, which give to the MS. the character of ONE OF THE EARLIEST ENGLISH ARMORIALS IN EXISTENCE. Among them is the bearing of Bruton Abbey, in which it is to be conjectured that the MS. was written. The proof that the book was in the possession of Edward Courtenay, Earl of Devonshire (who died in 1418), or of some one intimately connected with him, is to be derived from a list, in French, of Advowsons in Somersetshire, "q sount en lez mains Moũ Sr le C de D", written on the second last leaf in a hand of about the year 1400.

The book is in large missal characters, purely Gothic, twelve lines to the page, and every page has its border, chiefly of thirteenth-century style, but with sparse ornaments of single leaves and flowers. The bottom line of the border has some sprays of this rough decoration thrown out into the space below, and between them the armorial bearings are painted. The Calendar is in a smaller hand, but ornamented more profusely. The heavy framelines of the borders are painted in dark colours, and look like imitations of enamelled metal-plaques. The first leaf of the text is wanting. The last four leaves of the book contain a story in Norman-French from the Legendary, in the same hand as the Calendar, occupying three pages; the fourth page contains the list of Advowsons already mentioned; the fifth and sixth pages are in Latin, and contain "Prophetia Hermerici," beginning "Ab origine mundi vi mlcxxxvi."

The Calendar and the Litany are of Sarum character, except for the inclusion in the latter of St. Mildred's name. The obit of Sir John Clifford is recorded in the Calendar on the 19 May, in a handwriting contemporaneous with that of the text.

12 ISABELLA STUART'S PRAYERBOOK. HORÆ B.V. M., etc. 12mo. illuminated MS. on vellum, 213 leaves, with 14 MINIATURES and numerous pretty borders; rebound for René Millon about 1600; enclosed in a black morocco case About 1442 100 0 0

Sold for £94 at the Hamilton sale in 1889.

Isabeau d'Ecosse, daughter of James I of Scotland, married François I, Duke of Brittany, in 1441, and died in 1494. The arms of Scotland and Brittany impaled are painted in various places throughout the book, altogether twenty-five times; and the portrait of the Duchess is given in the first miniature, her robe painted with the united escutcheons.—Of considerable interest are the seven pages of Latin prayers in her own handwriting, which occupy the blank leaves after the Office for the Dead, in which she begs the Saviour that "me specialiter matri tuæ filiam esse facias. Amen". On the last page of the book there is another note which runs thus: "Priez a Dieu pour l'ame de la duchesse Ysabeau fille aisnee du Roy d'Escosse." It was also probably written by her own hand long before her death.

The Millons were a great Breton family in the Duchess's time, and René Millon, whose name is stamped in gold on the sides, was no doubt a descendant of the Bertram Millon whose name is prominent in the records of Brittany about 1480-90.

13 HORÆ B.V. M., etc. sm. 4to. illuminated MS. on vellum, with 38 Miniatures (seven large and thirty-one small), every page decorated with a flowered border; some of the pictures a little rubbed, but the book generally in fine and fresh condition; old French olive morocco, gilt edges, with the symbols of Christ on the sides (a seventeenth-century binding) About 1450 42 0 0

The work of a French hand. The Calendar and the Prayers, Doulce Dame and Biau Sire, are in French; the rest of the book in Latin. An interesting addition is found on leaf 24. It is the Legend of St. Marguerite, in French verse, written about 1490. A transcript of it (made about 1700) is subjoined on paper at the end of the volume. It begins thus:

Qui Marguerite ot nom.

An admirable specimen of late Flemish work. In the Calendar are the signs of the Zodiac and small pictures of the occupations of the months, delicately painted. APPARENTLY EXECUTED FOR PHILIP OF AUSTRIA AND JOAN OF ARAGON, HIS WIFE, as their full-length portraits are given at the beginning, and their initials, joined by a true-lover's knot, are introduced in the borders many times. . . . The Prince is painted in full-armour as Duke of Burgundy; his shield bearing the arms of Burgundy, with Austria in chief. The shield of the Princess bears what are supposed to have been intended for those of Aragon, but the pales are perverted to bends.

Among the saints' offices are those of Corinus and Gummarus, the latter being the patron saint of the town of Liere, in Brabant.

15 HORÆ B. V. M., 18mo. pretty little MS. on vellum, copiously illuminated by a Flemish hand; with 44 Miniatures (14 large and 30 small), as well as numerous decorative initials and borders; bound in crimson velvet, with antique silver corner-pieces and clasp Flanders, about 1500 — 40 0 0

A handsome little book. It was no ordinary artist who executed the best of the miniatures, including the large head of Christ at the beginning. This is a striking picture, which occupies a full page to itself between the Calendar and the beginning of the Prayers.

16 HEURES DE CAMBRAY. Hier beghind onser Vrouwen Ghetyde naer dorduyn van Camerijke . . sm 8vo. illuminated MS. on vellum, with 7 Miniatures carefully finished, and two fine decorative borders, by a Flemish artist; in the original leather covers stamped with arabesque and figure designs in compartments, lettered "Missale Romanum", with the Hailstone book-label pasted inside Cambray, 1497 — 30 0 0

The language is for the most part Latin, although the headings are Flemish, as well as some prayers at the end. The binding is rebacked, but the original stamped sides are in perfect condition, with the inscription "O mater Dei memento mei. Ave gracia plena Dñs tecum."

An inscription on the fly-leaf, in the handwriting of the nun who wrote the book itself, states that "Desen boec behoord toe den hospitaele binnen der stad von Gheerarsbergen Int iaer ons heeren M.cccc.xcvii. by pcuracien van Joncvrou Lijsbetten van Steengracht." The word Gherarsberg is written over an earlier word to which the termination ven belongs. Gherarsberg was probably a suburb of Cambray.

17 HORÆ B. V. M. ETC. small 4to. MS. on vellum, with 13 Miniatures, 15 borders, and hundreds of illuminated capitals; old calf gilt, the arms of the Duc de la Vallière on the sides About 1460 — 36 0 0

The miniatures are pretty and well painted, with landscape backgrounds. The borders are of the same composite nature as seen in other MSS. of the time, but they are light and elegant, not overloaded with elaborate profusion. The last five pages of the book are in French (the prayers to the Doulce Dame and the Beau Sire), and the Calendar is also French; without any provincial peculiarities, although the book was written probably somewhere north or north-east of Paris, perhaps at Reims. SS. Denis, Nicaise, and Austreberta are invoked in the Litany, which does not contain the supplication for the Pope.

18 HORÆ B. V. M. ETC. AD USUM ROMANUM, (16mo. 4¼ by 3¼ inches), MS. on vellum, with 17 larger and 12 smaller Miniatures, every page of the volume illuminated with a floral border; a pretty little book in old French red morocco, gilt edges, a binding executed about 1620-40 About A.D. 1450-60 — 31 10 0

There are thirteen leaves of additions at the end, containing Les Cinq Joyes Nre Seigneur, in French prose; Oroison de moseigneur S. Christofle; Oroison a Nre Dame; Les Cinq Joyes, Oroison de madame Ste. Marguerite, and Oroison de madame Saincte Avoie, all in French verse. These thirteen leaves are in bold batarde characters, and written about 1470.

19 HEURES À L'USAGE DE COUTANCES, en Latin. 12mo. ILLUMINATED MS. ON VELLUM, with Miniatures, initials and borders, and several coats of arms emblazoned on the margins; not quite perfect; red morocco About 1480 — 10 0 0

It belonged in the Fifteen-nineties to Ollivier de Sauvage of St. Nicolas de Caen.

20 Horses. RUZZI (Lorenzo). Laurentius dictus Rutius, Marscalcus de Vrbe [DE CURA EQUORUM], 4to. MS. on paper (83 leaves) written in a fine small Italian hand, with an illuminated initial (bordered), and a painted escutcheon (similarly bordered); hf. bd. About 1490 5 0 0

The work (unknown to the writers upon Horses) is dedicated to the Cardinal-Deacon of St. Adrian,—a title of honour bestowed by the Pope upon Pierre d'Aubusson, the Grand Master of the Knights of St. John, in consequence of his gallant defence of Rhodes.

The escutcheon in the border is barry of six, argent and azure, on a chief gules an escallop of the first, and it is flanked by the letters G R.

21 MINIATURES (three) within large illuminated initials (cut from a Liturgical book), representing 1. (Letter N): the Virgin handing the newborn Child from her bed to a handmaiden; 2. (letter F): the same subject; 3. (letter S): Christ at table, Mary Magdalen on her knees at his feet; A kneeling nun in black raiment introduced in each picture. Mounted on a square folio leaf of cardboard, glazed in a frame About 1440-50 10 0 0

22 MINIATURES. A DIPTYCH OF THREE MINIATURES on two leaves of vellum from a BOOK OF HOURS, written for Louis d'Orleans (afterwards Louis XII of France) or his first wife Jeanne de France, daughter of Louis XI; framed under glass, two boards covered with velvet, which are hinged in the centre, and open like a quarto book About 1480 25 0 0

The picture on the left represents St. Louis enthroned, his mother "Royne Blanche" standing on the left hand; "La Justice du Roy," a female personage with a sword, standing on the left; and below them two figures, a gentleman and a peasant, holding up petitions which are about to be received by an officer. The upper picture on the right contains four figures of Nymphs, "Nayade, Amadriade, Oreade, Nappee," standing on a green field, a half-figure of "Foy" rising from a flower, and an angelic form overhead, surrounded by golden rays. The lower picture represents Christ as a baby in the sky, reversing a chalice, from which flow streams of milk or nectar into golden cups held up from below by several figures, Pope and Emperor, Cardinal and King, Bishop and Prince, etc. These two pictures are evidently intended to symbolise the faith of heathendom and the faith of Christendom. On the upper one there is an escutcheon France-Medici, which must have been painted there at a later time, that is after the marriage of Henri II with Catherina dei Medici.

23 OFFICES OF THE VIRGIN, etc. in Dutch, square 12mo. richly illuminated MS. on vellum, with numerous brilliant borders, and 28 fine Miniatures painted by a student of the Van Eyck school, remarkable for the suavity and richness of the colouring, and for the masterly disposition of draperies; in old velvet binding, with plated clasps About 1440 52 10 0

The name of St. Walpurgis in the Litany leads to a conjecture that the book was written at Utrecht, but the note at the end of the Psalter of St. Augustine mentions two Bishops of Hildesheim as granting and confirming an indulgence, which suggests an inference that the volume originated in Gueldres or somewhere on the borders of Westphalia. Whichever be the case, it is an exquisite example of Dutch art in the Flemish style.

24 OFFICIUM BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS et orationes diversæ, small 4to. illuminated MS. on vellum, 207 leaves; with 44 Miniatures (sixteen large and twenty-eight small), initials and borders all richly illuminated; a bright and attractive book in good preservation, black fishskin About 1480 24 0 0

Some leaves which had been cut have been mended and restored for a modern owner, with portions of the decoration supplied in a style similar to that of the original.

INITIALS, and two exquisite Miniatures enclosed within a rich border on the first page; red velvet, with massive silver ornaments on the sides, gilt edges, enclosed in a box

Do. Peregrinus monachus cenobii S. Justine de Padua, 1466 60 0 0

The centre-pieces of the binding, framed as medallions, are two silver nielli-plates, the one on the obverse engraved with a portrait of Cardinal Bembo, that on the reverse having a figure of Pegasus (Bembo's symbol). We may conclude that the book came into Bembo's hands when he was forming his library in Padua in 1521-25. It is evident from the portrait that this medallion was executed before he was made Cardinal in 1538, and we know that Benvenuto Cellini performed such a piece of work for Bembo about 1535. There can be little doubt that the two nielli are from that erratic artist's hand.

26 PSALTERIUM (cum invitatoriis et versiculis pro feriis et horis) Symbolum Athanasii, etc. 8vo. MS. on vellum, with the initial letter B painted in green, red, and white, in interlaced pattern; in the original boards covered with pigskin About A.D. 1170 15 0 0

This MS. was probably written somewhere in the Rhenish provinces, to the west of the Rhine. It was in German hands at the beginning of the fifteenth century, and two lines of verse (most of them illegible) are written inside the cover.

27 THE WHETENHALL PSALTER. Psalterium ad usum Sarum, cum Symbolo, precibus, et Litaniis, Missa de Trinitate, de Sancta Cruce, etc., et variis Commemorationibus, 4to. MS. on vellum, with 8 illuminated borders, and 9 initial letters painted in gold and colours; bound in gilt russia (by Baumgarten), and bearing the Wodhull arms in gold on the sides About 1440 72 0 0

The original scribe's work ended with the usual Litany and Prayers that succeed the Psalter.

The forty leaves that follow (as well as a few leaves at the beginning of the book) were written on at various times between 1440 and 1480. They contain the various Missal and commemoration offices above referred to, including the Mass of St. Winefred, and the office of St. Hugh of Lincoln; an extensive Litany; the Joys of the Virgin in English (four full pages); Legend of St. Winefred in Latin verse.

The arms which are painted on the first leaf are those of the Norfolk Whetenhalls, not of the Chester or Kent families of that name. On two leaves at the end, the same hand as painted the arms, has given a large and fine picture of St. George slaying the dragon on one page, and the lady waiting for release on the opposite page. This coloured drawing, as well as a plain design of the Almighty supporting the Crucified Saviour, and another of St. Christopher (which last two are to be found near the beginning of the book), are favourable examples of English art in the time of Edward IV, and must have been the work of a skilful limner.

The MS. belonged formerly to Martin, the historian of Thetford, and Blomefield, the historian of Norfolk; and has the autographs of both.

A superb Miniature of large size executed within a gigantic initial G (12½ by 12 inches), attributed to the famous DON SILVESTRO of Santa Maria degli Angeli at Florence, and undoubtedly of Florentine origin towards the close of the fourteenth century; framed About 1380-90 40 0 0

There are over forty figures or heads in this magnificent work of art. The drawing is good and the colouring is splendid; and the whole effect is wonderfully fine. The leaf was probably one of those which were cut out of the celebrated Chorale of the Church of Santa Maria degli Angeli, and some of which went into Ottley's possession. It is a piece of illumination and painting that well deserves the eulogies which Vasari and others have passed upon the miniatures of Don Silvestro.

29 CLIMACI SCALA PARADISI. An Italian translation of the Scala Paradisi, MS. ON VELLUM (194 leaves) well preserved, modern green morocco gilt, g. e. by F. Bedford SÆC. XV 21 0 0

There is one fine ornamental page containing a miniature of great beauty with prologue of the friar who "vulgarised" it, and note referring to the author, Johannes Scholasticus, or St. Climacus, Abbot of Mount Sinai, with name of the scribe "Daniel humile monaco del monastero." A further Note states that the translation from the Greek was made by Frate Angelo, a Franciscan prior of a convent of the Brothers of the Poor Life in the regions of Roumania, and published in 1300 in the time of Pope Boniface.

30 SVETONII TRANQVILLINI de Vita et moribvs dvodecim Principvm Romanorvm liber primvs incipit . . [libri XII]

Small folio, MS. on fine white vellum, with 12 illuminated initials in the interlacing style of decoration, and (on the first page) the emblazoned escutcheon of the Maffei family; old English russia gilt, from the Maffei, Askew, Wodhull, and Wills libraries Rome or Naples, about 1460 20 0 0

At the end, there are five sets of memorial verses on the Cæsars, and Suetonius. MSS. of the great work of Suetonius are rarely purchaseable. The Maffei escutcheon is azure with a demi-bordure or, a demi stag salient or, which was the chief bearing of the Roman branch of the family in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries.

31 VEGETIUS. PVBLII . VEGETII . VIRI . ILLVSTRIS . MVLOMEDICINAE—libri tres . . . EIUSDEM DE CURIS BOUM epythoma ex diuersis autorib'

2 parts in 1 vol. small folio, BEAUTIFUL ILLUMINATED MS. ON VELLUM BY IPPOLITO DA LUNA, ONE OF THE MOST FAMOUS CALLIGRAPHERS OF THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY, with splendid initials and borders, and a superb full-page painting in camaieu-or of a horse with two grooms; in maroon morocco extra, gilt edges, from the Beresford Hope collection Naples, about 1480 80 0 0

A signed example of the art of the celebrated HIPPOLITUS LUNENSIS who worked for the library of the Aragonese Kings of Naples. His words are "Hos Vegetii libellos Hippolytus Lunensis mendosissimo exemplari qua potuit diligentia transcripsit," and show that even in his time, as well as in ours, codices of the work were very rare, since he was obliged to correct as well as he could a faulty one. The design of the horse is very beautiful; no draughtsman of to-day could pretend to more correctness. The vellum, the writing, and the illumination are all of the highest degree of excellence, truly royal in their splendour. There is a grand escutcheon emblazoned on the first page of the table, but it is probably fifty years later than the work of Ippolito da Luna.

32 VIRGIL. P. V. MARONIS AENEIDOS LIB. Small folio, fine MS. on vellum (180 leaves), by a Neapolitan calligrapher; with an illuminated border and initial on the first page in the interlaced style of decoration; in old English russia gilt, from the Piccolomini, Askew, Wodhull, and Wills libraries About 1460 50 0 0

The escutcheon in the lower line of the border is that of the Piccolomini d'Aragona, and indicates that this MS. belonged to Antonio Piccolomini d'Aragona, Duke of Amalfi, son-in-law of Ferdinand I, King of Naples, nephew of Pope Pius II (Æneas Silvius), and brother of Pius III.

The book is in a clear and regular Roman script, handsomely written upon bright clean vellum with large margins, fresh and sound in every respect.

I conceive this Library to have experienced other marks of attention also from this learned Primate.—H. J. Todd.

There are two splendid 'Anwáns, the one occupying the first two pages of the preface, the other the first two pages of the text. The preface is the long one. Between it and the text, there are lists of Pahlvi and ancient Persian words occurring in the Shahnáma.

The most interesting of the Shakspearian Anthologies. There are, according to Collier's computation, seventy-nine extracts from Shakespeare, of which fifty-five represent his poems and twenty-four his plays. Considering the year of the book's impression, this fact indicates he was one of the most popular writers of his time; not so popular indeed as Spenser, Drayton, and Daniel, and one or two others of less note. There are altogether nearly two thousand extracts, and the names of the authors are appended in nearly every instance. These signatures render the Parnassus an important document for English poetical history, and make its value permanent. The editorship is assigned to Allot on account of the initials R. A. which stand at foot of the metrical dedication.

Chiefly inspired by the death of the poet's mistress in 1482, and containing a piece upon Federigo Duke of Urbino, who died in the same year. A few peculiarities of orthography seem to point to Milan as the place of writing. There is a preliminary address to "Signor Conte mio." The first sonnet begins with the line—

It contains, among other new matter, a discussion of the modern influence machine, the dynamo, the alternator, the transformer, and the alternate-current motor, including the newest types now coming into use. Norfolk:

466	BIRDS, BEASTS, and FISHES of the NORFOLK BROADLAND, by P. H. EMERSON March, 1895	0	8	6

This handsome volume contains xii + 396 pages medium 8vo., and is printed on the best white paper, and bound in handsome linen cover with specially drawn design. The volume is illustrated by sixty-eight reproductions of photographs of birds and their nests, beasts, etc., eighteen being full-page illustrations, size 6 by 4 inches. These illustrations are unique, many of them being photographs from nature of eggs and nests, etc., never before photographed, and include:—

Reed-Pheasants and nest and eggs, Reeve's nest and eggs, Great Crested Grebe's nest and eggs, Brown-headed Gull's nest and eggs, Grasshopper Warbler's nest and eggs, Young Montagu Harriers, Marsh Owl, Young Grasshopper Warbler, Reed-Warbler's nest and eggs, Young Merlins, Pallas' Sand-Grouse, Ringed Plover's nest and eggs.

The text is formed of a series of artistic biographies of the birds in their haunts as studied in Norfolk for the past seven or eight years by the author, whose work is already well known to many.

The ornithologist will find much new matter concerning the birds peculiar to the Broadland, matter given with the author's usual accuracy and lucidity.

Altogether, no student of natural history, no lover of Nature, or native of the district, should hesitate in adding this volume to his library.

The above work during its course of publication gained the highest praise in every quarter, from its combining three things of the highest importance but seldom found together—great scientific value, eminent readableness, and singular beauty of illustration. It can, in fact, be only compared with the great works of GOULD and SELBY, which being on so much larger a scale, from containing nearly life-size portraits of the birds themselves, are beyond the reach of most students of British Ornithology, even with the aid of a great public library.

Chinese-English Dictionary, by Herbert A. Giles, impl. 4to. xlvi and 1416 pp. in treble cols. cloth, £6. 16*s* 6*d* Shanghai, 1892

This great Monumental work supersedes all its predecessors, and is indispensable for great Public Libraries.

"The last decade of the nineteenth century will probably be known hereafter as the age of lexicography. Apart from the monumental New English Dictionary, upon which Dr. Murray and Mr. Bradley are labouring with a precision of detail never before attempted, the Clarendon Press has at present in hand no less than four other great lexicographical works: Dean Payne Smith's Thesaurus Syriacus and Prof. Toller's revision of Bosworth's Anglo-Saxon Dictionary—both now nearly completed; the Hebrew Lexicon of the Old Testament, by American and English scholars, and the Concordance to the Septuagint, planned by the late Edwin Hatch—both still in an early stage. For modern Oriental languages, it is sufficient to mention Prof. Salmoné's Arabic, and Dr. Steingass's Persian Dictionary, each of which received pecuniary help from the Secretary of State for India. And now we are promised a new Chinese-English Dictionary, by Mr. Herbert A. Giles, H.B.M. consul at Ning-po, whose name already stands on the title-page of some seventeen sinological books.

The work was projected by the author as far back as 1874, and he has been carrying it on at intervals ever since. The entire plan, and by far the greater part of the execution, are his own. But, of course, he has not disdained to utilize the previous labours of others, or to accept help from his colleagues in the consular service, and from native scholars. Two years were devoted to the arrangement and transcription of the material; and the printing at Shanghai, by Messrs. Kelly and Walsh, has taken about twelve months. It will be published very shortly, in a quarto volume of fifteen hundred pages, by Mr. Bernard Quaritch.

Without the use of special types, it is not easy to give an account of the work, as sketched out in the Preface. The total number of characters given, each under a separate heading, is 13,848, every one numbered for the purpose of easy reference by means of the Radical Index. It appears that the famous lexicon which passes under the name of K'ang Hsi contains more than forty thousand characters, but we are assured that a Chinese newspaper can be printed with a fount of six thousand. Each character is marked with another number denoting its "tone" in Pekinese, followed by its romanisation in no less than nine dialects, and also in the languages of Korea, Japan, and Annam. Opposite the character are given its various meanings, without any attempt to trace the original etymology or the subsequent derivations. Then come illustrative entries, arranged in the same order as the meanings, which have purposely been collected both from books and from conversation; for Mr. Giles maintains that there is no real distinction between classical and colloquial Chinese.

Some phrases are purposely given in wrongly written forms, because such forms happen to be in common use. A large number of entries have been introduced to illustrate the best and highest planes of Chinese thought. Others, as affording glimpses into political, commercial, and social life. Proverbs, household words, and even nursery rhymes, occur among the hundred thousand examples which go to make up this book. Even a general reader might find it not without interest to glance through the entries under the characters for wine, doctor, crime or punishment, drunk, to gamble, &c."

All the entries are translated into English, upon the accuracy of which Mr. Giles admits that the value of the entire work depends. After an interesting discussion upon the absence of grammar in Chinese—or at least upon the uselessness of any grammatical rules that have been laid down by European scholars—the Preface ends with a dedication to "the honour and advancement of the British consular service."—Academy, November 19th, 1892.

The Heralds' Visitations of Cornwall in the years 1530, 1573, and 1620 are partially contained in a Manuscript Collection generally known as the "Harleian MSS.," and have never yet been published. They are now offered to Subscribers in a comprehensive form, the descent of each family being brought down, where possible, to the present day, from authorities such as Wills, Inquisitions post mortem, Parish Registers, Deeds, Family Records, etc., every effort being made to secure accuracy, and to produce a standard work of authority on Cornish Genealogy. Numerous pedigrees of families, not contained in the Heralds' MSS., are introduced, showing family descent and connection, and in cases where a family migrated into Cornwall from another county the Visitation pedigree of the family in that county is added. The Arms and Crest of every family are given.

Notwithstanding that the text of the latter copy is French, the work of the colourist and illuminator is quite equal to the careful elaboration of the German copy. It is evidently one of the earliest issues, produced under the special supervision of the learned author.

Hefner's grand publication was the first illustrated scientific work upon Costume, and still remains superior as an authority to almost every book which treats upon the subject: viz. Arms, Ornament, and Costume, civil and ecclesiastical, from the ninth to the end of the sixteenth century.

Time has not weakened the importance of this book which, based upon excavations, architectural researches, newly recovered inscriptions, and the evidence of coins, opened up the forgotten records of Buddhist India, and elucidated numerous problems in history, geography and religion. Most of General Cunningham's deductions and conclusions have been confirmed by the work of later scholars.

The Book of Wisdom and Lies: a Georgian Story-book of the Eighteenth Century. By Sulkhan Saba Orbeliani. Translated with Notes by Oliver Wardrop. 1 vol. 8vo. vellum, £2. 2*s*

Kelmscott Press, 1895

"In this handsome volume, which appears in the beautiful type of the Kelmscott Press, Mr. Oliver Wardrop gives us a translation of an old Georgian book of stories. With the exception of a few extracts in French, this is the first version of this curious book which has been published in any language of the West. And yet it is a production well worthy of the attention of the folk-lorist.

"The plan of the work resembles that of the 'Hitopadesa'; it is a collection of fables and tales set in a slender framework. . . .

"Mr. Wardrop has added some useful and scholarly notes.

"Among the best in the collection is that of the 'One-eyed king, the fox, and Sultan Selim.' Many of the fables are identical with those in the collection which goes under the name of Æsop.

"Together with the tales we have a good collection of apothegmatic sayings and a quantity of Oriental triads. It is in these aphorisms that the shrewdness of the Oriental mind appears.

"Mr. Wardrop has throughout performed his task in an accurate and scholarly way. For purposes of comparison we have used a small edition of the original published at Tiflis in 1881, and have been everywhere struck with his fidelity. . . .

"In conclusion, we can only hope that this book will meet with the attention it deserves. Unfortunately, in this édition de luxe it can appeal to only a limited circle of readers. We will end our article by citing the lines of a Georgian on Orbeliani, which are given by Prof. Tsagarelli—to whom all Georgian students owe so much—at the end of his work on this celebrated collection of stories:

"Saba-Sulkhan Orbelisdze (i.e. son of Orbeli), Soared by his wisdom above the eagles."

Dante. Illustrations to the Divine Comedy

OF DANTE, executed by the Flemish Artist, JOH. STRADANUS, 1587, and reproduced in phototype (Facsimile in size and colour) from the originals existing in the Medico-Laurenzianian Library of Florence, edited with introduction by Dr. GUIDO BIAGI, preface by JOHN ADDINGTON SYMONDS, folio, size 20 inches by 14½ inches, in a Florentine binding, £5. 5*s* 1893

The edition is limited to 300 copies, 100 of them being reserved for sale in Italy.

Extract from the Essay by Signor Biagi:

The accompanying illustrations . . . which are here reproduced for the first time, appear to us to be of great importance in the history of Dantesque iconography. . . . They are remarkable as an illustrative commentary on the Poem; and also for the evident effort to portray the full intention, and the different aspects of a scene, grouping the episodes around the principal subject in such a way as to throw full elucidation on it. . . . The designs are executed according to the technique of chiaroscuro. In the beginning are some pages of summary, and descriptive sketches of the site, shape, and measurements of Hell. . . . We do not pretend to offer it [the collection] to the public as an artistic masterpiece, but only as one of the most perfect series of illustrations of the Divine Comedy attempted at the time when it was the object of devoted study by savants and artists. Indeed it seems manifest that these pages combine the work of the artist and the student, both intent on a task very difficult to fulfil.

Mr. John Addington Symonds, in his Prefatory Notes, thus writes of Stradanus:

It seems that he started painting at Bruges, Antwerp, and Lyons, before he came to Italy. The fact that Cosimo dé Medici, Grand Duke of Tuscany, had established a tapestry manufactory under two Flemings, Johannes and Marcus Van der Roost, probably drew him to Florence. Here he was employed to make designs for arras-work, and the number he turned out is said to have been beyond the scope of calculation. He was, indeed, extraordinarily prolific. . . . Two of the decadent Florentine painters, Georgio Vasili and Francesco Salviati, esteemed him highly for his powers of invention, and still more for his facility. Like his fellow-countryman, Marten de Vos, Stradanus executed a vast amount of hack-work for the chief engraving companies of Antwerp. These commercial speculators issued sets of illustrative prints, and spread them broadcast over the whole world. The Jesuits made great use of these pictures in educating the Heathen of the East and the New World.

"Mr. Quaritch deserves the best thanks of all lovers of Catholic chivalry for this new edition of Mr. Digby's well-known and most interesting book. 'Well known,' we mean, to students and to those who do not think their hours misspent in the perusal of books which rather minister to a devout life than to worldly thoughts and the spirit of pride.

"For Mr. Digby is one of the few writers who convey a moral and a saintly lesson without preaching a sermon; one of the few companions who know how to suggest good and useful thoughts without fatiguing the mind by too constant a strain upon its powers. He is one of those who feel the words of Horace:—

Si vis me flere, dolendum est

is the title of a work which is intended to be the first of a short series to be produced by the same hand under the title of the "Sung and Seen" series. As the name indicates, the subject is brought forward by means of a double form of expression. The series does not contain illustrated poems or drawings with descriptive letterpress, but a mingling of the poetry that speaks to the eye with that which addresses the ear just as the word-ideas and form-ideas presented themselves in the first instance to the artist-author. Each is hand-tinted in brown, by the author. The edition is limited to 150 copies. Each copy is numbered. No reissue of the identical plates is possible. The outlines are printed from stones which are cleared as the work progresses. The pages are facsimiled from the original MS. There is no other copy, no previous sketch in existence.

"Seen in Three Days" contains sixty pages, on each of which is a design, and some writing. The whole is a narrative of vision, and at the same time of that poetic form of experience which is not altogether vision and has its natural outlet through literary expression.

THE PITTIDÆ

OR FAMILY OF

ANT-THRUSHES,

5 parts, impl. folio, 51 coloured plates, with an entirely new descriptive letterpress.

£15. 15s 1893-95

The first edition of this valuable monograph appeared in 1867, and, owing to its limited impression, copies have long been very rare, and have fetched high prices—Eyton's having sold for £36. The Author having often been requested by Ornithologists to bring out a new edition, consented, with this superb result.

This new edition contains representations of about TWENTY ADDITIONAL species lately brought to Europe, chiefly deposited in the British Museum, in addition to those already figured in the first issue; moreover a large proportion of the old plates have been redrawn, with the result that of the 51 plates contained in the work, 34 are ENTIRELY NEW.

The edition consists of but seventy copies.

"The very peculiar appearance of the majority of the birds contained in this volume, as well as the extraordinary habits and structure common to all, which make them to differ from other feathered creatures, together with the generally meagre accounts of many of the species, only to be met with by searching numerous publications, were the chief reasons that induced me to select this family as the subject of my fifth illustrated monograph.

The graceful forms and beautifully coloured dress of the living members of the Felidæ excite the admiration of all who see them, and they afford most attractive subjects for pictorial representation.

One hundred and fifty copies only were printed; and the Drawings are erased from the stones, thus making it impossible to increase the edition.

The plates of these magnificent works were drawn in the highest style of Art; those of the Birds of North America chiefly by the Author, those of the Pittidæ by the Author and W. Hart, and those of the Tetraoninæ, the Phasianidæ and Paradiseidæ by the celebrated Joseph Wolf and J. Smit. The colouring has been effected by the best Colourists of London.

Elton's Origins of English History; by CHARLES

I. ELTON, F.S.A., sometime Fellow of Queen's College, Oxford; one of Her Majesty's Counsel; author of "The Tenures of Kent;" "The Law of Commons and Waste Lands;" "The Law of Copyholds and Customary Tenures of Land;" "Norway, the Road and the Fell," etc. second edition revised, stout 8vo. with historical maps, cloth, 21*s* 1890

PREFACE TO THE SECOND EDITION:

In preparing a second edition of the "Origins of English History" the author has endeavoured to take advantage of the observations and friendly advice to which the appearance of the former edition gave rise. Since the work was first published many fresh discoveries have been made in the provinces of philology and archæological science. Much fresh light has been thrown on the problems of Celtic history by the continuous labours of Professor Rhys at home and of M. Gaidoz, M. D'Arbois de Jubainville and many other eminent scholars abroad, while some of the best-known landmarks of archæology have been altered by the results of the recent explorations made by General Pitt-Rivers at Rushmore. The earlier chapters of the work, dealing with the important discoveries of Pytheas, the Greek romances of travel, and the ancient languages and institutions of the Celtic peoples, have been carefully revised, without much alteration in their main argument or the arrangement of the principal facts. Some doubtful points have been omitted as well as some few appeals to authority which seemed to be no longer required. The descriptive catalogue of classic authors cited in the work has been entirely re-arranged, and references are now given to the pages on which they are cited in the text. An Index Locorum has been added, and care has been taken to distinguish those places which have anything to do with customary modes of inheritance from those which are more incidentally mentioned in the purely historical chapters. The General Index has been reconstructed and greatly enlarged, and a Table of Contents has been added.

WHITESTAUNTON, SOMERSET,
December 2nd, 1889.

A work of national importance, serving as a necessary introduction to all histories of England. In it are gathered and summed up the results of recent archæological, anthropological, and philological investigations; and we may fairly assert that Mr. Elton has produced a chapter in the history of Civilisation which had never previously been written with such a knowledge of the subject as he possesses. No good English library, and no student of early British antiquities can afford to do without Elton's Origins.

The work begins with the records of early Greek voyages in the North, about 350 B.C., and comes down to the time when English States were being formed or moulded in the terrible struggles of the sixth and seventh centuries of our era. It is thus of high anthropological interest to all who are concerned in the genesis and the composition of the English nation.

The first edition, printed in 1882, went quickly out of print; and this improved edition has, been issued to supply the demand which has gone on increasing during the past year or two.

ENGLISH EDITION. 1889-95.

It has been remarked over and over again, that the great achievements of Sculpture, Painting, and Architecture, are easily accessible for study by those who devote any attention to the Fine Arts; while the best productions of the men who laboured with the burin, the etching-needle, or the wood-engraver's knife, are little known, except to the few wealthy amateurs who can buy the rare examples of such work, or the specialists who frequent the print-rooms of the Art Museums. The artistic interest of engravings is, nevertheless, not inferior to that of the pictures, statues, and buildings wrought by famous hands, and readily visible to almost all the world. They offer the same æsthetic gratifications, they exhibit the same developments of genius and skill, and they furnish the same course of education in taste, as the grand monuments of the sister-arts. But their rarity and comparative inaccessibility forbid most students to hope for even an occasional transitory glance at many of the engraved designs made famous by the descriptions of Bartsch, Passavant, Ottley, and others.

The object of the present publication, undertaken by the authorities of the Berlin Museum and executed at the Royal Press, is to supply the deficiency which has so long been felt, by printing a series of reproductions of the most excellent works of engraving by old masters; from the time of Andrea Mantegna to that of Earlom and Chodowieçki. Absolute fidelity, both in line and effect, has been achieved by the perfected methods of modern science: for copper-engravings the heliographic process, and for woodcuts that of zincography have been found completely adequate to produce such copies as were only distinguished by their newness from the best impressions of the original blocks and plates. The artistic success has been, indeed, so great that every sheet will be marked with the word facsimile, so as to obviate any possibilities of fraudulent manipulation.

The work will be issued in portfolios or volumes, each consisting of fifty plates, and each treated as a separate and independent book. Subscribers to the first, or to any other part, will not thereby be bound to take the rest; although it will be found desirable to acquire the entire series of parts in order to possess the advantages of a full representative collection of specimens. This is recognisable from the contents of the first portfolio, which, as will be seen, must be regarded as a miscellaneous contribution to the total scheme; and each succeeding part will form a supplementary group of similar multifariousness. Only when the entire project has been carried out, will it be possible to arrange the collection in its proper chronological sequence. The short biographical details which are given in the lists of contents, accompanying the fuller form of the inscriptions found on the plates, will be found useful for the purpose of such an arrangement.

Price of each Portfolio, £5. 5s.

Fitzgerald (Edward) Portrait of the Translator of the Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam, etched by Costello, 2*s* 6*d* 1886

PROFESSOR COWELL writes as follows:

"CAMBRIDGE, April 3*rd*, 1886.

"MY DEAR SIR,—I am very much obliged to you for the portrait of Edward Fitzgerald which you have kindly sent me. The portrait vividly brings back my dear old Friend to me. We shall never look upon his like again. "I remain, yours sincerely, E. B. COWELL."

Issued under the direction of Mr. GEORGE WILLIAM REID, F.S.A., Keeper of Prints and Drawings in British Museum, by permission of the Trustees.

Fac-simile Reproduction of the Works of the ITALIAN ENGRAVERS OF THE XVTH CENTURY.

This Series commences with the three illustrations to IL MONTE SANCTO DI DIO, published at Florence in 1477, which have been assigned to Baccio Baldini, executed from designs by SANDRO BOTTICELLI, followed by

The twenty illustrations to the DIVINA COMEDIA of DANTE, which have also been assigned to the same artists, and were published by Landino at Florence in 1481.

The six engravings to the TRIUMPHS of PETRARCH, attributed by Adam Bartsch to NICOLETTO DE MODENA, but which more probably were the conceptions of FRA FILIPPO LIPPI,—together 29 engravings, reproduced in exact facsimile from copperplates, with text, in portfolio, nearly out of print, £1. 10*s* 1883

As an indication of the extreme care which is being taken in selecting the best prints for these reproductions, it may be stated that the Dante Series comprises examples chosen from seven different copies of the work.

To show the high value set upon these early works of art, the Royal Library of Berlin paid £1200 for a proof set of the plates to Dante, and the Trustees of the British Museum have purchased a set of early impressions of the Triumphs which came from the Sunderland Library at Blenheim at the price of £2050.

Fagan's WILLIAM FAITHORNE: A Descriptive Catalogue of the Engraved Works of William Faithorne, by Louis Fagan, impl. 8vo. xiii and 104 pp. cloth, 21*s* 1888

——— the same, VELLUM PAPER, impl. 8vo. bd. £2. 2*s* 1888

"Mr. Fagan's compilation attests his industry and the ample resources to which he has had access in the British Museum, which is peculiarly well endowed with specimens of Faithorne. One of the best draughtsmen of his time, Faithorne left his work on the practical methods of his art in this country, and may be said to have secured, if he did not lay the foundation of, that great reputation which it enjoyed in the middle of the last and the earlier part of the present century."—The Athenæum, August 18th, 1888.

Falconry: HARTING'S BIBLIOTHECA ACCIPITRARIA: A Catalogue of Books, Ancient and Modern, relating to Falconry; with Critical Notes, GLOSSARY and POLYGLOTT VOCABULARY, by JAMES EDMUND HARTING, Librarian to the Linnean Society of London, 1 vol. 8vo. viii and 254 pp. with 16 plates of famous Falconers, the frontispiece in colours, Roxburghe, subscription price, £1. 11*s* 6*d* 1891

Only 300 copies are printed.

Falconry, like other Field Sports, has its literature. It would be strange if it were not so; for, on turning over the pages of the world's history, it is apparent that for centuries it has played a conspicuous part amongst the diversions of people of all nations.

But the literature of the subject has been much neglected. The older treatises in all languages have become scarce and costly, and of the rest the booksellers are unable to supply, or even to name, a tithe of them.

This, perhaps, is partly due to the circumstances that no Bibliography of Falconry having any claim to completeness exists.

"Historicall Expostulation" of John Halle, Chyrurgeon, A.D. 1565.

1 volume 12mo. 340 pp. with 29 cuts of Monsters, and a complete Index, cloth, gilt top.

The superstitions relating to the Animal World have been so marvellous, and Travellers' tales have so greatly assisted, that it was a happy idea of the author to group them here systematically, and to give invariably his authorities. There is only one fabulous animal absent in this Encyclopædia, and that is the Sea Serpent.

Most of the stories about these fabulous Animals are very amusing.

The folklorist will have a treasure in adding this volume to his Library.

20 AUDUBON (J. J.) BIRDS OF AMERICA, double elephant folio, a selection of 245 (of 435) of the superb coloured plates contained in this monumental work, well bound in two volumes, half dark green morocco, gilt edges London, 1827-49 — 48 0 0

Containing plates 2-250, minus 6, 11, 83, and 234

An important addition to any ornithological collection. Complete copies are difficult to obtain and beyond the reach of most collectors or public libraries. The mere fragments of the book which occasionally appear are in most cases too insignificant to be desirable; the above however is sufficiently extensive to worthly represent the work, and so cheap to bring it within the means of the majority of buyers.

The present bibliography possesses, it is believed, four features of novelty:—the better representation of the title-page by the use of Roman and Italic capitals as well as ordinary type; the mention of the chief type used in each book; the furnishing of the first words of certain pages, to facilitate the identification of imperfect copies; and the insertion of actual pages of books printed at Oxford, selected from works which are cheap and common.

273 THE TEXT OF THE PAPYRUS OF ANI, the BOOK OF THE DEAD: The Egyptian Text, with interlinear transliteration and translation, a running translation, introduction, etc. by E. A. WALLIS BUDGE, LITT.D., stout 4to. half bound Trustees of the British Museum, 1895 1 10 0

The Papyrus of Ani, which was acquired by the Trustees of the British Museum in the year 1888, is the largest, the most perfect, the best preserved, and the best illuminated of all the papyri which date from the second half of the XVIIIth dynasty (about B.C. 1500 to 1400). Its rare vignettes, and hymns, and chapters, and its descriptive and introductory rubrics render it of unique importance for the study of the Book of the Dead, and it takes a high place among the authoritative texts of the Theban version of that remarkable work. Although it contains less than one-half of the chapters which are commonly assigned to that version, we may conclude that Ani's exalted official position as Chancellor of the ecclesiastical revenues and endowments of Abydos and Thebes would have insured a selection of such chapters as would suffice for his spiritual welfare in the future life. We may therefore regard the Papyrus of Ani as typical of the funeral book in vogue among the Theban nobles of his time.

The first edition of the facsimile of the papyrus was issued in 1890, and was accompanied by a valuable introduction by Mr. Le Page Renouf, then Keeper of the Department of Egyptian and Assyrian Antiquities. But, in order to satisfy a widely expressed demand for a translation of the text, the present volume has been prepared to be issued with the second edition of the facsimile. It contains the hieroglyphic text of the papyrus with interlinear transliteration and word for word translation, a full description of the vignettes, and a running translation; and in the introduction an attempt has been made to illustrate from native Egyptian sources the religious views of the wonderful people who more than five thousand years ago proclaimed the resurrection of a spiritual body and the immortality of the soul.

332	——— the same, 6 vols. in 4, 4to. LARGE PAPER, fine copy, russia extra, from J. Lane's library, with his bookplate engraved by W. Hogarth (1795) Only 25 copies of this work were printed on Large Paper. In this copy pages 205 to 212 of the Second Section of Vol. I occur twice, the arrangement in each impression being quite different. Pages 210-11 are omitted (as is usual) from the second impression, which is marked *Dd, and is evidently a cancel, though bibliographers apparently have not mentioned such. The first impression, the cancelled leaves, must be very rare. The "Plan of the form of Jersey" mentioned in the List of Plates as belonging to Vol. IV, and declared by Upcott and Lowndes to have never been printed, is evidently nothing but the woodcut on page 80 of that volume, to which position the List assigns it.	27	10	0

A triumph of calligraphy and decorative ornamentation. The writing is a beautiful minute Ta'lik, with twenty-five lines to the column, and there are four columns on each page. There are two splendid 'Anwáns, the one occupying the first two pages of the preface, the other the first two pages of the text. The preface is the long one. Between it and the text, there are lists of Pahlvi and ancient Persian words occurring in the Shahnâma.

At the Gennadius sale (April, 1895) at Sotheby's a MS. of ONLY HALF the Shah Nama sold for the enormous sum of £116, and was bought by a dealer.

28 THE CAMBRIDGE SHAKESPEARE: Edition de Luxe, edited by Dr. Aldis Wright, the set in 40 volumes, 8vo. 1893-94 12 0 0

Already published: Vol. I, The Tempest; Vol. II, Two Gentlemen of Verona; Vol. III, The Merry Wives of Windsor; Vol. IV, Measure for Measure; Vol. V, The Comedy of Errors; Vol. VI, Much Ado about Nothing; Vol. VII, Love's Labour Lost; Vol. VIII, A Midsummer Night's Dream.

As a rule an édition de luxe suggests something for show rather than for use; this edition is an exception, and is as useful as it is beautiful. When it was first announced we were inclined to think—having the nine-volume edition before us—that it would be merely superfluous; that a few amateurs of costly books might like to place it on their shelves and allow it to remain there undisturbed, while students would be fully satisfied with, and, indeed, for use might prefer the ordinary edition. Having now examined the first four volumes of this fine issue, we believe that in a library containing both editions it will be the édition de luxe that will be most in use. A separate volume for each play, and that volume, though much taller and broader, yet light enough to be used as a "handy" volume, must inevitably obtain the preference. We congratulate all concerned in this publication on what must be an assured success, and can only regret that the issue being limited, must soon become inaccessible to the public generally."—The Athenæum, December 2nd, 1893.

The greater part of the book was written in 1645; but the additions were made from time to time.

A DICTIONARY OF ENGLISH BOOK-COLLECTORS, 6 parts impl. 8vo. portraits, facsimiles, bookplates, etc. each part 1*s* 6*d* 1892-95

"The sixth Part of the valuable and much-needed 'Dictionary of English Book-Collectors,' which we owe to the enterprise of Mr. Bernard Quaritch, is typical enough of the interest that attaches to the undertaking to attract all lovers and collectors of books. It deals with some eminent collectors and the choicest of their treasures. There is the genial economist, J. R. McCulloch (the diverting MacQueedy of Thomas Love Peacock), whom Cobbett always perversely styled Peter, instead of John Ramsay. Of him Mr. Quaritch gives an interesting sketch, with facsimiles of letters, selected list of his books, and a portrait. There are that 'truly royal collector,' Mr. John Dent, and Sir William Tite, and the Rev. Theodore Williams, not to mention Mr. Christopher Hodges, whose joy was in the writings of 'those chaste ladies Mrs. Behn and Mrs. Centlivre,' and in a kind of French novel since become excessively hard to get."—Saturday Review, April 20th, 1895.

The Greek Church: G. V. SHANN'S EUCHOLOGY, a Manual of Prayers of the Holy Orthodox Church done into English, 12mo. xxxii and 324 pp. (pub. at 10*s*), cloth. 5*s* Kidderminster, 1894

An important work for the scholar who wishes to compare the prayers of the Greek with those of the Anglican Church.

"Euchology" is a Manual of Prayers of the Holy Orthodox Church, and containing the Offices of Vespers, Compline, Nocturns, Matins, Prime, Terce, Sext, and None; Hymns at the Celebration of the Divine Liturgy; Prayers before receiving Holy Communion, and Thanksgivings after; a full Sunday Service, and one of Penitence; the Office of the Passion of the Lord on Good Friday; the Hours and Vespers on that day, as also the Matins and Vespers on Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday; Commemorations for all Sundays and Week Days, and for the principal Festivals throughout the year; the rules for the recitation of the Psalter; Tables of Epistles and Gospels for Sundays and the Greater Festivals; and a complete Kalendar, with chronological notes for fifty years.

The Guardian, in a series of Articles on "The Offices of the Eastern Church," which have appeared in the numbers for October 7th, 21st, November 4th, December 2nd, and January 20th, and are to be continued, says on October 7th, "Mr. Shann's book gives us the most complete version which has yet appeared in English of the Eastern Canonical Hours."

The Church Times, August 14th. "All interested in the subject will cordially welcome the publication." . . . The Services "all contain prayers, hymns, colloquies, &c., which impress and charm us with the wondrous beauty both of the thoughts expressed in them, and of the language in which those thoughts are clothed."

The Church Quarterly, October. "We welcome anything which may help to make Greek and English Churchmen better known to each other. Such books as these lately published by . . . and Mr. Shann are among such helps. We commend them to the notice of such of our readers as may not have been able to acquaint themselves with the Horologion and the Euchologion in the original. They will interest them deeply."

The Scottish Standard Bearer, August. "This 'Manual of Prayers of the Holy Orthodox Church' has been 'done into English' by Mr. Shann with the greatest painstaking and ability."

"In its latest issue—a facsimile of a MS. Sarum Gradual preserved in the British Museum—the Plainsong Society has evidently been fortunate in finding an editor who has evidently spared neither time nor pains in the work before him. Mr. Frere has approached his task in a spirit which the most rigid Benedictine would approve. His introduction is an admirable essay towards the history and development of the Latin Mass as exemplified in the use of Sarum. In the absence of any definite information as to the original form of the Gregorian Antiphonale Missarum, the editor has used the internal evidence afforded by the MS. before him to show how, by a gradual process of additions from outside, the original Antiphonale assumed the state in which it is found in the thirteenth century, carrying his sketch of the development of the Sanctorale on to the fifteenth century, and thus showing how the purely English Festivals maintained their place by the side of those introduced by the gradually centralizing power exercised by Rome."—The Saturday Review, November 4th, 1893.

Spanish and Portuguese Books:

BIBLIOTHECA HISPANA, a Catalogue of Books in Castilian, Catalan, Portuguese, one vol. 8vo. 250 pp. 2448 articles, 1*s*; or, LARGE PAPER, impl. 8vo. with a preface, hf. morocco, 15*s* 1895

"Mr. Quaritch favoured us with his 'Bibliotheca Hispana,' a most enticing catalogue of books in 'Castilian, Catalan, Portuguese, or otherwise of Spanish interest.' The rarities comprised in this attractive volume are of such quality and diversity as must fire the enthusiasm of all kinds of book-lovers. Of the 'Celestino' there are twenty-one examples, including the only copy known of the first edition of this remarkable drama (Burgos, 1499), and the first edition of the rare Italian translation (Rome, 1506). There are twenty examples of the 'Chronicle of the Cid,' including the first edition printed at Burgos, 1512. Other excessively rare books are the peerless romance 'Florando de Ynglaterra' (Lisbon, 1495); the first edition of 'Tirant lo Blanch' (Valencia, 1490); the 'Vita Beata' of Juan de Lucena, first edition (Zamora, 1483); and the only extant copy of the first edition of Amadis de Gaul (Zaragoza, 1508)."—Saturday Review, April 20th, 1895.

The Old Engraved Dresden Gallery:

RECUEIL D'ESTAMPES D'APRES LES PLUS CÉLÈBRES TABLEAUX DE LA GALÉRIE ROYALE DE DRESDE, 3 vols. atlas folio, three Portraits, plans, and 150 very large and beautiful engravings after the Old Masters, executed by Canale, Kilian, Folkema, Houbraken, Ridinger, Tanjé, Basan, Beauvarele and all the best artists of that time; half green morocco, £18. Dresde, 1753-57-1874

This beautiful reprint of the first and second volumes is carefully executed from the original copper-plates; the descriptive letterpress, in French, being revised and corrected. Of the third there is but one issue, viz. that of 1874, moreover very few more copies were printed than would suffice to range with the reprinted first and second volumes—as a consequence many original copies lack this all-important volume.

☞ Owners of copies of the original issue may secure the third volume, unbound, uncut, for £10.

Gardens and Gardening:

The first of the two volumes composing the work will probably appear early in the summer. The Athenæum says:—

"The Hon. Alicia M. T. Amherst and Mr. Percy E. Newberry have in preparation a work on the history of English gardening. The first part of the book, that dealing with the period extending from the Roman conquest to the end of the 16th century, will be a republication in chapter form, and with considerable additions, of a series of articles by Mr. Newberry which appeared in the Gardeners' Chronicle in 1888, 1889, and 1890."—Times, November 12th, 1892.

Gilbert (William) of Colchester, Physician of London, on the LOADSTONE and MAGNETIC BODIES, and on the great magnet of the Earth. A new physiology demonstrated with many arguments and experiments. A translation by P. FLEURY MOTTELAY, 8vo. portrait, figures, and numerous facsimiles, cloth, 17*s* 6*d* New York and London, 1893

The translation De Magnete has been a task of no ordinary difficulty; it has brought up problems innumerable, the solution of which has involved much laborious research—as the result was meant to be a clear and competent presentation of the author in idiomatic English, and not merely a substitution of English words for Latin. Nor would I have ventured to appear as the English interpreter of the great Gilbert, "father of the Magnetic philosophy," but for the hearty encouragement and very material aid, in translating and otherwise, extended by many literary and scientific friends, amongst whom must be especially mentioned Mr. Joseph Fitzgerald, Mr. E. McMillan, Mr. Josepy Wetzler, Dr. Joseph V. Livingstone, Hon. Park Benjamin, and Prof. Alfred H. Mayer. I am likewise indebted to Prof. Chas. Sanders Pierce, to Mr. Latimer Clark, F.R.S., to Dr. Isaac H. Hall, and to Dr. Charlton T. Lewis for valuable suggestions as to the general treatment of the work; and, in the word of the celebrated mathematician, Edward Wright, I doubt not that our united efforts "will find the heartiest approval among all intellectual men and children of the magnetic science."

"The year 1600," observes the English historian Henry Hallam, "was the first in which England produced a remarkable work in Physical Science; but this was one sufficient to raise a lasting reputation for its author. Gilbert, a physician, in his treatise on the Magnet, not only collected all the knowledge which others possessed on the subject, but became at once the father of experimental philosophy in this island; and, by a singular felicity and acuteness of genius, the founder of theories, which have been revived after a lapse of ages, and are almost received into the creed of Science. . . . Gilbert was one of the earliest Copernicans—at least as to the rotation of the earth—and, with his usual sagacity, inferred, before the invention of the telescope, that there are a multitude of fixed stars beyond the reach of our vision."

While Dr. Whewell observes that "Gilbert's work contains all the fundamental facts of the science, so fully examined, indeed, that even at this day we have very little to add to them," Dr. Thomas Thomson says that De Magnete "is one of the finest examples of inductive philosophy that has ever been presented to the world." Poggendorff, from whose "Geschichte der Physik" (page 286) this is extracted, calls Gilbert "the Galileo of Magnetism." By Dr. Priestley he was named "the father of modern electricity."

In an article written not long since, Mr. Conrad W. Cooke, of London, notes the high opinion of Gilbert's work entertained—more particularly by Nathaniel Carpenter, William Barlowe, Francis Bacon, Galileo, and Humboldt, and he adds: "There is abundant testimony extant that this De Magnete of Gilbert's produced a profound sensation, not only in this country but throughout the then civilized world; and it is a singularly curious fact that the brilliancy of a reputation so great and so original should have been allowed in subsequent generations to have been lost sight of."—Preface.

(Edited by Henry G. Bohn, and arranged according to the dates of publication, so as to be applicable to all collections), 8vo. hf. bound morocco, uniform with the folio volume of Caricatures to which it refers, £1. 1851

——— the 3 vols. together uniformly bound, £9. 10*s* 1849-51

GILLRAY STANDS AT THE HEAD OF ALL CARICATURISTS.—The Quarterly Review thus speaks of him: "Gillray was marked out, as it were, predestined for his career by an extraordinary assemblage of qualities: wit, humour, fancy, imagination, boldness of conception and execution, inexhaustible fertility and variety, intuitive knowledge of mankind, and unerring quickness of perception, which enabled him to catch the passing follies and fleeting fashions of the gay world, as well as the intrigues, corruption, and maladministration of the great. He was A PAINTER OF MANNERS as well as A POLITICAL CARICATURIST, and during the long period covered by his sketches there is hardly a marked step in social progress, hardly a change of costume or national caprice of any kind, that is not fixed and recorded for the amusement of contemporaries and the edification of posterity."

Giles (H. A.) Gems of Chinese Literature; fcap. 8vo. xvi and 254 pp. extra cloth, 7s 6d 1883

This work contains over a hundred extracts from some sixty of the most famous Chinese authors of all ages, thus forming an introduction to the general literature of China.—Academy, November 3rd, 1883.

Giles' Glossary of Reference on Subjects connected with the FAR EAST, by Herbert A. Giles, H.B.M. Vice-Consul, Shanghai, a revised and enlarged edition of a work which the same author published in 1878, 8vo. bds. 7s 6d 1886

"No man can feel at ease in a society until he has caught up its shibboleth, and although Anglo-Chinese society jargon cannot for a moment compare with the Pidgin English used in India, yet there are many expressions wholly unintelligible to a new arrival, and which the compilation presented to the public by Mr. H. A. Giles is intended to elucidate. But at the same time, the 'Glossary of Reference' contains a large amount of information relating to Chinese customs and numerous historical details, which render the perusal of Mr. Giles's work as interesting as it is instructive."—Morning Post, May 27th, 1886.

Glass-Painting: Les Vitraux de la Cathédrale de BOURGES postérieurs au XIIIe siècle, texte et dessins par ALBERT DES MÉLOIZES, Secrétaire de la Société des Antiquaires du Centre,—Inspecteur de la Société Française d'Archéologie, avec une Introduction par E. DE BEAUREPAIRE, Secrétaire Général de la Société Francaise d'Archoélogie et des Antiquaires de Normandie. The volume will appear in 10 livraisons consisting of 30 superb plates in chromo-lithography, atlas folio, with descriptive text. The price per part is 16*s* payable on delivery, or £7. 10*s* for the whole work paid in advance—7 parts are out.

The great work of Cahier and Martin on the Vitraux Peints de Bourges having become extremely rare, this new work will be welcome to all who take an interest in the History of Glass-Painting during its highest state of perfection.

Les vitraux des XIIe et XIIIe siècles à la cathédrale de Bourges ont fait l'objet d'une publication célèbre depuis longtemps épuisée; la monographie de cette cathédrale par les P. P. CAHIER ET MARTIN. Mais toute une série de splendides verrières, se rapportant aux époques postérieures, n'avaient jamais été reproduites. Ce sont elles que nous publions dans le même format que l'ouvrage des savants Jésuites, dont le nôtre forme un complément indispensable.

Ici les questions de symbolisme, dominantes au XIIe et au XIIIe siècles, font à peu près défaut; mais les vitraux du XIVe au XVIIe siècle reproduisent avec quelques légendes sacrées des figures de saints ou de personnages profanes qui soulèvent des questions d'art, d'histoire, de mœurs, de costumes et autres dont l'étude est des plus attrayantes.

Le duc JEAN DE BERRY avait attiré à sa cour les plus grands artistes de son temps que ses familiers employèrent après lui, et Bourges fut, sous cette influence, le siège d'un mouvement artistique considérable. Favorisé plus tard par JACQUES CŒUR, il florissait encore au XVIe siècle, époque à laquelle, parmi de nombreux peintres locaux, brille au premier rang JEHAN LESCUYER, dont un auteur ancien a dit, en parlant de ses œuvres, que "les peintres peuvent les étudier comme les sculpteurs étudient le Laocoon du Vatican et l'Hercule de Farnèse." On comprend l'intérêt que présentent des œuvres d'art dûes à de telles inspirations.

Gruner's Italian Fresco Paintings: FRESCO DECORATIONS and Stuccoes of CHURCHES and PALACES in ITALY during the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries, a splendid volume, imp. folio, frontispiece and 55 very large, elaborate and most interesting engravings, after the original Paintings of Raphael, Giulio Romano, Giovanni da Udine, Baldassare Peruzzi, Sebastian del Piombo, Correggio, Moretto, Ambrogio da Fasano, Bramantino, Bernardino, Luini, Pinturicchio, &c. several ELABORATELY PRINTED IN COLOURS, and coloured key-plates are given to show the colouring of the rest; with DESCRIPTIVE TEXT and an Essay by J. J. HITTORFF, on the Arabesques of the Ancients, as compared with those of Raphael and his School (pub. £8. 8*s*), hf. bd. red morocco, gilt edges, £6. 6*s* 1845

all the frescoes coloured by hand, atlas folio, red mor. extra, by Bedford, in a leather case, £80. 1854

This magnificent work is no less valuable to the Architect than to the Painter. It does not profess (says the Quarterly Review in an elaborate article) to exhibit fresh decorative painting in that highest walk chosen by Michael Angelo and Raffaelle (except as a handmaid), but as a purely decorative Art and subservient to Architecture. Owing its very existence to the exigencies of the sovereign art, and deriving its appropriate locality, scale and effect from the edifice, it no less assists the Architecture, in return, by its arabesques and other tasteful accessories.

Gubbins (J. H.) Dictionary of Chinese-JAPANESE WORDS in the Japanese Language, 3 vols. 12mo. cloth, 21*s*

Tokio, 1889

"Instead of seeking rare lacunæ amid a mass of novel information our fairer function as critics is to express admiration of the wide research and accurate scholarship displayed by Mr. Gubbins. It is a genuine pleasure to any earnest student to have such a work laid before him, and that its publication will immensely facilitate the study of Japanese there cannot be a moment's doubt. Everyone reading the literature of the day in Japan is confronted by the difficult task of finding exact English equivalents for many new words although their meaning may be sufficiently intelligible. With Mr. Gubbins Dictionary beside one this trouble is virtually at an end. . . .

"It is entirely alone in its own branch, and so thoroughly has its author appropriated the field by the excellence of his work that he may confidently count on remaining without rivals."—Japan Mail, October, 1889.

"All these shortcomings I have here indicated are, however, completely cast into shadow when we consider the excellent arrangement of the Dictionary, its copiousness of words, its appropriateness of English translation, and otherwise its general adaptability to the purpose for which it is intended."—Hayday Papers of the 4th July, 1892.

Haité's Plant Studies, royal folio, comprising Fifty Plates of Plants, their Stems, Leaves, Flowers, and Fruit, with Descriptive Text, (pub. at £3. 3*s*), hf. bd. morocco, 30*s* 1884-5

☞ Her Royal Highness the Princess Louise has expressed her approval of Mr. Haité's designs, and has accepted the dedication of the work.

CONTENTS:

First Part:—Introductory Remarks. Description of Plates. Butterfly-part. Plate 1, Garden Peas. Plate 2, Nasturtium. Plate 3, Apple. Plate 4, Canterbury Bell. Plate 5, Sunflower.

Second Part	Naturalesque Flowers.	Seventh Part	Peacock Feathers.
Third „	Decorative Figure.	Eighth „	Landscapes amid Flowers.
Fourth „	Japanesque.	Ninth „	Fruit and Flowers.
Fifth „	Shell and Seaweed, etc.	Tenth „	Ornaments, Floral.
Sixth „	Conventional Flowers.

"Mr. Haité's 'Plant Studies,' the first instalment of which has just been published by Mr. Quaritch, have a good object. He has evidently been shocked, as who has not? by the incorrect and even reckless delineations of plants and flowers which are seen in so many art productions of the present day. Perhaps the most terrible sinners in this respect are the concocters of Christmas cards. Not merely for these, however, but for all the designers and workers in wood, metal, stone, pottery, and glass, Mr. Haité provides a sketch-book such as each artist might wish he had made for himself, in which are exhibited, life-size, the foliage, flower, and fruit of the fifty plants which he considers best adapted to decorative purposes. The garden pea, nasturtium, apple, Canterbury bell, and sunflower have each a plate in the present number, and the drawing is so good that it is to be hoped it may find its way into the hands of many professionals as well as amateurs."—Pall Mall Gazette, December 27th, 1883.

"These are sketches for artists, designers, and art students. The sketches are well executed and cannot fail to accomplish the purpose for which they are intended."—The Pottery Gazette, March 1st, 1884.

Hapgood's Epic Songs of Russia, 8vo. bds. 5*s*

N. York, 1886

"Even Russia is a great country, and it is with genuine pleasure that we have perused Miss Isabel Hapgood's book. 'The Epic Songs of Russia' (Bernard Quaritch) is, as Professor Child says, a spirited and sympathetic version of the more important of the great Russian popular heroic songs, and it is, we believe, correctly affirmed that nothing of the same kind and compass has been published in any language of Western Europe. Criticism is not necessary and, in fact, we cannot pretend to criticize, but it may be remarked that these poems will help to dissipate the illusion—if it exists—that the Russian people are entirely without imagination. Whether the success of the volume will be sufficient to repay Miss Hapgood for her trouble and research is, perhaps, doubtful, though her work is published simultaneously in London and New York. But let no one suppose that it is dull; some of the songs are as humorous as they are quaint, and all will help more or less to assist the student of Russian character."—London Figaro, November 13th, 1886.

An Idyl, a Pictorial-Music-Play, the music composed and the play illustrated by Hubert Herkomer, R.A., the lyrics by Joseph Bennett (London and New York, Novello, Ewer, and Co.), is a very sumptuous volume and a very remarkable proof of the versatility and artistic skill of the accomplished artist who is its illustrator, composer, and principal author. As the play was acted in June, 1889, at the Herkomer Theatre, at Bushey, and commented on by us at the time, we need not revert to it now. The principal interest of the present volume consists in 16 beautiful and characteristic etchings, with which the author has enriched it. They are full of grace and vigour.—The Times, March 5th, 1891.

This invaluable volume will assist the student and collector in using the several volumes of which the Series now consists, and will enable him to ascertain at a glance whether and where a book, tract, or broadside is to be found. It is a labour which Mr. Gray has undertaken con amore, and reflects the highest honour on his industry, discernment, and literary zeal.

"A mere cursory glance through these volumes will afford a slight idea of their comprehensive and exhaustive character. In the second series, for example, there are fifty-four closely-printed columns relating to Charles I., and ten and a half columns to 'London,' from 1541 to 1794.

"Scotland, again, has over twenty-one columns, whilst much space is devoted to James I, Ireland, England, Elizabeth, and France. Third and final series appeared in 1886, and this is now followed by 'Supplements to the Third and Final Series.'"—HAZLITT, The Bookworm, November, 1889.

"I have exhausted nearly all our public and private libraries, and all the yield of the auction-rooms and the booksellers' catalogues within the interval of 25 years.

"It may therefore be truly predicated of the Collections and Notes, 1876-89, that they offer to all those interested in such inquiries an enormous accumulation of steady and patient gatherings, and for purposes of reference afford a repertory quite unsurpassed in our own, and I believe, in any other literature.

"During the past thirty years I have acted on the conviction that a 'Bibliography of Early English Literature' should contain, in the first place, a full and exact transcript of the title, imprint, and colophon, if any, the collation by signatures, a note indicating any special feature about the volume described, and, where the work was of unusual rarity or importance, a clue to its whereabouts, and a statement of the prices realized by the copy or copies of it, if such have been submitted to public auction, or passed from one hand to another by private treaty."—W. CAREW HAZLITT, The Antiquary, October, 1889.

This valuable book of Arabian and Old Italian Ornament is quite out of print; a few copies have just come into my possession. The book is little known to Architects and Decorative Artists.

Hogarth's Works: a fine series of original impressions of the plates engraved by and after this great English master, including many in the first state, with later impressions added, to show the variations: in all 250 prints, neatly mounted, on drab drawing paper, arranged for binding in four volumes, £90. 1717-1803

HOGARTH'S WORKS, from the original plates restored by Heath, with descriptions by J. Nichols, atlas folio, 150 plates, £10. 1822

HOGARTH'S WORKS, engraved by himself, 153 fine plates including the two well-known "suppressed plates," with elaborate letterpress descriptions, by J. NICHOLS, atlas folio, clear impressions (pub. at £50.), elegantly hf. bound, morocco extra, full gilt back and gilt edges, with a secret pocket for the suppressed plates, £7. 1822

Besides the two suppressed plates, every purchaser will be entitled to a small snuff-box engraving of the same character, which is not yet in any of the Hogarthian collections.

Nearly £1000 have been expended in money and time to render the copies now offered for sale worthy of the genius of Hogarth. The present impressions are quite as good as those issued early this century. Whoever wishes to satisfy himself can compare the present copies with plates issued until lately.

Holland (Sir Richard) Buke of the Howlat (in Verse) edited (with a valuable historical preface) and presented to the Bannatyne Club by David Laing, PRINTED ON VELLUM IN black letter, UNIQUE, with MAGNIFICENT BORDERS AND VIGNETTES, exquisitely illuminated in gold and colours, by William Penny of Mid-Calder, A BEAUTIFUL SPECIMEN OF THE ARTIST'S SKILL, green morocco super extra, £90. Edinb. 1823

This allegorical Scottish poem was written about 1453, and preserves many peculiarities of ancient English metrical composition which were already obsolete. It is largely devoted to the expression of eulogies on the house of Douglas—"the lineage of the Bleeding Heart;" and has therefore been supposed to embody a satire on the King, James II, who had slain Earl William, and with whom the Douglases were at feud.

The name of the artist, William Penny, is almost unknown, but by the few who have seen his performances he is recognized as an extraordinary genius. Both in fancy and in execution, the drawings with which he has embellished "the Howlat" are exquisitely perfect.

Only 500 copies of the work, which is already in the press, will be printed.

P.S.—If the success of the present work should be assured, it is proposed to issue another volume, illustrating the Stall-Plates of the Tudor Period (1485-1603).

THE HUTH LIBRARY CATALOGUE: A Catalogue of the printed Books, Manuscripts, Autograph Letters, and Engravings, collected by HENRY HUTH, with collations and bibliographical descriptions, 5 vols. imperial 8vo. portrait, hf. morocco, top edges gilt, £5. 1880

This Catalogue is made with so much bibliographical accuracy and fulness of detail that it cannot fail to be useful to students and amateurs throughout Europe and America. Most of the copies are already ordered, and prompt application will now be necessary to secure one.

Mr. Huth's Library is rich in illuminated MSS. of the most splendid character, and in choice and magnificent specimens of Mediæval and Oriental art. Mr. Huth's collection of Bibles is singularly full; comprising almost every rare edition which is coveted by amateurs. As much may be said of the section containing Works of Travel and Voyages, and including most of the rare pieces which marked the advance of geographical discovery in America and in the East. The rare books in German and Spanish Literature—two favourite classes with Mr. Huth—are sufficient in themselves to stamp his library as one of exceptional importance; but his collection of English books in fine bindings is unrivalled: it may be said that in Shakspeariana, and generally in large and well preserved examples of the literature of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, it stands facile princeps.

Huth. A New Portrait of Mr. Henry Huth. A Proof Impression, on India paper, of this fine steel-engraving, may be had, at 5*s* 1892

Engraved from a drawing by Mr. T. D. Scott, after a photograph by Lenthall; and giving an admirable likeness of the deceased collector. The work has been done by Messrs. Walker and Boutall.

The Old East India Company.

THE REGISTER OF LETTERS

OF THE

Gobernour and Company of Merchants of London trading into THE EAST INDIES,

1600–1619,

EDITED BY

SIR GEORGE BIRDWOOD, M.D., K.C.I.E.,

ASSISTED BY

WILLIAM FOSTER, B.A.

One stout volume 8vo. Introduction, lxxxiv pp.; the Letters, pp. 1-504; the Index, 505-530; the Trade mark, designed by G. Haité, one leaf; cloth, £2. 2*s* Bernard Quaritch, 1893

Only 200 copies printed for sale.

THIS Register of Letters, hidden in obscurity for near 300 years, gives the best picture of the early English trade operations which led to the establishment of the power of the East India Company.

A carefully made Index makes these valuable Letters a ready book of reference.

The official value of the volume consists in the early date and important character of the documents it contains. Over one-fourth of them are of the first six years (1600 to 1606) of the existence of the "London East India Company," commonly called "The Old East India Company," a period of which the records have hitherto been extremely meagre.

The volume covers all the "Separate Voyages," and the first seven years of their "Joint Stock Voyages," for a list of them see page xiv.

The contemporary influence of the Company's early Voyages is to be traced even in the plays of Shakespeare.

To the opium ranters SIR GEORGE BIRDWOOD replies "As for opium smoking, I am satisfied, from my own experience of it, that it is as innocuous as smoking hay, straw, or stubble; opium is one of the greatest gifts of Providence."

The interest and importance of these early Voyages and Adventures of the East India Company is boundless, and their influence on the destinies of the World indisputable.

As a result we have in the East our splendid Indian Empire. In the West, we see the greater part of the continent of North America peopled by the Anglo-Saxon race, due to the attempts organized by the Company to find a North-West passage, in 1602, which resulted in the discovery and colonization of New England. On pp. 21, 158, 190, etc., are the terms, agreements, and regulations for the Voyages to attempt the discovery of the North West passage which entitles this volume to a place in the libraries of American collectors.

Sir George Birdwood's Introduction gives a vivid description of the various forces employed in rearing our magnificent Eastern Empire, and points out the dangers to be encountered in maintaining it. He concludes by saying, "If the Spaniards have taken a just pride in celebrating the fourth centenary of the discovery of the Americas by Columbus, and the Portuguese are to follow them by celebrating the fourth centenary of the doubling of the Cape of Good Hope by Da Gama, is it too much to suggest that Englishmen should also bestir themselves for the celebration of the third centenary of the 'Old' East India Company's 'First Voyage' in 1601?"

India:

"Mr. Quaritch is bringing out for the India Office a volume containing a selection of letters addressed, between 1600 and 1619, to the London East-India Company, by their agents at Bombay, Surat, and elsewhere in the East. These letters, many of which have never before been published, have been selected by Mr. W. Foster, of the Record Department of the India Office, and the collection is being produced under the general supervision of Sir George Birdwood."—The Athenæum, November 5th, 1892.

The Cyclopædia of India and of Eastern and Southern ASIA, Commercial, Industrial, and Scientific, by Surgeon-General EDWARD BALFOUR, third edition, 3 vols. 8vo. cloth, £5. 5*s*, reduced to £1. 8*s* 1885

Journal of the National Indian Association, London, August, 1885.—"Three goodly sized handsome volumes having an aggregate of 3610 double columned pages, 35,000 articles, and 16,000 index headings. . . . There is scarcely a subject relating to India and Eastern and Southern Asia which has escaped more or less extended notice. There is no other work in the English language in which is brought together an equal amount of information on everything connected with India, her people arts, manufactures, and products. To the merchant and agriculturist, to the man of science, whether botanist, zoologist, geologist, or meteorologist, no less than to the Oriental scholar, the historian, and literary student, it cannot fail to prove of the highest service as a work of reference. It is well deserving of a place in the library of every one interested in or connected with India."

HUNTER (Sir W. W.) IMPERIAL GAZETTEER OF INDIA, second and greatly enlarged edition, 14 vols. 8vo. (pub. at £3. 3*s*) neatly hf. bd. morocco, £1. 10*s* India Office, 1885-87

This is one of the monuments of British Rule in India, and records on every page the ability of that grand body the Indian Civil Service. The articles were specially written by the different District officers throughout India and give details of the topography, political administration, agriculture, commerce, antiquities and ethnology of the various places described.

In this work India is thoroughly revealed to English readers for the first time. Districts and towns, far from railways and the beaten tracts of tourists, and hitherto known only by occasional references in Government Reports, are in this work systematically described, and serve to illustrate the wonderful benefits that have accrued to the peoples of India from the British Rule.

Indian Fishes (the great work on):

DAY (Francis, Inspector-General of Fisheries in India) FISHES OF INDIA; being a natural History of the Fishes known to inhabit the Seas and Fresh Waters of India, Burma, and Ceylon, with Description of the Sub-Classes, Orders, Families, Genera, and Species, pp. 778, with SUPPLEMENT, pp. 779-812 and Index, 2 vols. impl. 4to. 198 plates comprising upwards of 1000 figures, and many woodcuts (pub. £12. 12*s*), Roxburghe, £3. 3*s* 1878-88

——— the Supplement, pp. 779-812 and Index, sold separately, sewed, 5*s* 1888

This work was prepared by order of H.M.'s Government of India. The specimens collected with a view to its compilation were at least 20,000 in number, and illustrative of nearly 900 species.

The preface gives an account of all the Naturalists who preceded the author in endeavouring to advance this branch of Natural History in the East, with comments on such matters connected therewith as seem to be of interest to the scientific public, or relate to the economic value of the Fisheries.

The Supplement contains many new piscine forms discovered in 1878-1888.

Indian Produce: WATT (Dr. Geo.) DICTIONARY of the ECONOMIC PRODUCTS of INDIA, 6 vols. royal 8vo. (vols. I-V ready), hf. calf, £3. 3*s* Calcutta, 1889-91

In the preparation of this work Dr. Watt had the co-operation of all the principal scientists of India, including Dr. King, C. B. Clarke, J. F. Duthie, and Dr. Trimen, while in England Sir J. D. Hooker and Prof. W. T. Thiselton Dyer gave material assistance.

The author in his preface says, "I have had to keep in view a twofold purpose, viz.: on the one hand to supply scientific information which may be useful to the administrative officer; and on the other, to meet the requirements of the reader in search of definite information regarding Indian economics." It may perhaps convey a not inadequate idea of the scope of the Dictionary to say that with this double purpose in view it is hoped that something may have been done to advance the material interests of India, and to bring the trade and capital of the West into more direct contact with the resources of the Empire.

SELECTIONS from the Letters, Despatches, and other STATE PAPERS preserved in the Foreign Department of the Government of India, 1772-85, edited by George W. Forrest, 3 vols. sm. folio, cloth, £1. 1*s* Calcutta, 1890

A highly important work, giving for the first time the real history of the governorship of Warren Hastings; from the official documents which had previously been unavailable to refute Macaulay's caricature of the subject. Prof. Forrest has done what the accused statesman was unable to do, and has furnished a vindication which, however tardy, is absolutely complete—so far at least as the scope of the Selections has extended. The editor has included a vast number of state papers, extending from 1772, the year in which Hastings became Governor of Bengal, to 1785, when he left India. Together with the editor's excellent Introduction the matter fills three large volumes, which will be found interesting alike to the Indian specialist and to the general student of history.—H. G. KEENE, in the Academy, August 2nd, 1890.

Ireland:

O'Connor (C.) Rerum Hibernicarum Scrip-

TORES veteres, quibus Editor præfixit: de Fontibus Historiæ genuinæ Hibernorum, eorumque Chronologia, deque antiquissimis Codicibus literis Hibernicis ante Sæculum X exaratis; Græcorum et Romanorum Testimonia, itemque S. Patricii Epistolæ, Ficci Hymnus, et Gildæ Modudii Carmen de Regibus Hiberniæ; domesticorum Annalium chronologicæ rationes, etc. 4 vols. 4to. facsimiles of Irish MSS. boards, £20.

Buckinghamiæ, 1814-26

Privately printed at the expense of the late Duke of Buckingham. Only 200 copies were issued, and these for presents. One or two copies have been sold in the last few years at constantly rising prices. The O'Connor copy, 4 vols. in boards, sold recently at Dublin for £105.

The expenses incurred by the Duke of Buckingham, for the researches and for the printing of these four volumes, exceeded the sum of £3000.

The work consists of the original Irish texts, with Latin translations, of the Hiberno-Celtic MSS., formerly in the Library of Stowe, but now added to the literary treasures of Ashburnham House, near Hastings, the Earl of Ashburnham having purchased the whole of the Stowe Collection of MSS. Dr. O'Connor refrained from inserting any work which had already been printed, and the entire series may be said to consist of important additions to the history and antiquities of Ireland, most of which were only previously known to us by name. Therefore, "Whether we consider the learning of O'Connor, the value of the materials, or the princely munificence of the Duke of Buckingham, at whose expense it was produced, it is without a parallel in modern literature."—Sir F. Palgrave, Rise of the English Commonwealth.

The organization and acts of the Confederation, established by a large portion of the Irish Nobility, Clergy, and people in the reign of Charles I, for the government of Ireland, through an elective representative body of their own selection, form important and as yet but little understood portions of history. Declaring their allegiance to the King, but resisting the authority of the English Parliament, the Confederates, through their Supreme Council, organized forces, nominated commanders and officials, collected revenue, levied taxes, minted coin, treated with foreign powers, and governed a considerable part of Ireland. The administration thus established was long maintained by the Confederates, not only in opposition to the Government at Dublin and to continuous hostile attacks from the English and Scotch settlers in Ireland, and those associated with them, but also against large military and naval forces despatched from England and Scotland.

CALENDAR OF ANCIENT RECORDS OF DUBLIN, in the possession of the Municipal Corporation of that city, by John T. Gilbert, F.S.A., 3 vols. 8vo. (vol. I. 21*s*, vol. II. 15*s*, vol. III. 15*s*), illustrated with coloured facsimiles and an ancient map of Dublin 1889-91

The Work is published by authority of the Municipal Council. No accurate accounts have hitherto been published of these records, which commence in the twelfth century, and are amongst the most important now extant for illustrating portions of Irish history, social life, commerce, municipal administration, and progress of the people in Ireland in former times. In the present volumes, a comprehensive Calendar, in English, is for the first time printed, of the following sections of the Dublin archives:—i. Royal charters and governmental grants to the citizens; ii., iii., Contents of the ancient manuscript volumes styled the "White Book" and the "Chain Book;" iv. Acts and proceedings of the municipal assemblies of Dublin, as recorded on the civic rolls from 1447 to 1610.

From THE TIMES.

"This collection from the municipal archives of Dublin has historical and social as well as archæological value. It has a direct bearing on the Irish questions of the day. . . . It traces indirectly the development of those Irish industries which were afterwards stifled by English legislation; it indicates the staples and the fluctuations of a flourishing foreign trade; but its chief interest is in the light it throws on the manners and customs of society in the olden time. The archives of Dublin are a mine of rich material."

VOL. IV. IS IN THE PRESS.

A JACOBITE NARRATIVE OF THE WAR IN IRELAND, 1688-91, by J. T. Gilbert, thick sm. 4to. portrait and facsimiles, hf. bd. £1. 5*s* Dublin, 1892

With illustrative letters and papers hitherto unpublished. Edited by JOHN T. GILBERT, F.S.A., M.R.I.A., late Secretary of the Public Record Office of Ireland; Author of a "History of the City of Dublin;" Editor of "Facsimiles of National Manuscripts of Ireland," published by command of Her Majesty, Queen Victoria.

The illustrations comprise a reproduction of the rare portrait of Sarsfield, Earl of Lucan Commander-in-Chief of the Jacobite forces in Ireland, with a facsimile of a letter from him; facsimiles from writings of the Jacobite Attorney-General, Sir Richard Nagle; Colonel William Wolseley; and the Duke de Lausun, Commander of French Auxiliary Troops in Ireland.

This unique Jacobite Narrative, written soon after the events which form its subject, supplies information not elsewhere accessible on the affairs of Ireland, and in relation to the chief persons engaged in them at the period of the revolution of 1688. In the "Narrative" are also embodied expositions of the views and objects of the Irish adherents of the House of Stuart. Extracts which appeared in 1885 from this "Narrative" in a publication, now out of print, attracted much public attention. The "Narrative," in its entirety, will now be printed for the first time, and elucidated by the addition of contemporary letters and documents hitherto unpublished.

Copies will be solely for Subscribers. The entire edition consists of two hundred copies. Subscription £1. 5*s* per copy.

The historical and philological value of the contents of this volume is so well recognized, that the publication of the text is a munificent boon to Celtic scholars. One part of the contents is a poem written in the year 522 by Dallan Forgaill, with a gloss interlined by Maolmuire. Only two hundred copies were printed.

LEABHAR BREAC—the "Speckled Book"—otherwise styled "The Great Book of Dun Doighre:" a collection of pieces in Irish and Latin, transcribed towards the close of the fourteenth century; now for the first time published from the original manuscript in the Library of the Royal Irish Academy, imperial folio, on toned paper, £4. 4*s* Dublin, 1876

The Book of Leinster is one of the most important of the fragments of Irish Literature that have come down to us. In addition to copies of the native prose historic accounts of the Táin Bó Cualnge, the Bórama, &c., it contains a large fragment of an early prose translation of the Historia de Excidio Troiae of Dares Phrygius; many of the poems and prose introductions of the Dindsenchas or legendary and traditional accounts of the origin of the names of places in Ireland; several historic poems, in which the legendary and traditional accounts of the early history of the country are preserved; Irish genealogies and hagiologies; and a great number of interesting stories, illustrative of the manners and customs, the modes of thought, and the state of culture, &c., of the people of Ireland just about the period of the Anglo-Norman Invasion.

The previous edition, by H. G. Bohn, was merely a selection, containing only ninety-one plates. This is a necessary book for Art-Students.

Italian Wood-Engraving:

THE ART OF WOOD-ENGRAVING in Italy in the Fifteenth Century. By F. Lippmann, impl. 8vo. many fine facsimiles of Early Woodcuts, hf. morocco, 20*s* 1889

"This is an English version, much enlarged and greatly improved, of a series of articles which originally appeared in the Jahrbuch der K. Preussischen Kunstsammlungen, and was subsequently reprinted without alteration in a volume. To this country the learned Keeper of the Prints at Berlin pays a compliment in giving it the benefit of the improvements that further research has suggested, and in enlarging the number of facsimiles and notes. His book is confined to the quattrocento and to the xylographers who worked in Italy. The productions of each city are treated independently, so that the student can refer to what is said about each of them with or without regard to the others. Of course Florence, the most important of them, and, according to Dr. Lippmann, the fountain-head of wood-engraving in Italy, receives by far the greater part of his attention. The 'single-leaf' and other cuts which answered to our broadsides, and, very soon after xylography was given to popular use, attained prodigious circulation in Italy and abroad, are reproduced in admirable facsimiles, which thoroughly illustrate their origin and histories."—Athenæum, February 15th, 1890.

Japanese Romance: CHIUSHINGURA; or the Loyal League, a JAPANESE ROMANCE, translated by F. V. Dickins; with notes and an Appendix containing a Metrical Version of the Ballad of Takasago, and a Specimen of the original Text in the Japanese character, new edition, royal 8vo. 29 engravings on wood, IN COLOURS, by Japanese Artists, printed on Japanese paper (pub. at 10*s* 6*d*), cloth gilt, 6*s* 1880

The "Chiushingura," is, or at least was, one of the most popular and best-known romances in Japan. It is easy to understand why such should be the case, the main object of the table being to glorify "chiushin" or loyal-heartedness, the supreme virtue of the Bushi class under the old order of things that passed away with the year 1868. The story is, as a mere story, not unskilfully constructed, and the variety of its incidents is sufficient to interest even the reader of the sensation novels of the period; while to those who still preserve some lingering affection for the quaint and picturesque national life that ended with the last decade, to be replaced by the vulgar and commonplace existence of the day, these pages, as descriptive of old-world manners and already obsolete sentiments, a portion of a curious mediæval system that has lasted down to our own times, will not, it is hoped, be altogether unpleasing.

Jeypore Enamels : imperial 4to. 23 illustrations, beautifully printed in gold and colours, with descriptive letterpress, boards, 21*s* 1886

A limited number of copies was issued to subscribers.

Among all the examples of Indian enamelling, especially in gold, the works of the Jeypore artists are admitted to hold the first place. The South Kensington Museum contains a fine collection presented by the late Maharaja to the Prince of Wales.

Some beautiful specimens from Jeypore have been already illustrated in the JOURNAL OF INDIAN ART, accompanied by an admirable introduction from the pen of Surgeon-Major T. H. Hendley. These are only specimens of the large and valuable series of illustrations of Jeypore Enamels prepared by native artists under the superintendence of Colonel Jacob, which furnishes a complete conspectus of this exquisite art. The whole series is published as a separate monograph, which portrays the pure and exquisite colouring employed with harmonious taste by the enamellers.

Kemble (John M.) the Saxons in England: a history of the English Commonwealth till the period of the Norman Conquest, 2 vols. 8vo. pp. ix-435, and 562, facsimile reprint of the scarce original edition published in 1849, cloth, 20*s* 1876

This important work had become so rare that the copies which occasionally turned up at sales were eagerly competed for, and brought three or four times the original publication-price. It was the magnum opus of its author, a scholar unrivalled in his knowledge of the earliest English history and antiquities. The works of Sir Francis Palgrave, Lappenberg, and Mr. Freeman, all belong like this to the new school in which the notions of most writers upon ancient England are replaced by new and sounder views, but "the Saxons in England" must be studied by all who would effectively clear their mental atmosphere of the old clouds of ignorance and error. In this treasury of historical knowledge and criticism, the origines of the English race have to be sought for, and the earliest forms of that Teutonic civilization which has developed into the society and institutions of the United Kingdom and the United States.

Lea (Henry C.) Chapters from the Religious

HISTORY OF SPAIN connected with the Inquisition, 8vo. 522 pp. cloth, 12*s* Philadelphia, 1890

Mr. Lea's History of the Inquisition in the Middle Ages was absolutely the first philosophical work based on exact knowledge which had ever been written upon the subject. The present "Chapters" is a more elaborate and extended treatment of some portions of the matter, and it must be regarded as an indispensable complement of the former book. The sections are: Censorship of the Press; Mystics and Illuminati; Endemoniadas; el Sante Niño de la Guardia; Brianda de Bardari (the last two relating to the conversion and expulsion of the Jews). Thus it will be seen that a great many readers, not particularly interested in the history of the Inquisition per se, will find in these "Chapters" some valuable disquisitions on the aberrations of the human mind, and things connected with the study of occult science.

Lea's Superstition and Force, post 8vo. fourth edition, revised, xvi and 628 pp. cloth, 10*s* Philadelphia, 1892

Learned Essays on the Wager of Law, the Wager of Battle, the Ordeal and Torture, all based upon authentic Records: a work necessary to students of Mediæval Manners, Customs, Superstitions and Legends.

"As a work of curious inquiry on certain outlying points of obsolete law, 'Superstition and Force' is one of the most remarkable books we have met with."—London Athenæum, November 3rd, 1866.

"He has thrown a great deal of light upon what must be regarded as one of the most instructive as well as interesting phases of human society and progress. . . . The fulness and breadth with which he has carried out his comparative survey of this repulsive field of history [Torture], are such as to preclude our doing justice to the work within our present limits. But here, as throughout the volume, there will be found a wealth of illustration and a critical grasp of the philosophical import of facts, which will render Mr. Lea's labours of sterling value to the historical student."—London Saturday Review, October 18th, 1870.

Lea's History of Celibacy: an Historical Sketch of Sacerdotal Celibacy in the Christian Church, 8vo. second edition, enlarged, xx, 682 pp. (pub. 16*s*), cloth, 12*s* Boston, Mass., 1884

"This subject has recently been treated with very great learning, and with admirable impartiality, by an American Author, Mr. Henry C. Lea, in his History of Sacerdotal Celibacy, which is certainly one of the most valuable works which America has produced. Since the great history of Dean Milman, I know no work in English which has thrown more light on the moral condition of the Middle Ages, and none which is more fitted to dispel the gross illusions concerning that period which positive writers and writers of a certain Ecclesiastical school have conspired to sustain."—Lecky's History of European Morals, Chap. v.

"Mr. H. C. Lea's work is a book of formidable size (642 pp.), and dealing only 'with the enforced celibacy of the sacerdotal class.' But as the survey ranges from the Essenes to the priesthood of modern Catholicism, the field is sufficiently wide. The author's reading has been extremely minute, and his monograph appears to be exhaustive. We notice that he takes a very unfavourable view of the morality of the priesthood of Continental countries (pp. 621-638). We should like especially to direct the attention of those who believe in the present value of the monastic orders in education to the appalling statistics on pp. 636-637. More, of course, we cannot say on this subject."—Westminster Review, April, 1885.

The authors of this work announced that it was their intention to complete it in about nineteen parts; however, they stopped short at part xvii. Since the acquisition of the stock by Mr. Quaritch, he has had the work completed by Mr. George Brettingham Sowerby, the eminent naturalist. That gentleman has added plate 35, A VERY LARGE FIGURE OF A LOBSTER, which remained unfinished at the cessation of the work; a Generic and Specific Index to the entire work; and has drawn fifteen new species, on six entirely new copper plates, with descriptive letterpress.

A beautiful and attractive work, containing etchings of objects of virtû: Arms, Jewels, Furniture, Crystals, Enamels, Porcelain, the work chiefly of great artists of the Renaissance, and exhibiting the highest form of Art as applied to things used in the ordinary transactions of life. The objects were selected from the finest collections of Europe, amongst which may be mentioned Baron James de Rothschild and A. de Beaumont, le Comte de Nieuwerkerke, Marquis of Hertford, M. Carpentier, le Musée Impèrial du Louvre, M. Spitzer, etc. The text was written by persons who had made the various subjects a special study, such as M. Beaumont for the Armour—M. Mantz for Jewellery and Watches—MM. Sauzay and Bartz for Furniture, etc. So far as the etcher's work is concerned, it has received eulogy from all sides, for the perfection with which it reproduces and seems to convey the most delicate lights and shades. Even the colourist's hand could hardly satisfy the eye and the perceptions more than these plain illustrations, in which any one with artistic feeling can almost discern the very hues and tints of the originals.

"We have perhaps said enough in praise of the acute criticisms and insight of Dr. Lippmann who has produced a curious and readable monograph on a subject which might easily be made excessively dry and dull. London Marriage Licences, 1521-1869, transcribed

"They throw a flood of light on the genealogies of the diocese of London, and especially of London itself. I regard them as one of my greatest genealogical treasures."—J. L. CHESTER, February 16th, 1880.

The "Marriage Licences," in the original MS., consist of five folio volumes, of about 400 pages each, finely written and carefully indexed, from the following Offices, viz.:—

The Bishop of London's Office, 1521 to 1828. Also the Dean and Chapter of Westminster's Office (all taken), 1599 to 1699 . . .	3 vols.
Faculty Office of the Archbishop of Canterbury, 1543 to 1869 . .	1 vol.
Vicar-General's Office of the Archbishop of Canterbury, 1660 to 1679 .	1 vol.

These Marriage Licences are now printed in strictly alphabetical order, as the only method of practical working value to the student, exhibiting, as it does, all the marriage entries under any given name at a glance.

To genealogists, lawyers, and students, both historical and biographical, the extreme value of such records as these yield a fund of absolutely original information.

A complete Index, containing references to 25,000 marriages, accompanies the work.

The best Pictorial Work on London, illustrated with 207 copper-plates, published at £26. 5*s*, now reduced to £6. 6*s*.

LONDON.—Wilkinson's Londina Illustrata; or Graphic and Historical Illustrations of the most Interesting and Curious Architectural Monuments of the City and Suburbs of London and Westminster, e.g. Monasteries, Churches, Charitable Foundations, Palaces, Halls, Courts, Processions, Places of early Amusements, Theatres, and old Houses (now mostly destroyed), 2 vols. impl. 4to. containing 207 copper-plate engravings, with Historical and Descriptive Letterpress, hf. bound morocco, uncut, top edges gilt 1808-1825

This interesting and curious Antiquarian work cost the enterprising publisher more than twenty years of undeviating labour and many thousand pounds. Every rare old Print and Drawing, illustrative of London Topography, which he could discover, by the most active and diligent research, was made subservient to his purpose; and of many ancient buildings the Engravings contained in these volumes are now the only known records. What adds considerably to the value of the work, is that the letterpress gives extracts from Parish Registers and Muniмental Documents not easily accessible elsewhere.

Lady Charlotte Guest's Mabinogion: THE MABINOGION, OR ANCIENT ROMANCES OF WALES, from the Llyfr Coch o Hergest, and other ancient Welsh MSS. with an English translation and notes; by LADY CHARLOTTE GUEST. 3 vols. royal 8vo. facsimiles of MSS. and vignettes, half morocco, uncut, £3. 3*s* 1838-49

Lady Charlotte Guest's Mabinogion: LARGE PAPER, 3 vols. imperial 8vo. facsimiles and woodcuts, brown morocco extra, gilt edges by Bedford, very rare, £12. 12*s* 1838-49

The Mabinogion, from the Llyfr Coch o Hergest, translated into English by LADY CHARLOTTE GUEST, in 1 vol. large 8vo. pp. xx and 504, with 46 woodcuts (pub. at 21*s*), hf. bd. morocco, gilt tops, 15*s* 1877

One of the 100 great books on Mr. William Morris's List.

"The first edition of Lady Guest's 'Mabinogion' was published in 1838, and although it created great interest at the time of publication, it is almost unknown to the present generation of readers. The result, however, of its appearance was a revival of the study of Arthurian romance. Tennyson's Idylls are in no slight degree founded upon the 'Mabinogion,' and the subject has become one of general interest. Under these circumstances Lady Guest has very wisely determined upon the republication of the work in a popular form, and the volume, containing a perfect treasure house of Arthurian legend, will, we are sure, be received with delight by the immense section of society who have learnt to feel a deep interest in the heroes of the Round Table. The tales are fanciful, wild, and full of adventure. The manner in which the knights triumph over foes natural and supernatural is wonderful; and all lovers of fairy lore, of the Arabian Nights, and of the doings of those now almost forgotten friends of our boyhood, the Seven Champions of Christendom, will read with delight this delightful collection of Welsh traditionary lore."—Standard, May 21st, 1877.

"Lady Charlotte Guest having brought to the performance of her task not only the necessary literary ability, but a considerable amount of enthusiasm, the old Welsh tales are placed before us in a manner that is likely to secure for them the attention of a large and important class of readers. Indeed, the reputation of the work has already been fully established, as it is now nearly forty years since the publication of the first edition, and in that time the legends have found their way into the hands of students both in this country and on the continent, and have in many instances been made the basis of other efforts. The present edition is designed to meet the requirements of a wider circle of readers, but at the same time it is by no means of what is usually regarded as the popular order of books, seeing that it is issued in the form of a handsome volume, the general appearance of which at once suggests the good taste of those by whom it has been designed and prepared. Beautifully printed on good paper, with wide margins, charmingly illustrated and handsomely bound, the book is one for careful usage and quiet perusal in the study, where its literary merits are likely to be duly appreciated. Lady Charlotte Guest has certainly placed the lovers of legendary lore under very considerable obligations by her well-directed labours, the result of which we heartily welcome."—The Rock, June 15th, 1877

EARLY ENGLISH POTTERY.

DATED, NAMED, AND INSCRIBED.

By J. E. HODGKIN and EDITH HODGKIN.

One volume royal 4to., 208 pp. beautifully coloured frontispiece and 600 engraved specimens of English Pottery in the text, extra cloth, £1. 12s Just out, though dated 1891

——— the same, Large Paper, a noble volume impl. 4to., extra cloth, only fifty copies thus printed, £2. 12s 1891

This Work is a complete Catalogue of those named, dated, and inscribed pieces of Early English Pottery which have survived the ravages of time and fire, and are to be found in the Public Museums of this country and in the cabinets of the curious. It is fondly hoped by the Authors that no apology for the inception and production of such a book will be needed in addressing those whose interest in the Ceramic Arts of Great Britain has led them either to collect, nec sin labore, some specimens of this fast vanishing ware, or to take careful note of such species as are available for public inspection; but it is likewise their earnest desire to entangle in pleasant meshes not a few of the artistic and literary public who knew this early English art only at a distance, and have not yet come under its spell. These will find, it is believed, much to rejoice the eye which loves the Quaint and the Picturesque; and, moreover, something to set them thinking on the changes which the forces of modern "civilisation and refinement" have wrought in the vessels which form a part of the needs of every household.

"A subscriber at North Shields who has taken a large and small copy of Early English Pottery, writes to Miss Hodgkin :—

"I kept back my answer to your note until the books came. They reached me safely yesterday, and I am delighted with them, especially with the large paper: the additional margin helps the general effect of the page so much . . Your illustrations are so real, that having the book one can do without a collection, and so much of the colours of the original seems to be given by the colours in which the blocks are printed.

"Will you give my kind regards to your father, and tell him how much I feel indebted to you for your book."

"Mr. Hodgkin and Miss Hodgkin deal with 'speaking' pottery, and leave what is dumb unchronicled. To give their work permanent interest as a book of reference, they have in most cases produced facsimiles of the inscriptions, besides illustrating their volume very lavishly with engravings of entire pieces.

"There is a monograph on a certain neglected province of the Art, here examined so thoroughly that it will probably be found needless to explore it again.

"A punch-bowl in Bristol delft of 1731 contains the following cheerful doggerel :—

"John Udy of Luxillion his tin was so fine
it gliderd this punch bowl and made it to shine pray fill it with punch lett the tinners fill round they never will budge till the bottom they found."

Valuable new Ornithological Work:

COLOURED FIGURES

OF THE

EGGS OF BRITISH BIRDS.

BY

HENRY SEEBOHM,

AUTHOR OF "SIBERIA IN EUROPE," "SIBERIA IN ASIA," "A HISTORY OF BRITISH BIRDS," "CATALOGUE OF THE BIRDS IN THE BRITISH MUSEUM" (VOL. V.), "THE GEOGRAPHICAL DISTRIBUTION OF THE FAMILY CHARADRIIÆ," "CLASSIFICATION OF BIRDS," "THE BIRDS OF THE JAPANESE EMPIRE," ETC., ETC.

THE PRICE OF THE WORK WILL BE £2. 2s TO SUBSCRIBERS; TO NON-SUBSCRIBERS £3. 3s.

The books which have been written on British Birds, from the first edition of Bewick in 1797, down to Saunders's Manual in 1889, are legion, but in very few of them are the eggs of British Birds illustrated.

The first edition of Hewitson's Oology was begun in 1831, and the last was finished in 1856. The plates were coloured by hand, and are most of them good; but all three editions have long been out of print, and, indeed, much of the letterpress was out of date.

Morris's plates are poor, being apparently executed when the art of chromolithography was only in its infancy; and the letterpress is not much better than the plates.

"SEEBOHM'S HISTORY OF BRITISH BIRDS" is enriched with chromolithographic illustrations of the eggs; but the letterpress alone fills three thick volumes, consequently the work is expensive; moreover, it will soon be out of print. Furthermore, in the ten years which have elapsed since the plates were produced, the art of printing in colour has made great advancement.

There are a few inexpensive books on the Eggs of British Birds, but they contain only figures of the eggs of birds which breed within the British Islands, and these by no means satisfy the wants of the egg collector.

For one who is interested in birds there are a hundred persons who are interested in eggs. What the egg collector wants is a work in one volume, at a moderate price, with coloured illustrations of the egg of every British bird. But the fin-de-siècle egg collector is very exacting. To satisfy him the chromos must be as good as love and money can make them. The letterpress, too, must be up to date in every respect, and, withal, not bulky. Into less than a page devoted to each of the four hundred British birds must be condensed the following facts:—

1. The extent of the breeding range.
2. The date of the nesting season.
3. The situation in which the nest is placed.
4. The size and shape of the nest, and the materials of which it is composed.
5. The number of the eggs.
6. The variations of size and colour of the eggs.
7. The way to distinguish them from the eggs which resemble them closely.
